The following information I just found, I don't know whether you can use it. Henrich Arend Brokamp and Maria Elisabeth Athmann were married on 21 Feb. 1797. They are the parents of the Brokamp twins, born 1809.

Witnesses: Carl Josef Schroder and Johann Henrich Athmann.

Henrich Arend Brokamp, not married, died on 29 June 1824, 80 years old. He was the son of Ludmar Brokamp and Anna Christina Wittrock.

Anna Maria Catharina Brokamp, wife of Heinrich Sieve, Ihorst, died on 30 March 1825.

I enclose two photos of our church. Our church totally needs a new paint job which you can help us pay for; we need and our community must raise 200,000 Marks for this.

We will willingly help you go back further.

Concerning Hermann Brokamp, I can find no further records in our books. I can find nothing of Elisabeth Athmann either. Perhaps she died as a result of the birth of the twins, as at that time was so often the case.

HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

August 19, 1988

Mr. Richard E. Gunther
3240 Peppermint St.

I can find in our books no record of the deaths of Johann Heinrich Brokamp or his wife, Mary Catherine Freking.

I do find the record of the Baptism of their daughter Mary Ann (Maria Anna in the Latin record). I will enclose an actual copy of that record. Note that the record says that she was baptized on October 6, 1839 - the date of birth is not recorded. She was one of three children baptized that same day. She is the only child of this couple listed in our baptismal records.

There is some indication in our files that there may be a connection between this family and another in which the name is spelled "Prokamp". In case you are interested, we have three entries from that family. Anthony, son of Herman Prokamp and Elizabeth Fakenberg (?) was born on August 1, 1854. Clara, age 6, a daughter of the same couple, was buried on April 21, 1854; and John, age 11, son of the same couple, was buried on July 3, 1854.

These are the only records I can find in which the name Brokamp or Prokamp appears in our books.

I hope this information will be of use to you. Thank you for your donation to our parish.

Sincerely,

Fr. Adrian Schneider, O.F.M.

Dear Lucy:

So very nice to receive your note last week and I think it's just great that you found us and vice versa! I always wondered to the Ruelman family whereabouts after they left here...my Mother did not know much about the family that far back.

I promised to send you one of the old "sale bills" of the store but,so far, have not located one. I know I have a few left and will send one after I make a determined search.

Your note inquires about records from the Catholic church in Laurel, Ind. Well, that was a Mission church back in the 1950's and administered from the Rectory here in Oldenburg. Whether is was an established church before that I do not know. However, I would think the records of the parish would be here at Oldenburg. You might write Fr. Caspar Gensler and inquire of him.

With this letter I am sending the booklet on Laurel, Ind., thinking you may get something out of it although, I do not find anything in it of your side of the family.

On my walk through the cemetery last week I went down to the "old part" and did find a stone with the following on it: Augusta Reulmann...1835-1875. Does that mean anything to you? That is the way the last name is spelled.

...Just made my "determined search" and found the sale bill alluded to...so, am enclosing that also.

Give my regards to your parents...they are so very nice. I am happy that your Father's interest in his heritage is being gratified through your efforts...that is very commendable of you.

Sincerely,
Gilbert Munchel

Dear Relative:

Enclosed is a photo of the gravestone of Schwester (Sister) M. Johana (Maria Brokamp).

If I am right this is the sister of Mary E. Rulman of your lineage. Am I right?

I contacted the Convent"s archivist, Sister Mary Edgar Meyer, and she will compile a resume of her entrance, duties, and stations while a member of that community.

I will send you a copy as soon as I acquire it.

I am also coming across another sister, a Mrs. Kessing. Can you tell me something about her. Is she buried on the cemetery here in Oldenburg? What was her husbands first name?

Then I find another daughter, a Mrs. Authur Johnson. Who is that?

We are snowbound in Oldenburg...have read and reread Whittier's "Snowbound" and really have the feel of it.

Hope this finds you, and Jerry, (his '54 Pontiac hasn't been out of the garage for months) your parents, all in good health.

Sincerely,

Gilbert Munchel

Dear Lucy:

Received the packet with all the interesting contents and your letter. Needless to say, I did enjoy all of it! I now feel sure that Elizabeth Kessing was a sister to our Mary Brokamp Hackman Rulman. I recall my Mother saying that we were related to the Kessings, but I never bothered to ask her how.

Also, I now understand the Mrs. Arthur Johnson (Isabella Rulman). On Johanna (Sister), the photo which I sent, I called the Convent archivist again today, and left a note to please send me her background. She will do this, I'm sure, but she is so involved in teaching at Marion College, their school in Idianapolis, that it will take a few more weeks. I will forward information to you when received.

Now, I enclose the last will and testament of Anton Hackman, recorded at the Franklin County Courthouse and a picture of his gravestone, Holy Family Cemetery, Oldenburg. I checked at the rectory of our Parish on his burial and they have no record of his burial! Father assured me that he probably is buried there but some records were not kept! The initials are J. H. A. Hackmann...don't understand all the initials, if it is really Anton's grave. They did have a record of the marriage of Antonius Hackmann, son fo Varin (?) Gerhard (?) Hackmann and Anna Gemalckuller (?) to Maria Brokamp, of Henricus Brokamp and Catherine Freking. Married by Fr. Jos. Rudolf. (The ? marks are to denote guessed-at spelling).

Maybe you have all this and more...if so, would appreciate being enlightened.

Oh yes, while in the Brookville courthouse I looked for Anton and Maria marriage license...no luck. Looked for their naturalization papers...no luck. I understand Mary Brokamp was born in Cinti...do you know where? How can I find out when either of them came to America? Are their geneaologists in Germany who will check out this for me?

Sincerely,

Gilbert

Dear Gilbert,

Sorry to be so tardy in answering your last letter. It was just that school work had me swamped. Carrying 11 hours of classes and working full-time just are too much for me! Right now, it is spring-break and I'm enjoying it to the fullest...catching up on all the things that I enjoy doing....

Thanks ever so much for the copy of Anton's will..also the information on the marriage certificate...didn't have Mary Brokamp's mother's name before..feel certain that she(Mary) and Elizabeth Kessing were sisters!

That's funny that Anton and Maria's marriage license was not in the courthouse...what was the date of their marriage? The marriage license of Mary Brokamp and Herman Ruelmann Sr. of February 24, 1876 is recorded there. Back in 1974, I obtained a copy of the certificate for $1.00 but it does not give as much information as the church record(which gave the names of the parents). They also told me at that time that their naturalization records were misplaced during the remodeling of their courthouse but that I should write to the State Library in Indianapolis since all of their naturalization records are on microfilm there. I wrote to the library and they replied: that they do have Franklin County naturalization records on microfilm but that they could not search the records for me..I would have to hire a researcher. A bright idea just entered my head....are you far from Indianapolis? I have an idea that the Hackman records are there and possibly Herman Ruelmann Sr. The other possibility is Cincin...for Brokamp and Ruelmann....Do you ever get a chance to go to either city..? There is probably a naturalization office in Cinci also... I will send you all the information I can to help... ~~Her~~

HERMAN B. RUELMANN SR. came to USA from Germany in June, 1865 and landed in New York. Worked in New York;Logan,Pennsylvania;Dayton,Ohio;Cinci.,O.; and Lockland,O. In 1871 he purchased the mill in Oldenburg. You must be in the USA for 5 years before naturalization so it was either Hamilton Co.O. or Franklin Co.Ind...he was naturalized, because he was a registered Democrat.

JOHN HENRY BROKAMP: Suggestion..first look at deeds for land in Oldenburg granted to him. This would have to be after 1833 since Mary Brokamp was born in Cinci. in Dec. 1833. We also know that Elizabeth Brokamp Kessing was born in Germany in Feb. 1833 so he came to USA between Feb. and Dec. of 1833.. now we have to establish where he lived about 1838. Aunt Belle told me that her Grandpa Brokamp was married twice and that the step-mother treated her mother(Mary Brokamp) better than the real mother John Henry(Ben) was killed in Cinci. moving a house....

I never did get a copy of John Henry Brokamp's death certificate which would be in Cinci..if he died there... or one of Mary or Catherine Freiking Brokamp who could have died either in Cinci or Franklin Co.Ind..... the problem is to establish approximate date of death on both.

Anton Hackman..you need to look at property deeds for Oldenburg to establish when he came there..the history says he came to the US before he reached the age of majority...do you know his birth date????? You could probably find his record in Indianapolis.....

Once you can get naturalization records..this will tell you what town they embarked from in Germany and perhaps more.. after that..I have articles on file showing how to compose letters in German for information...or perhaps you could have a local townsperson who is well-versed in German write the letter for you..will make copies of the articles I have.

Will send you a copy of the Ruelmann history..just because of Mary Brokamp being in it...you might be interested in it.

Secondly, if you do get to go to Indianapolis..I would be glad to help out on expenses for copying materials etc. Just didn't want to hire an unknown genealogist to do the research for us....Just wish that I had time to go to Indy.

Can't tell you how much you have helped..Have you thought of any old people in Oldenburg who might be able to help on bits of information that we need? Maybe some one remembers Mary Brokamp....She didn't die until 1915. How about the Kessings????

Sincerely,
Lucy

Dear Cousin Lucy...

Wow! what a wealth of information you sent me! I'm still trying to digest it all. What effort, and time, you have put into this! My contributions seem so humble. Nevertheless, I'll keep trying on this end of the line.

My research will be a little sporadic these next few months as there is so many interesting things to do in the great outdoors during the Summer. This is what I have accomplished though...

First, enclosed you will find a copy of the note that I received from Sister Mary Edgar Meyer, the archivist of the Convent of the Sisters of St. Francis. That should definitely establish Johanna's place in the lineage record. She sounds like a very good person, doesn't she? The Villa they mention was a country retreat about one mile northeast of the Town, on the Peppertown road, and was in use formerly as a sort of health, vacation, and rest house. It still stands, a huge two-story brick building with about 25 rooms. It was recently sold to the caretaker who managed their orchards. Sister Mary Edgar talked to some of the older nuns and they remembered her. Especially that she insisted, to the last, on walking to the Villa to do her daily chores.

I have studied your suggestions on research on John Henry Brokamp, Herman B. Ruelmann Sr., and Anton Hackman. I am mailing today, a request to John Newman, state archivist, for information on this. Mr. Newman is a friend of mine and he owes me a few favors so I'm sure we'll hear something from him.

In my walks to the local cemetery I will search in the old part for a Mary or Catherine Freking or Freiking. Also, will see what is in the parish records.

Trust you, Jerry and your fine Father and Mother are in good health.

Sincerely,

Gilbert Munchel

Dear Gilbert,

In looking through my old correspondence, I discovered that our last communication was in April. Being the impatient person that I am, thought I'd write and find out if you have discovered anything new about the Hackmans and Rulmans and Brokamps. You had mentioned writing to a Mr. Newman, a good friend in Indianapolis, in hopes that he could help with locating the naturalization information.

Since my classes are over until Sept. 26, there is a little more time for me to delve into my favorite hobby. Have been boning up on all the articles which explain how to do German research. Hopefully, it will enable a feeble attempt on my part to correspond with someone in charge of the church resgisters in Germany. There sometimes is a record of two hundred years on one's ancestors there.

How has the weather been in Oldenburg? If you have had as much rain lately as we have had here, everything must be green and beautiful. Oldenburg is truly a lovely place. It really impressed me the moment we drove into the village. Really can't figure out why one would leave there and go to Minster as Herman and Mary Rulmann did.

Hope you and your family are in the best of health.

Would certainly enjoy hearing from you again.

Cordially,

Dear Gilbert,

A lady that my parents met from Edgerton, Ohio is looking for an old piano stool that turns, with claw feet. My Mom recalled seeing a couple of them at your store when we were there. Do you still have any and if so, how much are you asking? I can let this lady know. I think she would be willing to make the trip to buy one. She wants it for her daughter for Christmas.

I discovered in looking at the 1850 census of Oldenburg that Mary Brokamp and Elizabeth Brokamp were living with a Anthony and Mary Romweber or Rosenweber at that time. Also found Anton Romweber listed in the 1870 ledger that you gave me of the Hackman store. I wonder if the mother of Mary and Elizabeth remarried this Romweber after John Henry Brokamp died? Do you have any way of checking this out? They would have had to been married between 1840 and 1850.

Imagine that the trees and scenery are beautiful there. Haven't had time to enjoy it much around here since I'm taking classes again and have lots of homework.

Let me know if you have any piano stools......

Made an attempt to write to Germany for records, but it has been two months now and no reply...

As always,
Lucy

Dear Lucy:

My apologies for such a late reply. Have no excuse except I don't have the information that I had hoped to have regarding the Hackman, Rulman, Brokamp genealogies. I have just finished placing a call to John Newman, of the Indiana State Library, regarding this but he is out of town until Wednesday. I did not want to put off anwering your letter any longer.

I do not understand Mr. Newman...he is not that type of person to ignore such a request. I wrote him a follow-up letter last month requesting again the information. No reply! Well, I will not quit on this and will try to 'phone him again on Wednesday and keep you informed.

Re the Brokamps living with the Anthony and Mary Romweber family. That could very well be as that family lived in the Huegel House (pictured in the little blue book entitled "Oldenburg, Village of Spires...I'm sure I gave you such a book, if not, let me know and I will send one) and they operated a sort of Hotel-Rooming House. An Anthony Romweber, no doubt a son of the first Anthony, operated a jewelry shop here in Oldenburg in the early 1900's, later marrying into the Hillenbrand family, I think, and went to Batesville and became a very well-to-do industrialist, manufacturing furniture. The business still is operating under the name of American Furniture. They make the Viking Oak line, very excellent furniture, selling in the $2500.00, for a desk, range.

Now, the piano stool...Yes, Lonny informs me she has two: one is an oak refinished color, with claw feet (looks beautiful) for $55.00 (she tells me she did have $65.00 on it but as the season is coming to an end will take the $55.00) The other is unfinished, sorta dark wood, claw feet, the turntable (or screw part needs to be reseated) and is priced at $45.00. Should the lady be interested have her call Lonny (812-934-3552), after 1 p.m., and she will put them aside for her to choose.

Thank you, Lucy for your correspondence, give my regards to your parents! Oh yes, I have a new granddaughter by Sandra Delores Koch, named Kendra Kelly Koch!

My apologies for not corresponding more often! And thank you for the Christmas card...so nice of you to think of us.

My Sister, Pauline Denker, who lives in Cincinnati, is visiting this week and, in the process, is going through our Mother's effects. Her husband died this past year and she has more time now to take care of things. He was an invalid for four years so she is slowly unwinding and doing some things she never had time.

So, she came across the en~~xx~~closed Mass card of Herman Rulmann and I know you wpild be delighted to have it and am enclosing it.

Should she come across anything else that pertains to the Rulmann family I will certainly send it along.

I know I have been lax in not researching more But I plead... "too busy with Town business, I am on Council, family affairs, antiquing, and just a slowing down of the energies."

Anyway, Lucy, I think of you and hope your family is in good health. Oh, by the way, tell you husband that Linda Peine's '52 Buick coupe is still in the garage across the street! She stopped driving last year, she is 93, but her nephew has first claim on th e car! Tough luck!

Dear Gilbert,

Well, here it is.. a rainy Sunday afternoon so thought that I would catch up on my correspondence.

Was so very glad to hear from you and to receive Herman Rulmann's Mass Card and the postcard of Oldenburg.. I really like surprises like that! It always helps to brighten my day.

If Pauline comes across anything else on the Rulmann Family I would certainly like to have it or at least a copy.

Just returned from the three day Ohio Health Commissioners' Conference held in Cincinnati. If it hadn't been such an effort to get my car from the hotel garage and there had been more time, I would have travèled over to Oldenburg. As it was, I did copy down some Ruelmanns from the telephone directory to write to. Didn't have nerve enough to call them on the phone.

Everything is so beautiful at this time of year..can imagine that Oldenburg is in the height of its glory right now. Perhaps we will get some traveling done this summer. You know that you and Lonnie are always welcome here in case you decide to come up north.

Told Jerry about Linda Peine's 52 Buick. He still hasn't found his old car yet. Closest thing is a 74 Ford wagon which he is "restoring" in the garage. Car sales are very slow right now.

Keep me posted on any " new finds"...Thanks again !

Lucy

Do you have the following death-record on file in Franklin County?

MARIA ANN ROMWEBER (OR ROSENWEBER) date of death was probably in September 1874.... her will was dated 30 Sept. 1874 and was filed earlier in May 1874.. so date of death occurred sometime in that four month period. (wife of Anton)

Enclosed is a check for $3.00 to cover the cost of one copy.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
Lucy M. Weaver
(Mrs.) Gerald F. Weaver

Our death records do not begin until 1882. We do have a will record. If you would like a copy of that, please let us know. The charge would be three dollars, but I am returning your previous check.

Dear Cousin,

Mrs. Wellen from Mason City, Iowa wrote to me following her visit in Oldenburg. She said that she enjoyed her visit with you immensely. Thank you for giving her my name and address. I answered her letter, but so far haven't made a definite connection with her Brokamps. It is almost too much of a coincidence that her Brokamps came from Steinfeld and also lived in Oldenburg for a short time.

I am curious..how did she happen to run into you, a Brokamp descendant...that is also a coincidence......???

Would there happen to be anything in the church records at Oldenburg about John Henry Brokamp..who probably died between 1840 and 1850? If we could find his funeral record it might give his age or his parents' names.. a very strong clue that we need to connect with Mrs. Wellen's ancestry. Also still have the burning question who Maria Ann Romweber was...she died between May and Sept. 1874(her will was filed 30 Sept. 1874 and written in May 1874....could she possibly be in the church records? I know that you are somewhat reluctant to bother your priest (unless you have a new one)..I could send a small donation to the church for the records if you think that might help...

THEY LOOKED ... CHURCH ... I HOPE THE ANSWER IS NO!!

After all these years I found a correspondent in Germany who researched the Rulman family for me and send me a few generations..I was able to give my dad a nice surprise of the Reulmann Family History for his 75th birthday on Aug. 13. Also discovered that the Bernard Reulmann in the old ledger that you gave me was probably my great grandfather since his name was Herman ~~Bernard~~ Reulmann...

Any new additions in the way of grandchildren? Our daughter was married one year ago and is living near Detroit..works for a plastic surgeon as his medical assistant. We do not see them too often since it is 270 miles roundtrip.

(ANN EGG AGENT)

Jerry left the car dealership after 25 years..business was so bad...no commission since cars are not selling... Defiance has over 14% unemployment rate.. he is keeping busy making repairs around the house.

Had hoped to get to Oldenburg this summer, but the time is fast flitting by..may make it this fall. There is a quality about Oldanburg that gets into your blood, I guess... It must be beautiful in the winter also although I may never get to see it then..

I hope you will be able to look at the church records.. hope to hear from you. Give our best to Lonnie, too..

Very best regards,
Lucy

Dear Cousin Lucy...

Delayed answering your letter until now for I had hoped to be able to report on your inquiries concerning John Henry Brokamp and Maria Ann Romweber (does she fit in your lineage of Reulman, or mine, or Brokamp?)...anyway, I had no success. Yes, we do have new priests at Holy Family, and the assistant Pastor, Fr. Adrian Schneider, is very cooperative. So, if you have any other names to trace he can be helpful. I had asked him to see me, giving him the names of the above, shortly after I received your letter but he only responded this week. He had researched the death, baptismal and marriage records but could find nothing. He got out the books in question and showed me the pages that were pertinent but, alas, nothing! The entries are written in Latin in a German script handwriting so I could only make out names!

You asked how I met Mrs. Wellen? I will enclose her letter as I have no further use for it and you need not return it. She is a very capable, intelligent woman and her husband is a amateur, but very professional in his work, photographer and he took many, many photos of the community. I gave them my "walking history tour" and with the aid of a cassette recorder we taped my commentary and they are going to make a slide presentation and give it before her genealogy group workshop. When I got the letter I thought, "Oh, Boy! wait 'till Lucy Weaver hears about this!" And when she came to our house an d introduced herself and asked if I thought I could help, I replied, "Yes, I think we might even be related!" She couldn't wait to work on the connection between our Brokamp's and hers. But we couldn't find any leads...and I told her about you and your interest in genealogy and I waited eagerly to hear from you. What do we do now?

On point #2 in her letter...I exerod(?) a copy of the Franklin Co. plat map and found the place she described and took her to the place. All in all, I think she had a delightful trip into nostalgia land.

Back to the Brokamp's...before she arrived I tried to piece it together from your material that you sent me and had no luck...then I remembered that on the ~~back of the~~ report from the Convent on Sister Maria Brokamp there was mention of Steinfeld, Germany and I thought when Mrs. Wellen arrived she would have the link.

Yes, our church is remodeled...it's a compromise but not too bad. Hope Jerry is back in business and your family well.

Dear Mr. Munchel:

I found your name in the August 6, 1978 Indianapolis Star Magazine article about Oldenburg: Faithful to a Religion and an Era. It states that you are the "unofficial town historian" and that you take visitors on tours of the town.

My family and I are coming to Oldenburg on either the 5th, 6th or 7th of August and would appreciate it very much if we could take one of your tours. Also I am interested in finding an antique from there dating from the 1850's, if possible.

My name is Margaret Wellen. I am the great-granddaughter of Herman and Elisabeth Brockamp who lived in Oldenburg in the 1850's. They came to Festina, Iowa (which was settled by mostly people from Oldenburg) in 1855. Herman Brockamp was born in Steinfeld, Oldenburg, Germany on 31 July 1809.

I have been working on my family tree and want to obtain as much information as possible in the limited time we will be there. I think it advisable that I write you some of the things I will be looking for so that you will have some time to think about them:

1. Two of the children of Herman and Elisabeth Brockamp died at Oldenburg and would be buried there. Do you have a cemetery list showing which cemetery they might be in? They were members of Holy Family Church. Their names were:
   John Brockamp--died 1 Aug. 1854
   Clara Brockamp-died 17 Apr. 1854
   Also I will be looking for the graves of any other Brockamp (or Brokamp) who may have died in Franklin County. The County Recorder has informed me that a "Henry Brokamp" once owned some land in Franklin County. I feel that he may be my great-grandfather's twin brother and would be very interested in checking further on this.

2. Herman Brockamp owned the following real estate in Franklin County:
   The W½ of the SW¼ of Section 35, Township 11, Range 11 East of the Second Principal Meridian Line.
   Where could I purchase a plat showing this property? I would much like to see the "old homestead" while I am there!

3. Where could I purchase a Franklin County History or an Oldenburg History? I have a copy of the Holy Family Parish History but it does not contain much information from the 1850's. Also, I hope there are picture postcards of Oldenburg available for purchase.

4. I would be very interested in any information regarding the Brockamp family and Oldenburg. They came to Oldenburg, Indiana from Doddridge County, Virginia (now West Virginia).

I am looking forward to visiting Oldenburg, and will come to your antique shop with the hope of a tour and some answers to my questions.

Thank you very much for any help you might be able to give me!

Sincerely,

Margaret Wellen

Dear Mrs. Weaver:

We vacationed part of last week at Oldenburg, Indiana, and your name and address were given to me by Mr. Gilbert Munchel. He told me that you were also working on the Brokamp (or Brockamp) genealogy and that we may find some information of mutual interest if I wrote you.

I am enclosing copies of family group sheets on my great-grandparents, Herman BROCKAMP and Elisabeth TACKENBERG Brockamp; my grandparents, Mary BROCKAMP Gardner and William GARDNER; and my parents, Anna GARDNER Klein and Henry KLEIN. Also I am enclosing copies of research from the Kath. Pfarramt at Steinfeld, West Germany, together with the translations. Mr. Richard E. Gunther, who obtained this information, is my second cousin, once removed, and we have been working on this family line for some time now. He has again written to Steinfeld for more information.

My great-grandfather, Herman BROCKAMP (he spelled it BROKAMP at one time and later spelled it BROCKAMP) was born 31 July 1809. He had a twin brother, Henrich Arend BROKAMP. While my uncle was alive my cousin was visiting with him one day, and she wrote down the following that he told her:

> "Herman Brockamp and his brother came across from Germany. There was a ship-wreck on Easter Sunday morning and Herman never saw his brother again. They landed in Baltimore."

I have a copy of a Family Register of the Herman Brockamp family and on it it says that Herman came to America Sept. 1, 1833. I am wondering about the validity of the above quote regarding "Easter Sunday morning" - and I would tend to believe that the date on the Family Register would be the correct one. So far, I have been unable to obtain a passenger list on Herman's arrival, although I have checked with the National Archives. I am also wondering if his twin brother really did become ship-wrecked - you know how these family stories get mixed up.

I copied some of the information you provided Mr. Munchel and I notice you show an 1833(?) date given for John Henry Brokamp's arrival in U.S.A. so I am curious as to whether this could be Herman's twin. Do you have a birth date for John Henry Brokamp?

My Herman Brockamp, who came to America in 1833, lived in Cumberland, Allegany County, Maryland, and was married 2 Dec 1840 to Elisabeth TACKENBERG.

As far as I can tell, they moved to Doddridge County, Virginia (now West Virginia) sometime between 1845 and 1848 (as 4 children were born there). Then they lived in Oldenburg, Franklin County, Indiana, where there was 1 birth and 2 deaths, before they came to Festina, Winneshiek County, Iowa.

I am very interested in finding out who the other Oldenburg Brokamps were. I feel they must surely be related - that Herman must have had some of his people in Oldenburg - maybe that's why he went there.

I hope you will look over these papers and see if you can make any connections. I have been working on this for several years and this seems to be the only other Brockamps I have been able to find other than Herman's descendents. I am almost completed with this line of the family.

One reason I am suspecting that maybe Herman's twin brother may have survived the so-called shipwreck is that the convent records at Oldenburg show Sister M. Johanna as being the daughter of Heinrich Brokamp, Steinfeld, Oldenburg. Her birth date was 4 October 1840, making her father 31 at the time (if he was our Heinrich, born in 1809), which, of, course, would be possible (about the right age).

I hope I have made myself clear, and that maybe you might find some connection with the information I am sending you.

Any information you can give me will be most appreciated!

We had a marvelous time in Oldenburg - we went there on a sort of "sentimental journey" and certainly were not disappointed. Mr. Munchel very graciously helped us in so many ways, and I am very grateful to him!

Sincerely,

Margaret Weller

P. S. Richard Gunther, who now lives at the address shown on the German material in Newbury Park, CA, is a teacher at Cal State College, Northridge, CA, and is preparing to write a Brockamp family history when we feel we have enough information. He visited at our home for a few days in May of this year, and is just as interested in this genealogy as I am!

Dear Margaret,

Your recent letter re: Brokamp(Brockamp) genealogy was very interesting to me. I am so glad you discovered the beauty of Oldenburg and the gracious hospitality of my cousin Gilbert Munchel. How in the world did you happen to contact Gilbert or was it one of those "genealogical coincidences" that one can not explain. I would be interested in hearing about it. We "happened" on to Gilbert when we also took a "sentimental" trip to Oldenburg several years ago. We stopped at the Hackmann store because we knew my great-grandmother had been married to Anton Hackmann. Not even thinking about the prospect that a Hackmann descendant might be running the store, we casually mentioned that the store had once belonged to our great-grandmother..immediately there was much excitement as one of Gilbert's children ran to get his dad to tell him. Since then we have corresponded and Gilbert has sent bits and pieces of history to me.

The fact that your Brockamps lived in Oldenburg at one time and the fact that they were from Steinfeld also is almost enough to make one believe that there is a connection. I will tell you what little I know and what I have theorized:

JOHN HENRY BROKAMP(often called Ben), born in Germany, came to America, probably between 1833 and 1838..(his eldest child was Maria Elizabeth Brokamp, born 23 Feb. 1833 in Germany and the next child Maria(my great-grandmother) was born either 21 December 1833 or 1838 in Cincinatti, Hamilton County,Ohio) Maria's birthdate is uncertain..it is listed 1833 on her death certificate, but on several censuses her age would indicate 1838.. since her step-son gave the death cert. info...it could be inaccurate.... The next child Mary Ann(Sr. Johanna was born 4 Oct. 1840 Oldenburg,Ind....... The information on Sr. Johanna also mentions her parents: Katharina Frecking and Heinrich Brokamp of Steinfeld, Oldenburg.

The eldest child Elizabeth married John Kessing..(I will send you a copy of the article on the Kessings..in which it mentions that she was the daughter of John Henry and Mary (Freking) Brokamp.) It says" Henry Brokamp was a German Catholic, who brought his family to America and settled on a FranklincCounty farm." " He and his wife were the parents of three children, Elizabeth, Mary and Johanna."

Mary Brokamp married Anton Hackmann in the 1950's and had three sons by him. Anton died. She later married Herman Bernard Rulmann, a widower and a miller, who had two sons. They then had two sons and one daughter. One of the sons: Anthony Rulmann was my paternal grandfather. The daughter Isabella died three years ago and was 85 yrs. old. I tried to get the Brokamp history from her..but I think it is a little garbled.. she said: my grandfather Brokamp was killed while moving a house in Cinci. my mother said that after her mother died..her father remarried and the step mother was better to her."""" I think that the mother remarried after the father died to an Anthony Romweber (or Rosenweber) because the 1850 census of Ray Twp. Franklin Co.Ind. lists:

Anthony Rosenweber age 33, Mary age 39, b. Germany, Elizabeth age 7, b. Ind., Ludwich, age 5, b. Ind. John age 2, and ELIZABETH BROKAMP age 17 born Germany...MARY BROKAMP, age 13, b. O... and MARY ANN BROKAMP age 11 ,b. Ind. This particular Maria Ann Rommweber's will dated 30 Sept. 1874 Franklin Co.Ind. leaves her property to her husband Anton Rommwbber during his lifetime, at death of said husband, estate to go to sons: John H. Romweber and F ank Romweber... one of the witnesses was Christopher Kessing(who would be her nephew)..this type of will would indicate that she might have had property from a previous marriage. It did not list her age, but if she were in her late 60's it could the mother of the Brokamp girls...

Another comment: German names are very confusing..often they use the middle name rather than th. first christian name.. Mary Katharine Freiking Brokamp..is also listed as Mary Ann and sometimes as Katharine.... Sr. Johanna.. was listed as: Mary Annn.....Mary Johanna....Johanna....

If all of the above is confusing.. will send you a copy of my typed data on the Brokamp-Hackman family...

So..I do not have a birthdate for John Henry or any information on his life in Oldenburg...or when he died.. My aunt Isabella did not remember any Brokamp relatives in Oldenburg but they may have moved on before she was born in 1880's...

From the 1880 Census of Franklin Co.Ind:
p.7 BROKAMP, JOHN H. age 46 grocer
Bernadine, age 37
Mary, age 17
Josephina, age 12
Francis, age 5
(at the time I copied these..evidently didn't put down place of birth)

The index for the 1850 census of Hamilton Co.O. shows:

BROKAMP, DENA	Ham. W8 p.712
FERD	Ham. 11, p247
FRANZ	Ham. 10, p.27
HENRY	Ham. W8 p.494
HENRY	HAM. 10, p.59
JOHN H.	Ham. W.9 p.863

(obtained these when I thought Maria Brokamp(Rulmann)'s parents lived in Cinic.O.

Since I have never sent for Maria Romweber's death certificate.. will do so..it might give her date of birth and her parents names... it would help to establish the fact that John Henry Brokamp died between 1840 and 1850...also will have Gilbert check the church records for John Henry's funeral....etc.

Hope to hear from you again..I am so excited about the Brokamp genealogy..would love to call the list of ancestors you sent...mine also..but can not confirm or deny the twin brother theory at this point...keep in touch..would appreciate your comments on the theories....

Incidentally we are close in age..four yrs. difference.. I was born in 1933....we were married in 1956 and have one dtr. born 1957.

Sincerely,
Lucy Rulman/Weaver

Dear Lucy:

Thank you very much for your letter of 17 August. I do not see a direct connection in our families yet, but I have a strong feeling that there is one! I also feel that if I could only get a passenger list of the ship on which our Herman and his twin brother came to America in 1833 that there might be other Brokamps that came then too. I have again written to the National Archives - trying another ship - and hope this might be the right one. I may never find one if, indeed, there was a shipwreck!

After reviewing my material from Germany and the papers you sent me, my thought is that maybe your John Henry could have been a first cousin of my Herman. Notice that Joan Henricus Brokamp and Catharina Elisabeth Haskamp had five children (as shown by the German records), one of which was the father of Herman and Henrich (our Brokamp twins) - maybe one of the other two boys born of this marriage had your John Henry. Of course, you know this is only speculation on my part! I can't understand why there doesn't seem to be any record in Steinfeld of a John Henry Brokamp being born around the early 1800's (which, I would think, would be about right for having children born in the 1830's), unless maybe they didn't send us the records of all the Brokamps from there, which is very possible.

If you want to try writing to Steinfeld for additional information the address Richard Gunther has been writing to is:

Kath. Kirchengemeinde
St. Johannes
2841 Steinfeld
West Germany

He has been corresponding in German with them (very difficult), and we have been sending $20.00 each time. He wrote them again in June, I believe, and we have not as yet received a reply to this last letter. If you would wait until we have our reply before writing there it might be best - so as not to confuse them over there. I will write you and let you know what they send this time as soon as we hear! It usually takes several months.

I first heard of Gilbert Munchel from an article, "OLDENBURG: Faithful to a Religion and an Era" which appeared in the Indianapolis Star Magazine 8/6/78. My sister lives in Terre Haute, Indiana, and when she visited in Mason City a year ago I asked her to check her library and send me copies of anything she might find about Oldenburg and send me a copy, which she did. When planning our trip to Oldenburg I thought it advisable to write to Mr. Munchel (as he was listed in the article as being the "unofficial town historian") and tell him that we would be coming and would like a tour of the town. I listed the different things we would be checking on while there, giving names, etc., so he would have time to think about some of the things I would be looking for. He was really great - he even found where Herman had owned property and took us out to view the place and visit with someone who had owned the same land some time ago! They were just marvelous people - I would be so proud to be related!

While in Oldenburg, my husband took about 100 slides of the town and we had our tape recorder along too, so we have a running commentary by Mr. Munchel to go with our "slide show". We still have one box of slides that aren't back from the processor yet, but when they come we'll try to "put it all together"!

On the way to Oldenburg we stopped for a day at Terre Haute to visit my sister and I spent about two hours at the Terre Haute library. They have a Soundex index for the 1900 Census for the state of Indiana and I found several Brokamps in Wayne County, Indiana. I did not check into this any further then - I can order the 1900 Census for Wayne County, Indiana, from our library here and study it at my convenience - but I do want to let you know about it - it might be of significance to you.

I was interested in hearing about your family! My husband and I were married in 1952 and have 4 children and 2½ grandchildren. I am a former legal secretary but have not worked as such since the birth of my children. My husband is a retired policeman and is now a probation officer with the department of community corrections. Our youngest daughter will be a high school senior this fall, so after college for her our child-raising will be over.

Genealogy seems to occupy most of my time now - I have been quite active in our local genealogy group. At present, our group is attempting to compile cemetery lists for the entire county - quite an undertaking!

Please keep me posted on any developments in the Brokamp family which might pertain to us - and I will do the same for you. I will let you know what we find out from this last inquiry in Germany.

Sincerely,

Margaret

Copy of letter received by Margaret Wellen from Robert H. Oelrich, P. O. Box 143, Brooklyn, N. Y. 11217:

Brooklyn, N. Y. 11217 9 October 1980

Dear Mrs. Wellen:

Received your letter with other papers about your genealogy yesterday. I was surprised to find out that someone else in the U.S.A. was doing research on the Brokamp families, besides me. Have been busy working on my genealogy of the Brokamp family for five or more years and it is still not complete or 100% accurate.

I myself was doing some research early last August near Oldenburg as I was in Franklin Co. with a cousin of mine who likewise is interested in genealogy. She is the chairman of the Franklin Co. Historical Society. I wrote to her today and sent copies of your letter and know she will be interested.

It is strange how our paths cross and it is wonderful that we both are in contact with each other because now we can help each other and pass on any information that would concern us.

I have a file case full of material I have collected just on the Brokamp - Brockamp lineage as I keep everything I find, hoping that later on it may be helpful as clue to uncover some facts.

I got started into this kind of interesting research work some ten years ago. I became very ill and my doctors discovered that I had a blood clotting problem. I developed clots in my left leg and have recurrent Thomleophlebites and due to the fact I have a clotting problem surgery is ruled out. After many tests by Hematologists they reported in me that I have something very rare called "Anti-Thrombosin No 3 Deficiency" and that this blood condition is hereditary and is within the same family, with brothers and sisters having it. They stated that they have record of three families with this blood clotting problem - two families in Europe and one in Louisville, Ky. Nobody in my family has anything like this that I know of.

So I began doing family research, starting with the Oelrich (Oelerich) family. With some records and old letters I located the town in West Germany "Ochtrup" where my Grandfather Herman H. Oelrich was born.

Skipping details I went to Germany and visited my families and the farm where they lived 600 year or more. They had no special blood problem. The following year I located my Grandmother's family "ASSMANN'S" (on my mother's side) and went to DAMME, Oldenburg and met all my second cousins. Still no health problem there.

Then I began my research into the BROKAMP family, my Grandmother's family on my father's side.

My Greatgrandfather, John Henry Brokamp born around Jan 1810 in Oldenburg area and came to America around 1833-35 and settled in Cincinnati. He married in Cincinnati on 21 Nov 1843 to a Maria Elisbeth Lange and they had five children. So I did a lot of research of all the Brokamps and Langes starting with the year 1840 to present date. Mostly the Brokamps and Lange living in Ohio, Indiana and Ky states. I did a lot of writing to Germany and finally employed a researcher, named Hellmuth Rehme from Cloppenburg and he began at St. Viktor-Bate, Catholic Church in Damme looking thru the records for Brokamp. He sent me two pages of Brokamps he copied up to 1835. Have enclosed these copies. At that time I was now sure of the correct date of birth of my Great grandfather so he was ? somewhat. He found on record a Johann Heinrich Brokamp being born on 27 Sept 1811 and assumed it was the correct person. However the next summer I went back to Damme to visit my families living there and while there I myself was able to spend one week every morning at St. Viktor Rectory searching thru all the old church records. I found that this John Henry Brokamp born on 27 Sept 1811 in Damme later on 31 August 1839 in Damme was married to a Catharina Maria Elis Osjenbeck and they had a child born on 28 Sept 1840 that died on 9 Feb 1845. So I search all the records at St. Viktor Damme beginning around 1780 to 1850 and found many Brokamps, Langes but not the person or persons that were my Great grandparent. I did find all the records going many years back on my other Great grandparents, the Assmann family.

So before I ask for the services of Hellmuth Rehme to continue the search for my Great grandparents I want to find the correct dates of birth of both, so far I have not found any proof from any records here in Cincinnati area.

There is a great possibility that your Great grandfather and mine are closely related somehow.

I have been to Ochtrup and Damme three times now and plan to go before the war starts for us. Had cousins from Ochtrup (Oelrich) visiting me this summer.

I only started looking for Brokamp family records in Damme since they say it is most likely place but where Steinfeld, your Great grandfather came from is a short distance (4 miles) up the road from Damme. It is all the same area so it is likely my family came from there or nearby. I will find out soon! I been in Steinfeld many times and took pictures of the huge (Stein) Stone in the center of the small town. A second of mine works as a housekeeper for the Pastor of the Catholic Church at Dinklage not so far from Steinfeld and Damme.

Now I would like to look over my files for Brokamps that might be of your lineage but will wait until my guests leave for St. Louis (Belleville, Ill.) My nephew David Oelrich, his wife Pat and their three children will be here for a few days soon coming from Riyadh, Saudi Arabia where they lived the last two years. When they leave I will have more time to search.

Have enclosed some copies of letters from Germany concerning the Brokamp families, some maps of the area and a working copy of my Brokamp genealogy.

Do you have the address of the Catholic Church in Steinfeld? Finding a passenger list with the National Archives Wash. D. C. is a difficult task unless you have dates.

There are two sets of Brokamp families that lived in Cincinnati area during the last century (1840-1900) one lineage came from Hannover, Germany (non Catholic) and the others likely descendants of ours coming from lower Oldenburg area.

My best,
Bob Oelrich

Another letter from Mr. Oelrich:

10 Oct 1980

Dear Mrs. Wellen

I noticed on your genealogy chart that your great grandmother Elisabeth Tackenberg was born in Amt. Vorden, but that is also in Oldenburg area and if you notice on the maps I had send you this small town is west of Damme about 4 miles. When the word Amt precedes the name of the town it implys that the birth occured within the town and with the word Ort it means within the locality of the town outside on a farm.

I wrote to all my living cousins on the Brokamp side and had enclosed copies of your papers - also to my brothers and nephews who are very interested in their genealogy.

I am very fortunate that I was interested in the history and effects of my ancestors when I was still a young man. My mother, who is deceased, was also interested in History genealogy and was an amateur photographer with many photos of her life. I (am) also interested in photography and have my life from youth to present day recorded in photos. It seems that my great grandparents John Henry Brokamp and wife Elisabeth were also interested in having studio photos and many old tin type pictures made of themselves and family. So I have inherited from my grandparents Hermann Oelrich all they had inherited from the Brokamps. Also I have a few pieces of furniture - walnut chests that were my great grandparents', the Brokamps. The photos (tin type) I have on the Brokamp were taken after the marriage and their first born children starting around 1850.

Strangely, I forgot to mention that a second cousin of mine, on the Brokamp side, has a blood clotting problem also and is retired on a disability like I am.

Yours

Bob Oelrich

Dear Gilbert:

Thank you very much for your letter of 26th August! I am very pleased to say that we now have our Oldenburg "program" completed and have already shown it four times to various interested persons. They all think it is just delightful! Thank you for your marvelous commentary!

I am wondering if anyone there has a picture of the old stone church when it had its unusual steeple.

On the 21st of September, Fr. Adrian Schneider, O.F.M. from the Friary in Oldenburg, sent me the death record I had requested from them when we were there. In his letter he mentioned the name of a Mr. Robert Oelrich, P. O. Box 143, Brooklyn, N. Y. 11217, who had requested information concerning Agnes Luken Rahe, nee Brokamp. I wrote to him and he sent me many papers. I am enclosing copies for you and I am also sending copies to Lucy Weaver. This John Henry Brokamp also seems to have lived in Cincinnati but was married to a Maria Eliz. Lange in 1843. I notice in the copies of your papers which I brought back from Oldenburg that your John Henry Brokamp was married twice. Do you suppose this could be your John Henry Brokamp and his second marriage? If so, I would imagine Mr. Oelrich would be very happy to hear from you!

I haven't had the opportunity to study the papers and I will need someone to translate the German but I did notice a Hermann Brokamp mentioned in the German material. I am anxious to learn more.

We have had the nickel-plating removed from the coffee pot we purchased in your shop and we now have a very beautiful solid copper coffee pot - our "Oldenburg" souvenir! It turned out just great.

Auch im Dersagau, der ja mit dem Lerigau die Sippe Widukinds beheimatete. hatte heftiger Aufruhr getobt. Von Osnabrück kommend verheerte Karl mit Feuer und Schwert den ganzen Bezirk, ehe er durch den Lerigau bis über die Weser vorstieß . . .

Nachdem Herzog Widukind sich hatte taufen lassen (785 zu Attigny in Frankreich), hielt das Christentum siegreichen Einzug in Westfalen und Engern, und die Missionierung erfaßte bald auch den Dersagau. Im zweiten Teil (793—804) des Sachsenkrieges wurden schließlich die Ostfalen und Nordalbingier besiegt.

Nach der Bekehrung Widukinds waren die Verhältnisse im Sachsenlande ruhiger geworden. Mit der fortschreitenden Unterwerfung konnten die christlichen Missionare ihre Aufgabe unter staatlicher Obhut erfüllen. Sie besetzten zunächst die früheren Missionsbezirke in Westfalen und Engern. Die zerstörten Stationen wurden wieder aufgebaut. Neue Außenposten entstanden in großer Zahl. Ein immer dichteres Verwaltungs- und Missionsnetz überzog das unterworfene Land.

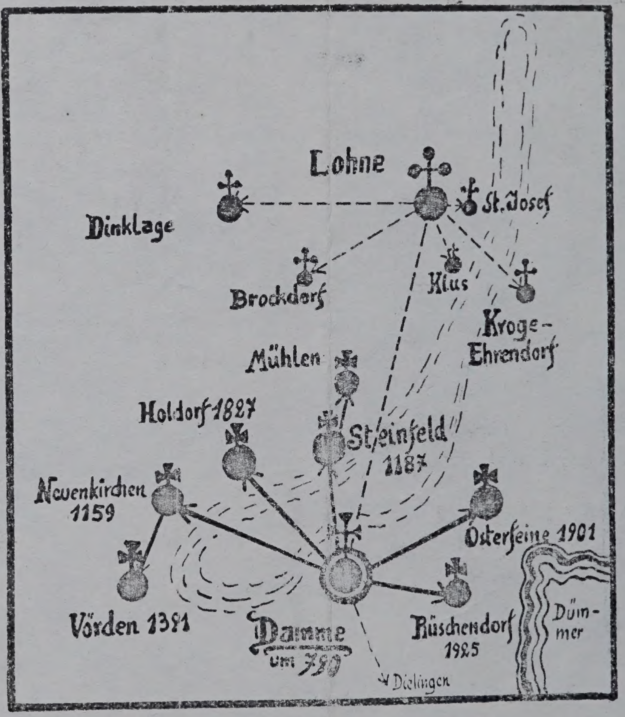
Allerdings war der Weg des Christentums nicht vollständig geebnet. Der Wotanskult verschwand nur langsam von der Bildfläche. Dort, wo der heidnische Kultus vornehmste Stätten innegehabt hatte, und an weiteren wichtigen Punkten der einzelnen Stammeslandschaften gründete Karl zur besonderen kirchlichen und politischen Absicherung Bistümer. Für Westfalen: Osnabrück und Münster; für Engern: Paderborn, Minden und Bremen; für Ostfalen: Verden, Halberstadt und Hildesheim.

Die jungen Bistümer wuchsen meistens aus größeren Missionsdistrikten zusammen. in denen selbständige Klöster und Missionsstationen tätig waren. Die Entwicklung konnte auf verschiedenem Wege fortschreiten. Es gab Missionsdistrikte unter fränkischen Äbten und Bischöfen, ferner Bistümer mit wechselnden Grenzen und schließlich Bistümer mit genauer Abgrenzung von Anfang an. Innerhalb der Missionsdistrikte wurden kleinere Bezirke geschaffen, die später den Rang von Urkirchspielen mit Mutterkirchen erlangten.

Anfänge des Bistums Osnabrück bildeten sich wahrscheinlich zu Beginn der Christianisierung vor dem Ausbruch des großen Sachsenkrieges im bevorzugten Missionsdistrikt des Kirchensprengels Osnabrück. Jedoch der erste Teil des Krieges stellte die Bemühungen des Bischofs Agilfried von Lüttich aus fränkischem Stamm, der von Karl in die Mission eingewiesen worden war, gänzlich in Frage.

Nach dem Tode Agilfrieds (787) und der Bekehrung Widukinds setzte Bischof Wiho aus friesischem Stamm den Ausbau des Bistums fort. Er dehnte den Diözesanbereich auf die entlegenen Distrikte Freren, Meppen und Visbek aus und vermehrte die Missionsstationen. Der Osnabrücker Distrikt, zu dem der Dersagau gehörte, erhielt vorzüglichen Besatz mit Neugründungen. So erschienen wenige Jahre nach dem furchtbaren Rachezuge Karls christliche Glaubensboten von Osnabrück aus unter fränkischem Schutz im Dersagau.

Der natürliche Zugang befand sich in der Südwestecke über Vörden. Auf gleichem Wege waren einst die Römer eingedrungen, sofern sie nicht gezwungen waren, Bohlwege zu benutzen, wobei die Sierhausener Schanzen eine Rolle gespielt haben könnten. Vielleicht hatte der rachedurstige Karl für die Maßregelung des Dersagaues ebenfalls diesen Weg gewählt, wobei auch die Dersaburg in Funktion geraten sein wird.



Kap. C (I)

Damme als Missionsstation für den Dersagau

Es unterstreicht die Sonderstellung von Damme, wenn dort die Missionsstation für den Dersagau gegründet wurde. Der Name des Ortes wird in Verbindung gebracht mit den Wegdämmen, die die Gegend seit alters zu einem wichtigen Durchgangsgebiet machten. Seine Schreibweise liegt bereits in ältesten Urkunden (1186) fest.

Es ist unbekannt, ob Mönche oder Weltpriester die erste Tätigkeit in der Dammer Missionsstation ausübten, und ob sie ihre Tätigkeit sogleich

Dear Mrs Weaver.

Sorry I have taken so long a time to answer your letter dated Nov 11. Been in bed sick with my blood clotting problems and now getting over with it.

Since my researching into the Brokamp families now about four years I have run across so many persons with the name John Henry Brokamp, both in my reseach in Cencinnati area and in Damme Oldenburg Germany. So anything I found in records with the name BROKAMP I have put into my files hoping the information could be helpful later on. Most of the Brokamp I ran across I belive are related and of the same lineage since they all came from the same area in Oldenburg Germany. Also your great-great grandfather. John Henry Brokamp was born in Germany in the early 1800's about the same time my great Grandfather John Henry Brokamp was born Jan 1810. I had someone in Oldenburg area several years ago to do some research in the church records at St Victor Catholic Church and he thought he had found the birthrecords of my John Henry Brokamp. He charged me enought for his services only to findout the following year when I went to Damme to visit the Assmann Cousins on my mother's side that live there, that checking up on his material he gave me, looking myself into the church records that this John Henry Brokamp later on got married there and had a family. So he was not my Great grand parent.

So I wrote to a cousine of mine Maria Assmann who is the house keeper for the Pastor at St Catherina Church in the town of Dinklage which is a short distance from Damme and Steinfeld. Damme and Steinfeld are about six miles distanse apart. Enclosed a page from book about the churches in Damme area.

Also some other copies of pages concerning John Henry Brokamp which I am not sure as yet if this is my greatgrandfather as it could be yours instead. In time I hope to get it all unscrambled and put these persons into their correct lineage. I will keep you informed as I find any new bits of information on the Brokamps.

I looked over my Grandfather's (Hermann Oelrich) records and noticed he had sold some chairs he made to A Hackman in Oldenburg in 1885, 1882 + 1883 He was living in Morris Indiana then as he moved from Cincinnati around 1879. He married one of the daughters (Helena Brokamp) of John Henry Brokamp.

The doctors at the Brooklyn VA, the hematologist and also the Doctors in the dept of Hematology at the Temple University Hospital in Phila confirm that I have a hereditary blood clotting problem which is known as "Anti-Thromboses No 3 Deficiency". This was why I became interested into my Genealogy searching what branch of my families this blood problem came from. The Brokamp research is the last of my four families and I belive it is from this particular family this condition was passed on. Two second cousins also from Brokamp line live in Cincinnati and one of these persons as a hereditary blood problem and is on a disability as I am. The doctors at Temple tell me there is one family in the U.S. that has this Anti-Thromboses No3 Deficiency and they are being treated in a Hospital in Louisville Ky. The Brokamps married into a Lange family and I have records of Langes and Brokamps living in Louisville Ky in 1850 + 1860. My Great Grandfather, John Henry Brokamp married a Elisabeth Lange in Cincinnati on Nov 21 1843 and her brothers lived in Louisville Ky. The doctors withhold the name of this particular family in Louisville that has the Blood problem like mine. Yours
Bob O.

Dear Lucy:

I recently ordered and received a rubber stamp so I could go through all my genealogical material and stamp it so I wouldn't lose anything. While doing this, I ran across the Baptismal Certificate for Anthony Brockamp, the son of my great-grandparents, Herman Brockamp and Elisabeth Tackenberg. I noticed that the sponsors were Antonius Romweber and Elizabetha Romweber - no doubt the Anthony Romweber you mentioned in your letter to me of 17 August, 1980. This Romweber name has been "haunting" me ever since I received your August 17th letter - I knew I had seen it someplace, but just couldn't put my finger on it. Anyway, I'm enclosing a copy for you - for whatever the information might be worth.

I still feel that my Herman Brockamp (Brokamp) had some people in Oldenburg before he came there and that is why he migrated to Indiana in 1853. The answer might lie with the Romwebers! I think the sponsors were usually related to the child's parents.

I am wondering if you have come up with any connection with Mr. Oelrich from Brooklyn. He wrote me at Christmas time that he had been in touch with you!

Please do keep in touch - and I would appreciate it very much if you would let me know if you have any more information on the Romwebers!

Sincerely,
Margaret Weller

P. S. We still haven't heard anything more from Steinfeld - you might want to go ahead and write to them! Maybe it would remind them they have another inquiry to answer.

Dear Margaret,

Thank you for your recent letter and the copy of the baptismal certificate. Yes, I am sure that there must be a connection between the Brokamps and the Romwebers! I am going to write to Gilbert Munchel to see if he can do a little research in Oldenburg regarding this Elizabeth Romweber for us.

Yes, I did hear from Bob Oelrich from Brooklyn. He sent me a nice letter and snapshot. Can not get a definite family connection with his branch either..but I am sure that all we need are a few missing links.

It really is a good feeling to know that at least two other persons are working on the Brokamp Genealogy!

Will keep you posted if I run across anything new. Thanks!

Sincerely,

Lucy M. Weaver

Dear Gilbert,

Mrs. Wellen from Iowa sent a letter recently with a copy of a baptismal certificate. Curiously the sponsors were Anthony Romweber and Elisabetha Romweber.. the child was a Brokamp. I still feel that there must be a connection. I sent to Franklin Co. for MARIA Ann Romweber(or Rosenweber) death certificate.. Sept. 1874) but they did not have it. Christopher Kessing was a witness to her will. Are there any Kessing descendants in Oldenburg who might be able to tell us something about the Brokamps and Romwebers?

The census of 28 Nov. 1850 Ray Twp. Franklin Co.Ind.
Anthony Rosenweber age 33
Mary age 39 born Germany
Elizabeth age 7 born Ind.
Ludwich age 5 , male b. Ind.
John age 2 male.
Elizabeth Brokamp age 17 born Germnay (this is prob. Mrs. Kessing)
Mary Brokamp age 13 born Ohio (prob. our Mary Hackman)
Mary Ann Brokamp age 11 born Ind. (Sr. Johanna)

Are you ready for spring? I can hardly wait until the sun shines again and it is nice enough to work in the yard.

We are about the same here. Jerry is still puttering around the house fixing a few things. He has not gone back to work. Auto sales are still low. We have been fairly well..so have my folks... hope you and Lonnie are ok also.

Did you and your aunt ever come across any other Rulman memorabilia(spelling?)

Take care. If you come across any new genealogical clues..let me know.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Weaver,

My name is Lynn Bischoff; Gilbert and Leonida's oldest daughter.

We found your Xmas card addressed to Mom & Dad while going through their things. I have the unpleasant task of telling you that both Mother and Dad are now deceased.

Dad died on Oct. 16, 1981 of Congestive heart failure, and mother just two weeks ago on Jan. 13, 1983, very suddenly, here at home of a massive coronary.

Apparently mother had not let you know about Dad. She took his death very hard, but lived in good health for 15 months without him. We were very shocked by her death.

You addressed your letter "Dear Cousins", so I assume we are relatives on Mother's side of the family. Please let me know, as I'm sure we have never met.

So sorry to give you this doubly bad news at one time.

Sincerely,
Lynn (Munchel) Bischoff

Dear Lynn,

Your letter arrived today, and I can not tell you how shocked I was to learn of the death of both of your parents! I almost wrote a letter to your Dad on Sunday evening, because I was thinking of Oldenburg! Please accept our sincere sympathy. Your parents were very nice people.

Before writing anymore, I had better explain who I am and how your parents and I became acquainted. In 1976, we visited Oldenburg because I am interested in genealogy and I knew my paternal grandfather had been born in Oldenburg. While there, we saw the Hackman Store and that it was open, so we went inside to look around. Your mother waited on us and I told her I was interested in Oldenburg because my grandfather had been born there and his mother had been married to Anton Hackman, the first owner of the store. She said to your brother " Quick, go get your Dad and tell him that one of his relatives is here." That is how we became acquainted. From that time on, we have corresponded about genealogy.

Your father and I would be second cousins, I believe. Had he told you anything about the family history? Let me give you a brief summary:

Mary Elizabeth Brokamp married Anton Hackman. They had 5 children: August, Joseph, Henry, Mary and a baby that died. After Anton died, Mary Hackman married Herman B. Rulmann, Sr., a widower with 2 sons. Mary and Herman then had 3 children, one of whom was my paternal grandfather.

MARY ELIZABETH BROKAMP HACKMAN RULMANN
(your paternal great great grandmother & my paternal great grandmother)

AUGUST ANTHONY HACKMAN ..half-brothers.ANTHONY HERMAN RULMAN

KLEONA MACKMAN MUNCHEL..first cousins..HAROLD HENRY RULMAN
(your grandmother) (my father)

GILBERT MUNCHEL.........second cousins..LUCY RULMAN WEAVER

MARY LYNN MUNCHEL BISCHOFF...third cousins..ANN WEAVER HUNT
(my daughter)

When we visited your parents in 1976, your father took me to the third floor of the store and showed me all the ledgers from the original store. He also showed us all the beautiful plates and other antigues that he had collected. We corresponded and he would send things with the name Rulmann that he would find among his treasures. He had invited us to come back and stay overnight so that we might go through the things, but we never made it back.

I am so glad that you found the Christmas card that I had sent. We hadn't received one in 1981 or this past Christmas and I had wondered about it, but figured that they had cut back on their Christmas card list just as many other people have.

You are so young to have lost both of your parents. My parents are 77 and have been in poor health, but manage somehow to keep going.

Are you planning on keeping the store? I was so happy that the store was kept in the family for so long. Are you planning an auction? This may be inappropriate to mention here, but If you are planning a sale, we would like to know since my husband and I are very much interested in historical items and in antigues. I hesitated to mention this, but there is so much of our(yours and mine) past history on those shelves!

Lynn, I would like to hear from you again. If you would like a copy of the Hackman-Rulmann Family History that I have compiled, would be happy to send it to you. All I have is an outline form, but hope someday to have it in book form.

Your Dad had sent me an old newspaper that mentioned Mary Hackman Rulmann attending a funeral..also the funeral card for Herman Rulmann and an old German New Years card. When we visited there, he gave us an old ledger from the store since it had Herman Rulmann's name in it and an old prescription pad which belonged to Dr. R.A. Rulmann, son of Herman.

Our daughter Ann is about a year older than your brother Gary. Has Gary married? I have down that you have two children Brian and Lori and that your sister Paula Parmer has two chn: Jessi & Tricia and Sandra Koch had Kendra(born 1977).

Are your parents buried in Holy Family Cemetery at Oldenburg? You mentioned that your mother died at home. Was your father hospitalized? It probably is very painful for you to talk about it. Thank you for taking the time to sit down and write to us.

Your cousin,

Dear Lucy:

An acquaintance of mine who visited Oldenburg, Indiana shortly after I was there and had also become acquainted with Gilbert Munchel wrote me last week that she had heard from Gilbert's daughter who informed her that Gilbert Munchel died 16 October 1981 and his wife died 13 January 1983. I had not known this and was so sorry to hear it! This explains why my letters had not been answered. I had written him in December of 1981 enclosing some copies of pictures I had found among the Brockamp papers to see if they might have matched up with some of his, but, of course, it was too late.

This all prompted me to go through my correspondence. I can't find any place where I wrote you sending copies of these pictures, so please forgive me if I've already sent them to you - anyway, I can't find a reply on them from you, so perhaps I never sent them.

I found these four old photographs in my cousin's box of Brockamp papers - the "P. Zutterling" crest was on the back of each of them. I am wondering if you would look through your old family albums and see if you might have some identical ones - leading to a connection between your Brokamps and mine.

I wrote to the Public Library at Cincinnati and this was their reply:

> "The Cincinnati City Directory lists a Peter Zutterling, photographer, at 503 Vine Street from 1873 to 1895. He operated after 1895, but his address on Vine changed because of a street numbering change mandated by the city."

My Herman Brockamp left Oldenburg, Indiana, in July of 1855 and came to Iowa. He died in 1892 - his wife in 1900. Since these photos were in their papers, I am assuming that they are of relatives in the Oldenburg, Indiana - Cincinnati area. Do you think they are any of your people?

I have not been able to find much more on my Brokamp/Brockamp family lately but am still searching. Would appreciate it if you'd let me know if anyone on these pictures looks familiar to you!

Sincerely,

Margaret

Dear Lucy:

Since you are probably wondering who I am, let me explain. A cousin of mine, Margaret Wellen, sent me your name some time ago. It appears we might be related through the Brokamp line. For several years I have had a mass of information on Brokamp genealogy obtained by you, the late Gilbert Munchel, Margaret Wellen, myself, and others. I had so much material it took me a while to think things out.

From the information I have it appears that you and Mr. Munchel were trying to establish that Elizabeth Brokamp (1833) had two sisters Mary and Johanna. Records from the Oldenburg, Indiana convent (enclosed) show that Sister Johanna Brokamp had the same parents as Mary Brokamp. Further it shoss that the parents were born in Steinfeld, Germany, a small town in Oldenburg. My great-great grandfather, Hermann Brokamp was also born in Steinfeld in 1809!

Motivated by all of this I checked the Oldenburg Census for 1850 and found all three sisters living together with who appears to be a foster parent. (See the enclosed). The age of Mary bothered me at first because it did not agree with your records. However, later Census records appear to more or less verify the 1850 Census. It appears she was not sure about her age or perhaps her husband did not know what it was. Nevertheless I think we are safe in saying that these three were sisters, that their father was Johann Heinrich, and that he was born in Steinfeld, Oldenburg, Germany.

Some time ago a Mr. Robert Oelrich contacted Margaret Wellen. It appears he was also related to a Johann Heinrich Brokamp born in Oldenburg Germany (but not necessarily Steinfeld). However, he did write to the Catholic parish in Steinfeld and they sent him a list of all the Johann Heinrich's born between 1799 and 1810. They could not find his ancestor but they did find two Johann Heinrich's. I feel strongly that one must be your ancestor. The Johann Heinrich born in 1803 is the brother of my Hermann (see enclosed group sheet) so there is apparently a 50% chance we are related. Over the years I have written to Steinfeld to obtain information on my ancestor, Hermann. I have more information if you would like it. I recently wrote to Steinfeld again seeking information on the births and marriage of Johann Heinrich Brokamp and Mary Catherine Freiking.

Do you have any information on your Johann Heinrich? I would be very interested in it. Please write when you can.

Sincerely,

Richard Gunther

P.S. There is a tradition in my family that my ancestor Hermann came to the U.S. with four brothers in 1833. Further he lived in Oldenburg Indiana for a short time. Some of my relatives say they thought we had relatives in Cinc. Ohio and we do ~~have~~ have some old photographs taken there. So perhaps the odds are greater than 50%!

Dear Richard,

Please accept my sincere apologies for not answering your letter re the BROKAMP FAMILY sooner. When I received it, I was still caught up in helping my mother with the aftermath of my father's death. I also wanted to have time to look at my records and give you a decent response. Since I am am home recuperating from recent surgery..will try to answer now.

Quite possibly, my John Henry Brokamp could be the one born in 1803 in Steinfeld. It would make him about the right age for parenting the three girls(in the twenties). Possibly your great-great grandfather was a ~~brother. what~~ would that make us?

Herman(gt.gt.)	bros.	John Henry
Your gt. grandfather or gmr?	cousins	Mary Brokamp (my gt. gmr.)
Your grandfather or gmr?	second cousins	Anthony Rulman(my gfr)
Your father or mother?	third cousins	Harold Rulman(my father)
Richard Gunther	fourth cousins	Lucy Rulman Weaver

As far as Mary Brokamp Hackman Rulman's age..I believe that there was an error on the death certificate... It says that she was born Dec. 21, 1833..the informant was her daughter... If you go by the census records...on 29 Nov. 1850..she was 13 & would have been 14 in Dec.....making it 1836. On 5 July 1860, she was listed as 22..making her 23 in Dec.....there we're talking 1837. In June 1870, she was 34..making her 35 in Dec. or born in 1835....Her age on the death cert. was listed as 81 years..8 months..23 days. So we can take our pick..1835-1836 Or 1837.

The only person that I was able to talk to about the Brokamps was Isabelle Rulmann, dtr. of Mary Brokamp Hackman Rulmann. Aunt Belle died in 1977 at the age of 95. She said that her mother's father John Henry(known as Ben) died while moving a house in Cinci.O. She also said that her mother said her step-mother was better to her than her own mother. I wonder if Aunt Belle had that confused. I think that Mrs. Brokamp remarried after the death of John Henry. There seems to be a connection with the Romweber family in 1850...Thought perhaps the Mary Romweber aged 39..born in Germany might be the mother of the girls remarried to Mr. Romweber. I sent for Mary Romweber's death cert.(her death occurred in Sept. 1874), but Franklin Co.Ind. said their death records do not begin until 1882!

It is too bad that Gilbert Munchel passed away..I always felt that he would be able to dig up something sooner or later from the newspapers or church records.

On a baptismal cert. that Margaret Wellen sent me..at the Baptism of Tony Brokamp born 1854, son of Herman and Elizabeth Takenburg Brokamp..sponsors were: Anthony Romweber & Elizabeth Romweber!!

P.S. In 18[illegible] census, she was 43
In 1900 census..says she was born Dec. 1838
Obit. Card says Dec. 18, 1835

Still with me? We may want to correct my 5th paragraph.. I was re-reading the letter from Bob Oelrich to Margaret Wellen dated 9 Oct. 1980...He says: " My great grandfather John Henry Brokamp born around Jan. 1810 in the Oldenburg area(I presume Germany) came to America around 1833-35 and settled in Cinci. He married in Cinci. on 21 Nov. 1843 to a Maria Elisbeth Lange and they had five children. What if...as my Aunt Belle said...her mother's mother died and John Henry remarried? Perhaps when John Henry came to America in 1833-1835, he was married and had chn. by that wife...perhaps she died and he remarried to Maria Elisabeth? Would that explain the 1850 census....Anthony Romweber aged 33 his wife Mary aged 39 b. Germany...Elizabeth age 7 born Ind. Ludwich age 5 born Ind. John aged 2 plus the three Brokamp girls? Perhaps Mary had all of these children when she married Mr. Romweber? Is this a plausible theory or not?

Did you have from the 1880 census of Franklin Co. Ind.:
p.7 BROKAMP, John H. age 46 grocer
Bernadine age 37
Mary age 17
Josephina age 12
Fransis age 5

Too young for my John Henry, but undoubtedly related.

I believe you have most of my material via Margaret Wellen & Gilbert Munchel. Would be interested in learning about what you receive from Steinfeld and if you have any additions to my theories.

Thanks again for bearing with me for my delay in answering. Will enclose my family group sheets.

Sincerely,

Dear Lucy,

Thank you so much for your recent letter. It was very informative and most useful to me. This is especially true now because I have found definite proof we are related!

Before I got an answer from Steinfeld Germany a cousin of mine suggested that I check to see if the Mormon Church had microfilm copies of the Steinfeld parish records (my cousin is a Mormon, I am not). To my surprise I found that copies of the Steinfeld records were in Salt Lake City! Further, microfilm copies could be loaned to the Los Angeles Branch library for six months. So far two of the microfilms have arrived covering births, marriages, and deaths from 1695-1859. One of the first things I wanted to look for was the birth record of Maria Elisabeth Brokamp (1833). I found it exactly where it was supposed to be! The name is spelled Brockamp in this record but I have seen this name spelled Brokamp/Brockamp/Brocamp at various times.

The big find, however, was the marriage record. The "newer" Steinfeld marriage records included the names of the parents and this established the connection. As the enclosed shows Johann Henrich Brockamp, the son of Henrich Arend Brockamp and Maria Elisabeth Athmann, married Maria Catharina Freking or Frecking. I already knew that Henrich Arend Brockamp and Maria Elisabeth Athmann were the parents of my great great grandfather Hermann Brockamp. Thus we really are fourth cousins! I enclosed a chart which shows the relationship.

From the same microfilms I was able to expand and extend the Brokamp (Brockamp) genealogy. Since we know now that you are related I am enclosing family group sheets. When the next microfilm arrives I will be able to go back before 1695!

It appears that Mary Brokamp Hackman Rulman was born in 1835 or 1834 since Johann Heinrich bought land in Franklin County 11 November 1836 and Mary was born in Ohio. I suspect that the obituary card has the correct birthdate but we need more evidence I think (perhaps a church record in Cinci.).

You may be correct that Mary Romweber was Mary C. Frecking. Mary C. Frecking was born 6 Jan 1812 so she would have been 38 during the 1850 Census. Thank you for suggesting this, it never occured to me. (I had misread Romweber on the 1850 Census, I had it Rosenweber!). As you stated Anthony Romweber was a sponsor to the birth of my great grandfather Anthony Brockamp!

Thank you again for all the information you have provided me. I will send you more when I obtain it.

Sincerely,

Rich

Dear Rick,

What a pleasant surprise to find your large envelope full of genealogical data on the Brokamp family! I really do appreciate receiving the information. It gave me several more generations to add to the family tree. Just wish my Dad were alive and could share in it. He certainly was German descent on both sides of his family!

Noticed in my carbon coby of the last letter that I spelled plaque with a c...have been indoctrinated by the commercials on TV for fighting placque!

Somewhere along the line Mrs. Wellen must have mentioned that you are a college professor. Where do you teach? Although you would never know it by my grammar etc. I have a masters degree in education and public health and currently serve as health commissioner for the Defiance General Health District. Am a late bloomer..received my R.N. in 1954..my B.S. in 1976 and masters in 1978. Have been employed at the local health department in various capacities for the past 31½ years.

How in the world did you ever decipher the records from Germany...? ..in addition to the German language, you had to cope with very small handwriting.

Will be looking forward to hearing from you on the pre-1695 data.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Lucy

Dear Lucy,

Enclosed are more family group sheets that I have been able to complete based on the Steinfeld parish records. As you can see I was able to run them on my IBM PC at work with a new program I recently purchased. The program is excellent but group sheets tend to take up a large number of pages. Please disregard the numbers next to the names, it is a computer code.

All of the lines except the Athmann, Haskamp, and Frecking lines are traced back as far as the records appear to begin, 13 Nov. 1662. I am currently working on the Athmann line and the death records and hope to send you more on this soon. The Haskamp line appears to be a dead end. As you can read in the notes that go with the group sheet, I found two Joan Henricus Haskamps. I don't know which one is ours. Unlike the other names in the family, Haskamp is rather common in Steinfeld. The other names have been so unusual and Steinfeld is so small (7000 today) that tracing lines has been very easy.

There are at least two interesting things you will find in the records. Anna Christina Crup (1682) had a twin brother; twins seem to run in the family! It also appears that Joan Arend Brokamp (1691) had a double wedding along with his sister Elisabeth in 1725. I enclosed a copy of this record. These records by the way are really not as hard in most cases to read as it might appear to you. The early records are in Latin and Latin handwriting which is much easier to read than German Gothic. The copies I sent you are reductions of the ledger size copies I have.

I found the will record of Mary Romweber (enclosed). It appears her name was Maria Ann so it appears she is not Mary Catherine Frecking. What do you think? I also found some Brokamps buried in Wayne County, Indiana. Notice that the John H. and Bernadine Brokamp you found in the 1880 Census are included.

When you have the chance I would be interested in a copy of the history written about Johann Heinrich Brokamp by Hackman. I would also be interested in any information you have on the Kessing family.

I forgot to mention that I am a university professor in management science and production management at California State University, Northridge. Suzanne and I married in 1976 and we have one daughter Lisa age 6. We are expecting another in June! Genealogy has been my hobby for almost 20 years.

Rich

Dear Rick,

Thanks ever so much for the wealth of material that you sent. It really added to my data on the Brokamp Family.

I am enclosing a hodge podge of material for you. You may find some of it interesting:

Article on August Joseph Hackman, grandson of Mary Brokamp Hackman Rulman, from Franklin Co. Ind. History(3 pages)

Copy of one of the auction flyers from the auction of the contents of the Hackman General Store in Oldenburg, Ind.

Franklin Co. Ind. Marriage Licenses 1882-1920(Hackman & Kessing) (1 page)

Franklin Co. Deaths(1 page)

Copy of Mary(Brokamp)Rulmann's death certificate (1 page)

It would be interesting to know if any of the Kessing descendants are still living in the Oldenburg, Ind. area. Not quite sure how to contact them since Gilbert Munchel is dead. I know that I had asked him about the Kessings, but he never acknowledged the question.

Will rummage through the rest of my materials and see if I can come up with anything else.

Will enclose a check to help a little towards your expenses.

Sincerely,

Lucy

Dear Lucy,

Excuse me for not writing sooner but post-Christmas business has kept me very busy. Thank you so much for all the material you sent me. It has been very useful in learning more about the Brokamp family. However please don't feel that you should send money as I consider genealogy as labor for fun. For this reason I am returning your check.

I am enclosing a few things on our line of the family that you might be interested in. Included are pictures of Steinfeld, Germany and a map of the Festina, Iowa area where Hermann Brockamp lived. The map of the Festina area shows a Brockamp Creek running through it. Do you have any pictures of Hermann Brockamp (or Brokamp), the brother of your Johann Heinrich Brokamp? If not, I will send you some.

Upon working further on the Athmann line I found that the sisters and bothers of Elisabeth Athmann (or at least people who appeared to have the same parents) had the surname Adams. I was told that Adams is probably a phonetic variation of Athmann. After checking the death records (which I had not done completely) I found Elisabeth Athmann and two women who should be her sisters. The records say:

Name	Date of Death	Age
Anna Catharina Athmann	Aug. 1 1840	78 years 5 months 20 days
Maria Elisabeth Athmann	Jan. 20 1841	73 years 9 months 29 days
Maria Engela Athmann	Nov. 26 1843	71 years 7 months 8 days

These dates and ages appear to confirm the birth records I found which had the name Adams! I am enclosing a family group sheet which has all of the information I have found on the Athmann/Adams family.

Thank you again for the help you have been on the Brokamp genealogy.

Sincerely,
Rick Gunther

P.S. I also found the death record of Anna Maria Athmann (Oct. 6 1810) but the age was only given in years. The death records have now been checked from 1810 to 1858.

Dear Rick,

Thanks so much for the recent material you sent on the ATHMANN line...also the photos of Steinfeld !

No, I do not have any photos of the Brokamps..sure would like to see if there is any family resemblance to the RULMAN family.

Can't tell you how thrilled I am to receive all the material you have been sending me! Just wish my Dad were alive to enjoy seeing his family tree branch out as it has.

You should have cashed the check. You have spent plenty on postage! If at anytime I can be of assistance..let me know.. sure would be willing to help "pay my way".

Will close for now...just wanted to let you know I received your "package" and how much it was appreciated.

Dear Lucy,

Last June 9 was a very important day in our family, our son Jason Richard Gunther was born! He was seven pounds eight ounces at birth and has more than doubled his weight since then. Enclosed is a photograph that was taken at the hospital at birth. We are having some new photos taken with his eyes open! I will send you one later.

The birth of Jason plus my trying to get a copy of an old photo of Hermann Brockamp, brother of your Johann Heinrich Brokamp, has delayed this letter, probably for too long. The photo of Hermann, which is enclosed, also shows his wife Elizabeth Tackenberg.

I have also enclosed some additional genealogy on the Athmann (originally Adams) lines that I have done based on the Steinfeld Germany Catholic parish records. This has been very slow going and I am still not finished.

Did you ever write to the Holy Family Catholic Church in Oldenburg, Indiana to see if they have the death records of Johann Heinrich Brokamp or Maria Catherine Frecking? If not, I would be happy to do this.

I will send you more when I obtain it. Please write when you can.

Dear Rick,

Received your packet of materials today. It helped brighten my day. Came home from a lengthy and difficult Board of Health meeting to find your packet in the mail. Ignored all the bills and opened it first.

It is wonderful that you have a new son. He is about three months older than our newest grandson. Ours is Ryan David Shevin born on Labor Day September 7, 1987 in Sinai Hospital, Detroit, Mich. His eyes were closed in his first picture also. I like your son's name.. Jason Richard has a nice ring to it.

Thanks also for the photo of Hermann and Elizabeth.

No, I haven't written to Oldenburg for the death records of John Henry and Maria Catherine. Will try to get that done soon. My genealogy has been on the back burner for awhile. I haven't lost interest..just time. When your materials arrive, I always become more enthusiastic.

Was just thinking about making a copy of the master record(direct ancestors) to put in our safety deposit box. Always am concerned that something could happen to years of work.

Isn't it amazing how many years our ancestors lived in the Steinfeld Parish? There certainly has to be many descendants still in Germany. It would be very exciting to take a trip to Germany and to visit the area where they lived.

Can't help but wish that I could share all this information with my Dad..he would get such a kick out of discovering what a solid German background he had.

Don't know if I asked you before if you are Catholic...am just curious..noting such a solid Catholic background.. my husband and I are. Our daughter married a Jewish accountant..so our grandsons will be raised in the Hebrew religion.

Will try and accomplish something in the Oldenburg,Ind. area..miss having Gilbert Munchel there to help.

Thanks again for all the data you have sent.

Sincerely,

Lucy

Dear Lucy,

Excuse me for not writing sooner but my baby son, Jason, and my work have kept me away from genealogy. I finally was able to collect a number of items on the Brokamp family and realized it was time to write this overdue letter.

As you may remember, I was trying to gather additional information on the ancestors of Maria Elisabeth Athmann from the Steinfeld Catholic parish records. Maria Elisabeth was the mother of your John Henry Brokamp. In going back through the records, I was able to find more information on the Roenbeck line and I have enclosed a pedigree and family group sheets which contain this information. I have now searched the Steinfeld records all the way back to the first day they were kept in 1662. There were a couple of dead ends with Johann Hermann Adams and Magdalena Catharina Meyer, they must have been born outside of Steinfeld. As you noted in your last letter, however, most of the Brokamps and their ancestors stayed in Steinfeld. It is my understanding that most of the people in the Steinfeld region did not move around much between 1600 and 1800. In fact, one normally would have to obtain permission to change towns.

It was suggested to me that there might be some interesting information in the Steinfeld will records. So I wrote to a member of an Oldenburg genealogical society and received the enclosed reply. He found a record about a loan to Maria Elisabeth Athmann. Your ancestor, Johann Heinrich Brokamp, is mentioned. I will try to get this document translated and send you a copy.

Also enclosed is a reply to a letter I wrote to Oldenburg, Indiana concerning the death of Johann Heinrich Brokamp and Mary Catherine Frecking. The pastor couldn't find any record of their deaths. Perhaps one of them did marry again but I couldn't find either one in the 1850 census for Indiana or Ohio. Perhaps they died in Ohio. Do you have any idea what Catholic church in Ohio would have been attended by German-Americans around 1850? Perhaps I could write to that church.

The letter from Indiana shows that Mary Ann (Johanna) Brokamp must have been born in 1839 not 1840. The 1840 date is based on the convent records, I believe, but 1839 agrees with the 1850 census and I can't believe a baptismal record could be wrong! Thus, I have changed the birth year to 1839 in my records.

We are doing fine in Newbury Park. Jason is walking and crawling all over the house! Lisa is in the third grade and doing well. In reply to the question in your last letter, our family goes to the Baptist church though my grandmother Brockamp was a Catholic at one time. Margaret Wellen and much of the Brockamp family in Iowa is still Catholic. We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Dear Lucy,

Last Christmas I promised you I would send you more information about the Brokamp family. With this letter I am finally getting around to doing this! Time just seems to fly.

In November 1988, I sent you a German record concerning a loan to Maria Elisabeth Athmann, the mother of Johann Heinrich Brokamp. Enclosed is an English translation of this document. The translator made a mistake on the name Athmann but it appears that overall she did a good job. This document, along with the Steinfeld parish records I searched, shows that the Brokamps lived in the village of Harpendorf, just 3 kilometers west of Steinfeld. Apparently, Elisabeth Athmann couldn't write.

The same German genealogist who sent me the loan document, Falk Liebezeit, also sent me some Brokamp land records. His letter, along with a translation of the records, is enclosed. I did the translation and it is not guaranteed; my comments are in brackets. A Joseph Brokamp from Harpendorf is mentioned. I wonder who this could be? Perhaps he is a brother to Johann Heinrich and Hermann Brokamp.

Enclosed you will also find a list of the early Catholic parishes in Cincinnati and Hamilton County, Ohio. I have been writing to these to see if I could find out more about Johann Heinrich Brokamp and his wife, Mary Catherine Frecking. Old St. Mary Church sent me a death record which might be the correct one for Johann Heinrich since I cannot find him in any 1850 census. Are there any microfilm collections of old Cincinnati newspapers near you? Perhaps you could check to see if there is an obituary notice or news item dated around 24 June 1849. My records indicate that he was supposed to have died moving a house.

Do you or any of your friends have a computer? Do you have the PAF genealogy computer program? If you do, I can sent you a disk with all the Brokamp information on it. If you do not, I can still send you some printouts from it if you wish.

We are all doing fine. Lisa is 10 and in the fourth grade. Jason will be 3 in June and is talking up a storm! Please write and let us know how you are doing and whether you have any genealogical news.

Sincerely,

Dear Lucy,

Excuse me for taking so long to answer your letter. I am currently serving as Chair of the Management Science Department at California State University, Northridge and this job has consumed most of my time lately. Coping with the recent State of California budget cuts has taken all of my spare time. It has been nearly impossible to do any genealogy lately.

My computer at home is a Tandy 1000SX but it is rather slow and out of date compared to the newer computers. The computer I use at work is an IBM "clone" which does a reasonable job. Frankly, however, I would recommend an Epson. They are dependable and very efficient. I have a Toshiba P321 printer at home; this sells for around $300 and does reasonably well. At work I use a Hewlett Packard LaserJet but laser printers cost $800 and up. Some of my past letters were done on the Toshiba; this letter and the enclosed group sheet were done on the Laserjet. I would keep your typewriter; they are still useful for doing envelops and typing forms.

In my opinion the best genealogy software for the price is the Personal Ancestral File (PAF) Release 2.2 which sells for about $40. It is put out by the LDS church but is available to non-members. You can obtain information by writing to any branch library of the LDS church.

I am looking forward to your doing more genealogy. I would particularly be interested in knowing more about John Henry (Ben) Brokamp, especially when he died. Please write to me when you can.

Sincerely,

Rick Gunther

Dear Father,

Perhaps you will be able to assist me in my quest for genealogical information from the Catholic Church records at your parish. My great great grandparents, John "Henry" Brokamp and Mary Frecking Brokamp were members of your parish many years ago. "Henry" reportedly died, while moving a house in Cincinnati, OH., sometime in the 1840s. I am sure that since he lived in Oldenburg at the time, that the funeral probably took place at Holy Family. Is there a record of his funeral ? Also, family tradition says that Mary Frecking Brokamp died and "Henry" remarried. Would there be a record of that marriage at your church, presumably in the 1840's? Is there a record of the funeral of Maria Ann Romweber(prob. Sept.1874), wife of Anton Romweber, which might give her age or maiden name? My great grandmother lived with the Romwebers in 1850. If you could help me with any of the above information, I would appreciate it very much.

At one time, my great grandmother Mary Brokamp Hackman Rulmann ran the general store across from your parish. We visited Oldenburg several years ago and chatted with Gilbert Munchel, a relative, who ran the store then, but has since died. Oldenburg is a beautiful village and I feel fortunate to have had ancestors, who resided there.

I am a member of St. John's Catholic Parish here in Defiance. Enclosed is a small donation for your assistance and my self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

In addition to the Brokamp name, the names Hackman, Kessing, and Rulmann have genealogical significance to me, if these would appear in the years you are searching.

I know that the schedule of a priest is a very busy one, but perhaps there is someone, who works in the parish office that could search the records.

Thank you very much.

Dear Rick,

Sorry I haven't written sooner to thank you for responding to my inquiry about the type of computer and genealogy software program you use. I did make my purchase through the guidance of our son-in-law. Bought a Packard Bell computer 386SZ with 25Mhz,which has 130 Mg Hard Drive and 2 RAM. The color monitor is a 2.8 and ran into a good buy on a Hewlitt Packard Desk Jet 500 printer. Two of my genealogy friends in Defiance are using Roots III and one is using PAF. Ended up buying Roots III in Detroit and find it quite complex, but think I am getting the hang of it.

Finally wrote a letter to the pastor at Holy Family Catholic Church in Oldenburg, IN, asking him to check the records in the 1840s for the funeral record of John "Henry" Brokamp, also for a date of a second marriage for him in the 1840s, and the funeral record of Maria Ann Romweber. If I hear from him, will send you a copy. Don't know why I delayed so long in writing to him. Guess for several years, I depended upon Gilbert Munchel to dig up the records since he lived across the street from the church. Found out later that Gilbert and the parish priest were at odds over the remodeling of the church from the old style to the new. Think I would side with Gilbert to keep things the way they were.

Now that I have retired, am devoting more time to genealogy. Don't know if I told you in my Christmas note (probably not) that 1991 was not too productive for me. I retired Dec. 31, 1990, my Mom had died Nov. 16, 1990 and in March 1991 discovered I had cancer of the uterus..therefore had surgery Apr.1, 1991 in Toledo with complete node dissection, followed by daily radiation treatments, after that, I had complications from the radiation. In Decmeber was hospitalized again with pneumonia and due to lowered immunity had one upper respiratory infection after another. Thankfully, the past three months I have been regaining my health, and hopefully I will be in the 67% that survive ca of the uterus. Genetically, I had a paternal aunt and maternal aunt who both died of ca of the uterus.

CORRECTED ON COPY THAT I SENT.

Enough of my woes..I love retirement..once I get my husband out of the rental business,(we have nine and are trying to sell some of these)I'll have more time to travel and dig up genealogical facts. Hope to get to Fort Wayne, IN. to look at the 1920 census also.

Imagine that your children are growing..Jason just turned five, didn't he? Lisa is older, isn't she? Our two grandsons are 6 and 4 and live in West Bloomfield, MI near Detroit.

Thanks again for all the help you've given me over the years. Will try to find some facts that you don't have,to make up for the benefit I've reaped from your generosity.

Have a nice summer! Hello to Sue.

As Always,

Dear Mrs. Thaver,

Father gave your letter of 6/25 to me to answer. I am sorry I found no Brokamps. The file also suggested Prokamps but I doubt that will help as I found none in the 1840's.

I have made copies of the Prokamp deaths I found & am enclosing them. They are very difficult to read, but when you are doing geneology & have some idea of what the name is supposed to be, it makes it a bit easier.

I have also enclosed a couple of copies of baptismal records for you to study and some Kessing & Hackman deaths. I found no Rulman's in the death records.

If these are any help, I'm glad for you. If you have more questions let me know.

Hi, Roy, I have August Anthony HACKMAN born 9 Nov. 1857 in Ray Twp. Franklin Co., IN. d. 7 Jun. 1925 Batesville, Ripley Co. IN. (dth. cert)says acute dilatation of heart with myocardial degeneration. Bur. Holy Family Cem. Oldenburg,IN. Occup: banker. He married first Agnes Flodder before 1882(who was b. 1854 & died 3 Dec. 1903 Frank. Co. IN) He marr. (2) Catherine KELLER(don't how I got this name when your rec. says Hoelker) 1 Jun. 1909 in IN. (my notes says Catherine was a widow, prev. marr. to a Mr. Baumer)..born ca. 1860s(so I think we are talking abt. the same lady) August was the son of Anton Hackman and Maria Elizabeth(Mary) BROKAMP RULMANN. Mary(my gt. grandmother was Anton's first wife and remarried after his death to my gt. grandfather Herman RULMANN, also widowed). Chn. of August Hackman and his first wife were: Stella b. 5 Sep. 1882 d. 1950 marr. John Burdick. Kleona b. 16 Jul. 1884 d. 1972 marr. Paul Munchel. Cora b. 11 Sep. 1885 marr. Peter Kellerman. August b. 17 Dec. 1886 d. 1918 marr. Mary France Lamping. Florence b. 1888 d. 1888. In looking over an article on August Joseph Hackman from Franklin Co. IN. History it says August Anthony Hackman, father of August Joseph, married secondly, Mrs. Catherine BAUMER, the widow of John Baumer, who was born in Cincinnati, a daughter of Joseph and Sophia Koeker, natives of Germany, the former of whom was a well -known tailor in the Queen City. (Somehow I must have gotten Keller out of Koeker.) Maybe that last statement will help you out, or perhaps you already knew that. If there is anymore I can help with, let me know. The original Hackman store is on the main street of Oldenburg and was run until a few years ago by the grandson of August Hackman. Lucy Weaver , Defiance,OH. north@defnet.com

Thanks for the great info on August Hackman and his family. To clarify one point....I'm absolutely, 100% sure that Catherine's maiden name is Hoelker....not Keller or Koeker. Catherine is my gr-grandmother's sister.

Also, thanks for the info about Catherine's parents. I knew their names but did not know that he was a tailor in Cincinnati. If interested....Sophia Hoelker's maiden name is Vogelsang.

Does your Franklin Co., IN history book list anything on HOELKER, VOGELSANG or RUDOLF(PH)? I am aware of Father Joseph Rudolf who started the Holy Family Church in Oldenburg....he is my gr. gr. gr. grandfather's brother. Do you specifically have anything on my gr gr gr grandfather...George Rudolf or his son John (Jean) Rudolf?

Thanks again for the great info.

Hi, Larry, Found another "relative" in your Peppertown records: Paul A. Munchel, b. 1880 and died 1918 during the flu epidemice, was married to Kleona Hackman, sister of the A. J. Hackman, (discussed previously). They were married Oct. 7, 1908. The son of Paul Munchel was Gilbert Munchel who ran the old Hackman General Store on the main street of Oldenburg until his death in the 1980s. I am glad that this prosperous family helped their protestant neighbors out even back then, even though there was a stronger division among the different religions back then , then there is today.
Many thanks for your hard work in compiling the records. We often find in helping other genealogists that it comes back twofold.

Thanks for the "tidbit" Lucy. I haven't gotten that far forward yet with the Moormans.
I'm doing those for my brother-in-law. We just started with the Franklin Co. Moormans, but I'll file this one and he might fit in down the line.
I'm not sure, but I think your James Moorman might have been a friend of my mom and dad's. There was a fellow that worked at a local Savings and Loan Co. that my mom and dad knew real well and his name was James Moorman.
Could be just a coincidence, too.

Subject: Conflicting data on Hackman/Lamping.

Janet, Catherine Hoelker Baumer, a widow, was the second wife of August Anthony Hackman. August Anthony Hackman's first wife was Agnes Flodder, who died Dec. 3, 1903. (data per Frnaklin Co. IN. History and from Gilbert Munchel, son of Kleona Hackman Munchel.)

From History of Franklin Co.IN.:
August Anthony Hackman, came into this world in Frnaklin county, Ray Township, on December 17, 1886, the son of August Anthony and Agnes(Flodder) Hackman... On May 12, 1909, Mr. Hackman led to the altar Mary F. Lamping, the daughter of August Lamping, a farmer near Oldenburg, and to this union two children have been born, Arnold A. and Stella Agnes. Taken from pages 1244-1245-1246.

Franklin Co. birth records: August Hackman , born 17 Dec. 1886 to August and Agnes Hackman.

Arnold A.S. Hackman, son of August J. and Mary Frances Lamping HAckman, b. 3 1 Mar. 1910

Stella Agnes Hackman, dau. of August J. and Mary Frances Lamping, born 22 May 1913.

How are you related to the family? August Anthony Hackman was my paternal grandfather's brother. They had the same mother Mary Brokamp Hackman Rulmann.

Hope the above helps clear up conflicting dates and parentage. Roy Rudolph on the Franklin Co. IN. mailing list also has ties to this family.

John Henry"Ben" BROKAMP was b. 17 Nov. 1803 Steinfeld, Oldenburg, Germany. He married 1832 in Steinfeld to Mary Catharine FRECKING. They resided in Cincinnati by 1835 where their second daughter was born, later moving to Oldenburg, IN(by 1840) John Henry was accidentally killed around 1846-1847 in Cincinnati, while moving a house(according to his granddaughter). His wife remarried by 1847 to Anton Romweber. Are there any BORKAMP descendants in the Hamilton Co. area? Would like to exchange BROKAMP data. Also wondering if there would be a newspaper article regarding John Henry's accidental death. Lucy Weaver north@defnet.com

Hello Lucy;

I saw your query for Hamilton County, Ohio and looked up the name BROKAMP in several indexes I have for that area's marriages, deaths and immigration information from the mid-1800's to about 1900 +/-.
The name BROKAMP is pretty well represented in the lists, but just the first names you mentioned found only:
Henry Brokamp married Anna Rolsen 1884
John Henry Brokamp married Rosa Schmerge 1874

I have better details on the above, let me know if you want them. If you have any other first names in later generations for BROKAMPs, let me know and I'll try to find them.
Also, I did not find the name ROMWEBER in the marriages at all.

Best wishes,

Dear Mr. Romweber,

I am writing to you because you have the same given and surname as a man listed in my family's history. Also you live in an area in close proximity to Oldenburg, Franklin Co., IN.

On November 29, 1850 a census was taken in Oldenburg, Franklin Co.,IN. On this census is listed:
Anthony Romweber age 33 male farmer
Mary Romweber age 39 female Elizabeth Romweber age 7 female b. IN Ludwich age 5 male b. IN John age 2 male b. IN Elizabeth Brocamp age 17 female b. Germany
Mary Brocamp age 13 female b. OH
Mary Ann Brocamp age 11 female b. IN.

I have reason to believe that the Mary Romweber was my gt. gt. grandmother Mary Catherine Frecking Brokamp and that Anthony was her second husband. Mary's first husband John Henry(Ben) Brokamp reportedly died in the 1840s while moving a house in Cinci., OH. I have never been able to find a marriage record for Mary and Anthony. Some blurred records that I have from Holy Family Church in Oldenburg show some deaths of children of Anthony & "Catherine" Frecking Romweber.

Do you know anything about this particular Romweber family? Was this the first marriage for Anthony or were some of the children listed from another marriage?
I am descended from the Mary Brokamp (age 13 on the census), who first married Anton Hackman and after his death, a widower Herman B. Rulmann Sr.

Am hoping that you or someone in your family can shed some light on this family for me. It would certainly be appreciated.

Will enclose a self addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

Sincerely
Lucy (Rulman) Weaver

Hello, Rick, So glad to see your message on my e-mail! Difficult to believe your Lisa is in college..how the time flies! Interesting that Jason likes Pokemon. Our daughter Ann sells Pokemon cards and other Pokemon items. I'll have to look at her shop on the web and see if she has anything listed there.
It is very confusing about Mary Catherine Frecking Brokamp. I remember my Great Aunt Belle saying her mother told her that her stepmother was much nicer then her real mother(Belle's Grandmother). I have always thought she was mixed up on that story since John Henry was killed moving a house in Cinci. I think you sent me a possible date of death for him as 1849 (from a church in Cinci). When I look over the "blurry" copies of the records sent to me from Holy Family Church in Oldenburg, I see the death of a child of Anton Romweber & Cahtarine Frecking 18 July 1847, which makes me think John Henry had to be deceased before 1849. In 1851 there is also a death listed of Louis, son of Anton and Catherine Frecking Romweber. I don't believe I have tried to send for Mary Catharine Frecking Brokamp Romweber's death cert. based on that will date..thinking an 1874 record wouldn't give me parents names..but on the other hand, it might give me her birthdate....I have written to an Anthony Romweber in Batesville, IN, but have had no response. The Romwebers are connected with the Batesville Casket Co. I have not been able to find a marriage record for Anton and Catharine in Franklin Co. so far. I belong to the Franklin Co. IN. mail list. their website also has lots of data on it...I have been lucky with some of my other surnames with other researchers e-mailing and sending records..but so far nothing on Brokamp and Romweber. If I come up with anything at all, will send you the details. I think I also posted on the Hamilton Co. OH. mail list...re a possible news item for John Henry's accidental death. I would have thought that would be a newsworthy item. Never have found his gravesite back in Oldenburg or any land records so far... Another nuisance is the fact that these Germans never seemed to use their first name, but rather their middle name or a nickname for it. Evidently John Henry was known as Ben .
Did I ever send you the copies of the records from Holy Family Church?

Rick, I copied the Holy Family Records that I had..dark copies as they were..maybe you can make something out of those and sent those out this a.m. My gt. grandmother Mary Brokamp Rulman was born in Cincinnati around 1835 (I have various dates of birth for her-death cert. memorial card.census) . I don't know how long they resided in Cinci. before coming to Oldenberg. Hadn't thought about it, but maybe Henry died there before they moved to Oldenberg. I haven't found him in deeds or census or church records so far. If you do obtain Holy Family Records..pertinent names would be Hackman, Rulman, Romweber, as well as Brokamp. Still haven't figured out why Aunt Belle said her mother told her that her step-mother was better to her than her real mother. I have always thought she was mixed up and that Catharine was the one who remarried..which seems to be confirmed by the 1850 census. So think it was a stepfather. The Romwebers are a prominent family in Batesville. (Batesville Casket Co.) On the net I found an address for Anthony Romweber and wrote to them, enclosing an S.A.S.E.. that was quite awhile ago and my letter was not returned (nor answered). Sometimes genealogy is similar to working crossword puzzles...you stop working on it for awhile and when you pick it up again an answer or clue pops out at you.

Subject: Catherine Frecking

Hi Lucy,

Thanks so much for your recent e-mail. I have been trying to put things together regarding our Catherine Frecking (1812) and John Henry Brokamp (1803). We know they were married in 1832 in Steinfeld. Their first child was born in Steinfeld in 1833 and their second was born in Ohio in about 1835. So they must have come to the U.S. in 1833 or 1834, about the same time John Henry's brother Hermann, my ancestor, came. I have a record of a Henry Brokamp who bought land in Franklin County, Indiana on 11 Nov. 1836 and I have a record from Holy Family Church in Franklin County that shows that Johanna (Mary Anna) Brokamp was born 4 October 1839 to Henry Brokamp and Catherine Frecking. So I think your ancestors used the first names Henry (I have never seen Ben) and Catherine. The death records you received from Holy Family Church lists the parents of the Romweber children in 1847 and 1851 as Anton Romweber and Catherine Frecking. From these records it appears that Henry died before 1847 and Catherine Frecking married Anton Romweber soon after. The 1850 Census records list the Romweber children as Elizabeth (age 7, born ca 1843), Friederich (age 5, born ca 1845), and John (age 2, born ca 1848). From all this I would guess that Henry Brokamp died about 1840 or 1841 and Catherine Frecking married Anton Romweber around 1842. What do you think?

Probably the best way to get the marriage and death records of Catherine Frecking is to check the records of Holy Family Church in Oldenburg, Indiana. We will not need to write them. Recently the LDS church microfilmed them and I can check them out at their branch library the same way I did the Steinfeld records. I got this information on the internet..

Yes, I would be interested in your Holy Family Church death records as I have no copies of them.

Let me know about the Pokemon items when you have the chance.

Rick, Good to hear from you. Will copy and send out the Holy Family Records to you. Our dtr. is in Acapulco, but when she returns will have her send you a list of what she has. Glad to know you will be getting the Holy Family films. There should be something in Cinci newspapers about Henry Brokamp being killed while moving a house..I think that would make the front page...Are there Cinci newspapers on film at the Family History Centers? I wish I had questioned my Gt. Aunt Belle more about her family. She was the dtr. of Mary Brokamp Hackman Rulmann(my Grandpa's sister). My grandfather Rulman died when I was in the third or fourth grade and of course I wasn't doing genealogy at that time. Like most people I waited until everyone was gone, before I started genealogy. I still love the detective part of all this.

Hello Lucy,

The microfilm records have not yet arrived from Salt Lake City. When they do I will get back to you as soon as possible.

I have been working on a history of the Brockamps/Brokamps. When it is finished I will send you a copy.

Sorry to hear about your computer. It should have lasted much longer. I would certainly write a letter of compliant to the company.

We are currently remodeling our kitchen, which has turned out to be an incredibly complex job. (And we are just starting!) I will let you know how it turns out.

Subject: Anything new in the church records?

Hi, Rick, Wondered if you had a chance yet to review the Oldenburg church records? Hadn't heard from you, so imagine if you did review those, you didn't find anything new or exciting. I had a computer crash and am now back in business with anew mother board, fan and processor. Luckily didn't lose my hard drive, but i had a backup just in case. My lesson: never buy a computer that is a store display item..my Compaq was purchased in May 99 and in Dec. 99 had to have a new sister board and a drive. I had purchased a 4 yr. in home service contract luckily, but when the last tech. was here he reinstalled the scussi(spelling?) board for my scanner wrong and I had to take it in locally to have it reinstalled correctly. Really think I am due for a new computer from the company. Have yet to write my letter to them.

Hi, Rick, Good luck with the kitchen! Sounds similar to what we did when I retired..redid a bathroom and several other items. Will be anxious to read the Brokamp History. Would you want a copy of what I have on John Henry's descendants to be included?

Hi Lucy,

Sorry, neither Brokamp or Romweber were listed in the Franklin County will index.

However, I did recently hit "paydirt" with respect to the Kessings. A Heinrich Kessing saw several of my postings on the internet and emailed me. He lives in Germany in the same small town my ancestors came from (although I didn't know it at the time). With his help, we were able to connect your Kessing family with my family as well as several other Kessing families. We are still filling in holes and collecting evidence. He said that the name "Brokamp" is very typically for his region in Germany. If you happen to know the town that May Elisabeth Brokamp came from, he may be able to help you. I believe he lives in or around Hude/handorf in Oldenburg.
Also let me know, if you are interested in any of the Kessing info. I know, it is not a direct line of your.

Take care
Jennifer

I am researching these family names. My great grandfather John Mengelkamp (raised by the Pohlman's of Peppertown married Catherine Sagel, the daughter of Oldenburg farmer Johan Bernard Sagel and worked for a Mr. Hoelker in what is now known as the Munchel-Hackman store and lived in the building now known as the Oldenburg apartments from 1880-1900. The part of the family moved to Hamburg, Indiana and the other side moved to Hamilton, Ohio. We are planning a Mengelkamp reunion July 20-22, 2001 at the Freudenfest and would appreciate any info available on the family. Thank you Nancy de Ita

Thank you very much for your email. Tell me when did Anton Hackman build the store? How long did he personally run it? Do you still have records from 1880-1900. Might some have receipts with my great grandfather's name on it?
I spoke to Mrs, Munchel on the phone recently and emailed and wrote to Mr.
Munchel with the info I had. Was it a general store? I went in the store about 4 years ago. What a great town Oldenburg is! Best, Nancy

I managed to download the postcard. thanks My grandfather Otto Mengelkamp wrote to his sister 30 years ago, that he recalls a William Hoelker owning the store. Is this a mistake? He recalled Albert Piney and Florentine Hoelker as schoolmates during his 2 years of school in Oldenburg, Apparebtky the Pineys lived across the street from the store. He drew a map of the neighbors houses he remembered. I will be happy to mail it to you if you are interested. Again thanks for the info. Best Nancy de Ita 520 el Camino #660, San Mateo, Ca. 94402 (650)347-0132 FAX(650)347-0407

Happy New Year, thanks for the photos and info. Have you ever attended the Freudenfeste historical fundraiser festival in Oldenburg? This year it will be on July 21st (and possibly July 20th) and Mr. Munchel is the organizer.

There will be tours of the convent and the nun's farm, and a lunch and dinner in the townhall. So I am organizing the second Mengelkamp reunion there. We are staying at the Sherman house in Batesville. Last summer I went to Germany and met with several Mengelkamp, one of whom is coming to our reunion in Oldenburg. The Mengelkamps originated in Westphalia, Germany and came over to Cincinatti, Illinois, and Iowa in the mid 1800s. A few went to Rotterdam around 1798. The more I learn about my ancestors pioneer days, the more impressed I am. I think it is wonderful that Oldenburg hasn't changed much in th! e last 150 years. We were surprised to find a European town in the middle of the midwest. How did you end up in Defiance? Hope you can come down to Oldenburg for the Freudenfest so we can meet. Best, Nancy

Wow can you scan Bernard Sagel's signature. I didn't realize he was there by 1870. Perhaps Hoelker was a manager of the store rather than the owner and my great grandfather was the clerk. Isn't it nice we can travel by time and geography through the internet. Unfortunately the historic Sherman house has all the bedrooms on the second floor and no elevator so some of our group will be staying at the Hampton Inn in Batesville although they will join us for a banquet Sat. night. We sure would love to include you and your husband. If not I have set up a homepage and hope to be able to figure out how to send a video of the reunion out afterwards

Dear Lucy, I have an inexpensive scanner that I will ask my son to connect so I can send you the map. If I fail I will mail it tomorrow. Also Do yo have a copy of the Oldenburg Sesquicentennial Souvenir Edition 1837-1987 book? If not, I will xerox it and mail it to you. it has lots of names of townspeople and the history of the church. I see an August Hackman Sr.

mentioned. I will look for Sister Mary Johanna Brokamp. Sister leonida (Emma Borcheldt) was midwife at my grandfather's birth, I believe. By the way
Mr. Gary Munchel's phone number is (812)934-6582. His wife gave me his email

I wonder if the entries from 1880-1900 were done by John Mengelkamp. I reread the book and found your great grandmother's name entering the convent 1858 and her death 1915. The nun's have a website. Have you seen it? Also in the sesquicentennial book there is mention of the 1869 Hackman fire whech razed the barn behind the William Hoelker house. After you read it we may be able to put the pieces of the story together better. Best, Nancy

Well we couldn't get the scanner working yet. However today I will xerox the book and map and a few letters from my grandpa Otto Mengelkamp. Rereading them together and thinking about it over night I got an idea. The book mentions Mr. Hoelker's store and mentions Mr. Hoelker's property next to your barn. My grandpa's letter describes working for Mr. Hoelker and that the town had one general store. Could the Hackman's and the Hoelker's run two different types of stores next to each other? Or could Mr. Hoelker have had a mortgage on your store after the fire. It doesn't seem like the town was big enough to support two stores. I will be interested in your thoughts after you read the info I will mail you today. By the way, do you know that one of the priest trained at the Franciscan Monastery in Oldenburg became a very famous priest and w! riter in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Fray Angelico Chavez. He died just a few years ago but he wrote several books about Santa Fe's history and the genealogy of the Spanish Colonists from the archdiocese Santa Fe records. From his work we learned all about my grandmother Fructosa Ortiz's ancestry. Around 1920 her family moved to Denver where she met Otto at her local Catholic church. All the Mengelkamps in Germany are Catholic except for one family that married protestant then got cut off from the rest thereafter. There were three Mengelkamp farms in Westphalia but only the oldest son inherited, so I think younger sons of 5 different branches of the family came to America in search of a better future in the mid 1850s due to the poor economy and feuding war lords in the northern rhine/Westphalia area near Muenster, Germany. Most Mengelkamps are still in that area. Thanks for the ledg! ers and photo. Defiance is beautiful Best, nancy

His wife did tell me he was out of town for awhile. We are hoping to interface with the Freudenfeste committee i.e. have them silkscreen our reunion T shirts, etc. Hopefully my relatives in Hamilton, Ohio can link up with them.

Yesterday I put two envelopes in the mail for you. It's so nice to make a new friend over the internet. Have a good day. Nancy

The weather here is sunny. We realize we are lucky. My mother has a second home in Santa Fe, New Mexico when she needs to see some pretty snow Fortunately her house is close to the center of town so never feels snowed in and can get out without much trouble. Life takes a backseat to the weather in the more remote parts of New Mexico. Neighbors had to work together to keep their families safe and fed. My grandmother Fructosa Ortiz was born on a ranch in Ocate, New Mexico. So I come from hardy stock on both sides. Best to you and your husband, Nancy Subject: Oldenburg Indiana Church Records

Dear Lucy,

The microfilms of the Oldenburg church records finally arrived about a month ago but I was so busy it took me a while to look at them. It took a little more time for me to understand them. I think I've got them figured out and am anxious to e-mail you the results. As you will see, some old questions have been answered and some new questions have come up.

First let me begin with the baptisms. I will list what I found and then in parentheses I will comment.

Maria Anna Brockamp (note spelling) baptized 6 Oct. 1839, daughter of Henry Brockamp and Catharina Frekin (sic) (We already knew about Sister Johanna, of course).

Margaret Elizabeth Romweber baptized 8 Oct. 1843 and born 3 Oct. 1843, daughter of Anthony Romweber and Catharina Frecking (This pretty much proves Catherine Frecking married Anthony Romweber after Henry Brokamp died. This child is most likely the Elizabeth Romweber, age 7, in the 1850 census).

Anna Maria Ludovica Romweber baptized 30 July 1845, daughter of Anthony Romweber and Catharina Freking (sic). (This one had me stumped. My transcription of the 1850 census shows a Frederick age 5. However, upon looking at the original handwriting it does look like Ludovich Romweber. I'm not sure why she was listed as male, perhaps the census taker was not familiar with the name Ludovica. I know I'm not. There were several people in the records (all girls) with this name so I know I have it spelled correctly. Have you ever heard of it? Ludovica (not Louis) is also the one who died 5 Aug (?) 1851).

Antonius Joannes Romweber baptized 9 Sept. 1848 and born 8 Sept. 1848, son of Antonius Andreas Romweber and Catharina Frecking. (This would be the John, age 2, listed in the 1850 census. According to the blurry records you sent me, he apparently died 3 July 1854.)

I found no more Romwebers until 1863. I could not find the Christina Romweber who died 18 July 1847.

Franciscus Romweber baptized 27 July 1863, son of Anthony Romweber and Maria Anne Greene. (This one really surprised me! I think that Catherine Frecking may have died between 1850 and 1863 and Anthony Romweber remarried to a Mary Anne Greene. This could be the Mary Ann Romweber found in the will. This would also explain the family tradition about the children's stepmother. The roll of microfilm I borrowed does not have deaths, this is on another roll. Perhaps in the future I can find a record of Catherine Frecking's death.)

I have not finished getting baptisms on the Hackmans and Kessings. I do have some partial information and will send it to you later when I figure it all out.

I could not find a marriage record for Anthony Romweber and Mary Anne Greene. But I did find the following:

Anthony Hackman and Maria Prokamp (sic) married 1 May 1855. Anthony Hackman, son of Francis Gerhard Hackman and Anna Gerbaldi (?). Maria Prokamp, daughter of Henry Prokamp and Catharina Frecking.

As you can see, there is a lot here. Please let me know what you think. In the meantime I will continue to work on this.

Sincerely,

Rick Gunther

Hi, Lucy;

First of all, the name BROKAMP was apparently in the Cincinnati area for a long time. I ran across several, but am sticking with the one you mentioned, John Henry (Ben).

The Gazette and the Daily Times obituary indexes are the only ones I have that would provide information as early as 1839 to 1843, and he is not in either.

However, I also have an index for Church Burials, 1811-1849, and this may be him (and a son)?

Brokampe, Johan Heinr. bur. 23 Nov 1841 age 35, Holy Trinity RC ch.

* this baby's parents were given as Johan Heinrich Brokamp and Anna M.
Agnes Meyer.

The first names are pretty common. In the early Restored Marriage Index (1808-1849):
Bernard Brokamp mar. Anna Maria Wehmhof 1849
Heinrich Brokamp mar. Cath. Kramer 1844
Johan Brokamp mar. Anna Maria Strieker 1849
Johan Heinr. Brokamp mar. (Mrs.) Anna M. Kenkel 1844

The possibilties for his widow's second marriage were:

Anna Maria Brokamp mar. F. Enkick 1840
Lisette Brokamp mar. Carl Dehne 1843

Let me know if there's anything else you would like me to look up for you.
For Hamilton Co. OH, I have:

Restored marriages 1808-1884

Deaths/obits 1827-1920
Church Burials 1811-1849
Citizenship 1817-1936

Best wishes,

Ann

Hi, Lucy;

Well, I had a little more luck with the Restored Marriage indexes than I had with the obit lists.

Anton Romweber mar. Catharine BROCKMANN 26 Oct 1842 at Old St. Mary RC

(that misspelling of Brokamp is probably why it couldn't be found before)

Anton Romweber mar. Maria A. VonHandorf 4 Mar 1862 St. Paul RC ch
I don't know what happened to the "Green" or "Groene" surname, but I don't find any similarity under that name at all. This must be the same "Mary Ann" you are looking for.

There are other people listed with the surname Groene, and of course many Green/e/s.

Hope this info is of help to you.

Best wishes,
Ann

Hi Lucy,

Thanks you so much for getting the marriage and burial records. Genealogy is a lot like digging for gold. You can go for years and not find anything and then suddenly strike a vein with all kinds of riches! It would be best to check the original parish records for the events below so that we can verify them and get more information. They may be on microfilm so I will check. See my comments below on your note.

might be her maiden name. Just as Catherine Romweber is found as Catherine Frecking and Catherine Brokamp, Mary Ann's name could vary. In Germany, the priest seems to have always recorded the married names but in the U.S. there are inconsistencies, sometimes a maiden name and sometimes a married name. Again we need to see the original records.

(he didn't waste much time..needed someone to lookafter his children, I suppose)....Still a puzzle about the 1874 will which was made in May 1874 and proven 30 Sep. 1874, it clearly says all property to her husband Anton Romweber. I am wondering if the microfilm should have said Mrs. Anthony Romweber? At least all the dates seem to make sense. Sure brings out the detective in us...Lucy

Lucy,
Currently there is a George Romweber living at 211 Hillcrest Ave., Batesville, IN 47006. I'm fairly sure that this is a relative to Anthony who was living in Ray twp. The north part of Batesville is actually in Ray twp of Franklin Co.

Dear Mr. Romweber,

Because your surname is the same as a name I am researching for genealogy, I am taking the liberty of writing to you. My great, great, grandmother Mary Catherine Frecking Brokamp , as a widow, married Anthony Andrew Romweber, in 1842. After her death, Anton or Anthony remarried to a Maria Ann Green or VonHandorf according to information received. I am enclosing Family Group sheets to show you what type of information I have gathered. Are you descended from this particular family? Do you have any information to add to what I have documented? There is some question as to the date of death of Anton Romweber.

Anything you might add would be greatly appreciated. I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Lucy M. Weaver

Subject: More Romweber Info.

Dear Lucy,

It is a pleasure to tell you that I have been able to find more information from the Oldenburg, Indiana church records. The microfilm with the burial and death records came in and I found the following:

Catherine Romweber (no maiden name but I am sure we have the right one), buried 19 Dec. 1861 at age 50. This supports the theory that Catherine died and Anthony remarried Mary!

Anthony Romweber, died (not buried, the records differ from time to time in what is recorded) 10 Sept. 1874. I wonder if our will information is for Anthony and not for Mary.

Christina Romweber, buried 18 July 1847, parents Anthony Romweber and Catherine Freking. The record says that the child was just hours old and I assume it died before it could be baptized as there is no baptismal record.

Ludovica Romweber, buried 6 Aug. 1851 at age 6, parents Anton Romweber and Catherine Freking. The baptism and burial records have the Latin word filia (girl). Perhaps Ludovica is a feminine form of Ludwig.

There was no marriage record for Anthony Romweber and Mary Ann Greene (I am not sure I have the spelling right, it could be Groene or something else). I cannot find her death record either.

I hope you are as pleased as I am with all this. I will try to send you a group sheet in the regular mail. There might be some things we can check in the future: The 1860 and 1870 Oldenburg censuses might tell us more about Mary Ann. There is also a microfilm with Oldenburg cemetery records available through Salt Lake. I will try to order these microfilms.

There is also a book that contains an index of death notices in the Cincinnati Daily Gazette, 1827-1881. Perhaps there might be something about John Henry Brokamp in it. It is in the Salt Lake family history library but they will not lend it out to branch libraries. The book was put out by the Hamilton County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society. Perhaps you might know someone in Ohio who could check for us.

In one of my past e-mails I reported that Anthony John Romweber (born in 1848) died in 1854. This was an error. I have not yet found his death date. I think he is mentioned in Mary Ann's will.

Have a happy July Fourth!

Hi, Lucy;

Well, I tried, but had no luck with Maria Anna's first (?) marriage.

The name VonHandorf, other than in her marriage listing, only occurs once more --

Josephine VonHandorf died age 41, pg 8, Cinci. Freie Presse, 20 oct 1900 (nee Rennekamp)

There was a marriage without the "von"

Bernard Handorf married Maria Abel 14 Aug 1860 St. Paul RC ch.
(but this would mean either "Abel" is totally incorrect, or we're talking about another marriage, another surname)!

One mystery entry, which must have been impossible for the transcriber to read, was:

Henry Van ----- married Mary Ba----- 10 Aug 1858 (Restored Courthouse Recs)

(if the handwriting was that bad, it would be anybody's guess as to the correct last names on that one).

Now -- the most likely possibility is that, if Maria A. Romweber had been previously married, it may have occurred in Germany (or wherever) before immigration, or, the first marriage may have taken place in Hamilton Co. but is not listed in these indexes, which are compiled as "Restored Records", re-done after the courthouse records were destroyed. If she was married for a short time, it may not have seemed important years later to re-record the event.

Well, if you think of anything -- don't hesitate to ask if I can look it up for you!

Subject: Romweber Census Info.

Hi Lucy,

It's been a busy summer. Three weeks ago Sue and I celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary and last week I went camping with my son in the high Sierras near Yosemite. I didn't have too much time for genealogy!

However, several days ago I was able to check the 1860 and 1870 U.S. Census for the Romwebers. Here is what I found:

1860 Census, Oldenburg, Ray Township, Franklin County

Anthony Romweber, 43, Male, Basketmaker, born in Prussia, assets $3000 real estate, $1000 personal
Catherine, 48, Female, born in Oldenburg
Elizabeth, 17, Female, born in Indiana
John, 11, Male, born in Indiana

This has to be Catherine Frecking and her children. Christina and Ludovica must have died as we thought.

1870 Census, Ray Township, Franklin County

Anthony Rumwavern, 53, Male, Woolen Factory, born in Prussia, assets $20000 real, $3000 personal
Mary, 50, Female, Keeping House, born in Oldenburg, Germany
Frank, 7, Male, born in Indiana

This has to be Mary Greene(?) and her son as we deduced.

I also found:

John Rumwager, 22, Male, Woolen Factory, born in Indiana (The other son?)
Rosa, 18, Female, born in Indiana

It looks like this all verifies what we have learned. I ordered the microfilm of the Oldenburg cemetery records but there are no microfilms of the Cincinnati church records. We will have to write to the individual churches.

Have a good summer!

Hi Lucy,

Thanks for finding the Romwebers in the 1880 census. At some point one of the Romwebers starts the Romweber Furniture Company in Batesville. Part of this company becomes the Batesville Casket Company. I'm not sure of the particulars.

Below you will find a list of genealogy sites that was sent to me. Some you may not be aware of.

I will let you know when I get more info.

For those of you who were looking for specific surnames in the index of the Franklin County History book by Reifel, here is a list. I figured it was easier to send one list than a bunch of e-mails, so please find your names below. For the one marked 1/2 page, 1 page, etc... The index I used is a book that was compiled at the library from a couple of different sources. If there were a lot of people with that particular surname, I didn't copy each individual person. Some of the people listed could have been in other sources (marriages, biographies, etc). For the ones where the names are listed separately, they should all appear in the history book. I may have missed a few and picked up a few that were from other sources, so please forgive any errors... Here Goes!

Subject: Oldenburg Cemetery Records

Hi Lucy,

The microfilm arrived so here are the Oldenburg cemetery records. They were compiled by none other than Gilbert Munchel and presented to the Franklin County historical society! They are dated 6 April 1979 and were filmed by the LDS Genealogical Society 9 October 1989. I think these are sexton's records rather than tombstone inscriptions since birth dates are not given and the dates given are burial dates in some cases and death dates in other cases. These records pretty much correspond with what we have. Here is a transcription of the relevant persons:

Hackman:
Agnes Flodder 12-3-1903 DEATHDATE
August J. 12-2-1918 DEATH DATE
Henry 12-4-1863 NOT HENRY SON OF ANTON + MARY
John W. 3-16-1858
Maria 10-23-1870 - child b. 1856 Jon 1870 census ?.
Maria A. 9-13-1854 ?
Maria F. 11-13-1880
Maria R. 9-4-1864
Wilhelm 7-17-1865

Groene:
John F. 11-16-1860 (Wonder if this is the husband to Mary R.?)

Romweber:
Anthony 9-10-1874
Catherine 12-19-1861
Christina 7-18-1847
Louis 8-6-1851 (A bad transcription of Ludovica???)
Rosa Huermann 11-13-1933

Ruhlmann:
George 8-1-1864
John H. 11-18-1865

John H. 12-11-1867

It's been a tough month what with the bombing and all. We have been busy getting my daughter ready for school. She is sharing an apartment in Santa Barbara with a friend and I had to do a lot of the moving for her. She is settled now and continuing her studies at UCSB.

Let me know what you think of the above.

Hi Lucy,

Glad to get your reply. It should be possible to get more information on John Groene from the parish record microfilm that is still available. It might also be possible to get more on Rosa, I will check it.

Yes, I worry too about smallpox. I don't know if I told you but I am a Board Member and Past President of a medical and legal clinic here in Thousand Oaks. I was appointed some years ago because they wanted someone with a business and teaching background. A number of the physicians on the Board are also worried.

I wish you and your husband the best.

Dear Lucy,

How are you? I hope you had a good Thanksgiving. I got back to the genealogical library just before Thanksgiving and tired to find some more on the John F. Groene I found in the cemetery records. I looked him up in the Oldenburg, Indiana parish death records and it turns out that he died when he was six years old, so he most definitely was not the husband of Mary Romweber! I looked up and photocopied the baptismal record of Frank Romweber again and it appears to indicate that Groene is the maiden name of Mary Romweber. By the way, after studying the name again, I am now sure that the spelling is Groene. So where did the Von Handorf name come from that you got from Ann Bergelt? I think that Mary Ann married a Von Handorf before she married Anthony Romweber. Still with me? Perhaps you could e-mail Ann Bergelt again and see if she can find a record of a Von Handorf - Groene marriage.

Here are some more records from Gilbert Munchel's cemetery list:

PRAYER

O gentlest Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgment, but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou, O Merciful saviour, send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

The original stone building was used as a residence and saloon, and according to local tradition, it was here that some of the Morgan Raiders drank beer while their horses were being shod at Kessing's blacksmith shop on Main Street. John Kellerman added the front part of the building as a residence, general store and saloon. The tin work above the small room to the left bears his name.

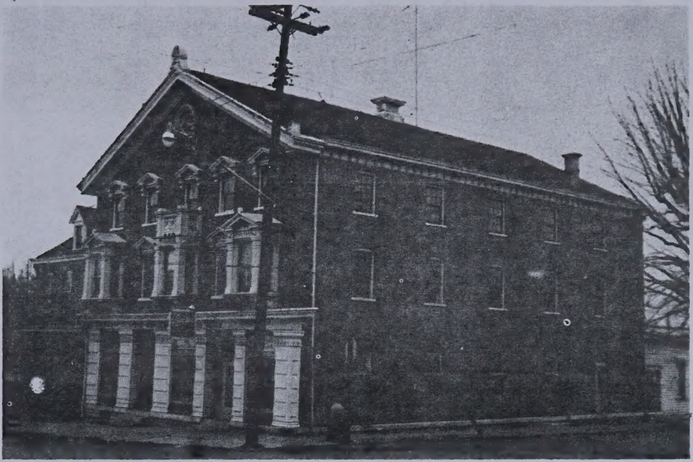
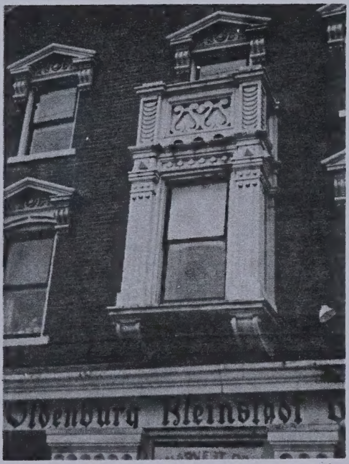
Here Francis Fette, a blacksmith, specialized in the manufacture of sheep and cow bells. Acquired by the Peine family from --- Ruhlman in 1882, it became headquarters for their occupation as painters and decorators of churches. Ed Peine was a painter of murals. The tin work on the Carriage House (shown at the left), erected in 1890, was probably the work of George Schmidt.





THE VILLAGE STORE
ANTON HACKMAN

Kleona Munchel

The tin work on this building is the most elaborate of all in Oldenburg. The builder embodied hints of several architectural styles, with a touch of the Old World in the erection of this building. It was used by Mr. Hackman as a residence, general store, saloon, and post office. In 1895 August Hackman abutted his residence to the store building, saving the cost of one wall, and cut a door between the two, connecting the residence and store.

SOMERSETT. A flourishing post village situated on the west bank of the west branch of Whitewater 10 miles above Brookville, in Franklin county, in the northwestern corner of said county. It is situated on a beautiful high, level bottom, which affords a delightful site for a town. It contains 8 or 10 families, and about 50 inhabitants; a store, an inn, and a grist and saw-mill immediately adjoining the plat of the town. The country around this place is delightful, the land fertile and well timbered, affording excellent springs.

Dear Sis:

Your last letter arrived on the same day I had written a letter to you and was on my way to the street letter box to mail it when the hotel desk clerk handed your letter to me so I did not get to answer your questions at that time.

Yes, Mother once told me in response to my question- that she was born and raised at White Oaks, Ohio and I think it is safe to assume that father was also born there, though I do not know where the Pohlmann family who raised him were living at the time.

You, you were too young to remember even as much (or little) as I do. A couple of years or so before we moved to Hamilton in January, 1900, mother induced her father, Grandpa John Sagel, to give up his farming and come to live with us in Oldenburg. There he was busy outdoors all the time, regardless of weather, sawing and chopping wood, sharpening knives and tools on his grindstone, tending garden, weaving willow baskets, etc., etc. - when we left for Hamilton, Grandpa Sagel went to live with Uncle Henry Sagel at Hamburg, and died there about 1902 or 1903, when I was about 10 and he was 86. He was buried in a grave dug by relatives and neighbors and this is probably what you remember.

As to whether Mother and Dad were married at White Oaks, I couldn't say or even know if there was a church or priest at White Oaks. Chances are they were married at Cincinnati, of which city White Oaks became a part.

You are right about Uncle Henry's farm house at Hamburg. It laid across a creek upon on a hill, over rocky wood. He had several horses- 18 or 20 cows - a flock of turkeys - lots of chickens, some dogs and cats, fruit trees, and a field of wheat. You are right about the children: A daughter named Annie married a Shulte and another daughter named Addie and it is quite possible ;(as you say) that she is the Mrs. Raver at Enochsburg. John took me there once, but I didn't get the connections. Uncle Henry also had several boys, one named Albert, one (I don't know his first name) whom John once told me moved to Oklahoma and operated a farm at Broken Arrow, just outside Tulsa. Uncle also had another boy who was so badly crippled from spinal meningitis (or infantile paralysis) that he couldn't walk. He's sit in a chair all day and Uncle would carry him and the chair to the porch on nice days and indoors to the table at meal time. He lived to be somewhere in his 20's before he died.

I remember the Borchelts, whom you mentioned. They lived up the street about a block from us in Oldenburg. They had several children, Emma, Leo, and 2 or 3 more. After we moved to Hamilton, and John had a job as machinist at Long & Allstattes at 4th & High Street, Leo Borchelt came to live with us for a year while he too started to learn the machinist trade at Long & Allstattes. But after one year he quit and left town and according to John, he just disappeared. Hattie and Emma were about the same age, and close friends while at Oldenburg. I met the one who became Mother Superior at the convent in Oldenburg and served two terms. John took me to see her twice. Mother had told me that this woman, when a teenager, took care of mother at the time of our birth. She died several years ago in her late '80's.

Those other names you mentioned are also familiar. Albert

Piney lived on the corner across the street from the store. He later became a lawyer and lived and practiced in Brookville, Indiana. I think John told me he died. Albert Piney and Florentine Hoelker were schoolmates of mine during the two years I went to school in Oldenburg. On one trip with John to Oldenburg, we visited the store when Wm. Hoelker still owned it. I asked him about "Florent" (as we called him), and he said "He's right here - pointing to a tall lanky man beside him. Well, he had changed so much I wouldn't have known him. I'd almost forgotten the name of Hotel until you mentioned it. We once mentioned Katie Sagel of Cincinnati, who came to visit us in Hamilton twice - once to be a bridesmaid for Hattie and once with her husband. Mother took me to Cincinnati once to visit Katies's mother who, as I remember it, lived in an upstairs apartment above a store in near downtown Cincinnati, though I don't remember the exact location. I think Katie's mother, a widow, must have been the form wife of one of mothers's brothers (first name not recalled) and this was mother's sister-in-law.

Well, so much for relatives and others at this time. It is always very interesting, but can also give one a headache if dwelt on too long.

Was sorry to hear of Ed Leuger's passing. Guess he too missed his partner who looked after all his wants and needs for many years. Mayme had her problems with him, but she never complained.

I've had some company this summer too. Norma Jean came from Salt Lake City and spent a week with me. Son Bob was in town a few days. Dorothy's daughter, Nancy Ligon, returned after spending a year as an Exchange student in India, and stopped offer in Denver to visit me for a week before continuing on home to San Francisco. She brought me a souvenir - a small vial of holy water she got when she visited Lourdes on her way back from India. And last week Richard and his family arrived from Oklahoma and I went with them to Colorado Springs and later Buena Vista, Colorado - 91 miles east, where they did some fishing and we had rainbow trout for breakfast and dinner. Also drove up into the mountains 10,000 ft above sea level, and visited the ghost town of St. Elmo.

Love as always,
Otto

PS Don't know if or when I'll get back to Hamilton but if I do I'll keep in mind your suggestion of a trip to Oldenburg.

Letters to Frances Herbers from Otto Mengelkamp

Denver, Colorado

Dear Sis:

I was just re-reading a letter you wrote a couple of months ago in which you asked if I knew where Mother and Dad were born. Don't believe I ever answered your questions, so here goes: yes, mother told me herself that she and dad were born at White Oaks, Ohio. This was not a city, but was the local name given to a place on the bank of the Ohio River where the immigrants from Germany settled -mostly between 1840-1850, but some before that. Later this White Oaks and several other small settlements were annexed to and became a part of Cincinnati. I believe all the records of births, deaths, marriages, etc. are on file in Cincinnati. In fact, I've heard that brother John searched these records at one time and learned the correct date of dad's birth. (Before that, dad knew how many years old he was, but didn't know the month and date of his birth).

I have a note Mayme one sent me, reading:
John Mengelkamp, Sr., Born 1849 - Died July 17, 1920
Katharine Mengelkamp, Born March 28, 1856, Died May 8, 1918
Dora Mengelkamp, Born June 4, 1874, Died May 23, 1909
Henrietta Krogman, Born June 20, 1884, Died Jan ___ 1919

I guess John never gave Mayme father's birth date either, except as to the year - 1849. It is my understanding John also obtained other data from the official records, but he never told me about them. That data amy still be somewhere at 515 Prytania Ave. Maybe Mark would and maybe he wouldn't - look for it.

You mentioned the Maders at Berkettsville. Mother took me along on a visit to them. They were the parents of the two teenage girls who had entered the convent a short time previously. The parents - as I recall- seemed to be about the age of mother and dad. Mother didn't inform me of the relationship, but from what you say, I now believe that Mrs. Mader was out dad's sister. I never heard dad speak of her either and I don't believe he ever visited her, nor did she visit him.

As an orphan, dad was taken in and raised by a family named Pohlmann. Several years ago John took me for a visit with a Pohlmann family who operated a farm somewhere within a few miles of Batesville. There were two brothers, the one we visited had a wife and teenage daughter - the brother - a bachelor - operated a farm also just across the road. Here, again, John and the Pohlmann family carried on a conversation about people they knew- but was "all Greek" to me. I later put 2 and 2 together and concluded that it was either these Pohlmann's parents, or other grandparents, who raised dad

On mother's side, I can think of only one sister - Mrs. Ortman (Clotilda's mother) and two brothers, Uncle Henry Sagel at Hamburg; the other brother's name I did not know, but he must have been the deceased husband of Aunt Maggie Sagel, whose daughter, cousin Katie Sagel, witnessed Hattie's wedding in Hamilton. In fact, she visited us twice. Mother took me to Cincinnati once to visit Aunt Maggie who was then living in a small apartment above a store not far from downtown Cincinnati. But there again, the relationship was not explained to me.

I've heard the name Shulte many times, as far back as the Oldenburg era, and one time a few years back I was with Joan when we visited the Shultes at Enochsburg. If I'm not mistaken, John did tell me at that time Mrs. Shulte was a daughter of Uncle Henry Sagel at Hamburg. But I could be mistaken!

Mother took me along several times on her visits, and the old folks would carry on their conversations about people they know. Me - being just a kid - wasn't supposed to have any interest in their discussions - and probably I didn't, so, sorry to say, most of the time I didn't know if we were visiting a relative or just a friend. I remember one such visit to some people living in Glendale, another time we visited a stout, big woman at Morris (or some other town near Batesville). She apparently was a widow, but mentioned a son who had been in the army. Still another time (and Dad was along that time) we visited a family living on Hanover St. in Hamilton near St. Joseph's Church - somewhere above First or Second St. What I remember about this visit was that the man had to ring the church bells for Sunday vespers. As there were three bells, each controlled by a separate rope, he asked dad and me to help him. The man took the rope to ring the biggest bell. Well, I pulled the rope down OK, but when the bell turned to other side the rope went up and lifted me a foot or more off the floor.

I have a Rand McNally Atlas and tried to look up the location of Burketsville, but it is not shown. Guess it was too small. the same is true of Hamburg. i remember, though, that Mr. Mader drive Mother and I to see the two prospective nuns and from there to Maria Stein; then back to Burketsville and all three locations were only a short distance (a few miles) from each other. Maria Stein, however, is shown on the map, almost up north to St. Mary's Lake. Highway 147 from Hamilton to Greenville, then another 40 miles north, then right on State Highway 119 four miles to Maria Stein.

Like you, I never heard Mom mention her mother. In fact, I don't believe I ever heard dad mention either of his parents. I believe, however, all three were most likely buried in Cincinnati, also that mom and dad were married there. After all, they were really residents of the city - Cincinnati - and White Oaks was only the local name of a section of the city and had no government of it's own. Same as Lindenwold, I believe, which later became a part of Hamilton.

Yes, I'm beginning again to think about going to Florida, though as you suggest it is getting to be a little tougher each year. For the past two years I've said to myself that would be the last time but then weakened and went again. So far I've received three letters from there asking me "if" and "when" I am coming and I'm beginning to feel the urge again, but up to this time have made

In the mid-1800s two men, Carl John Mengelkamp and John Barnard Sagel, in search of better economic opportunities, made the long, arduous journey by sailing ship from Germany to the United States. Both men initially settled in the "over the Rhine" German community in Cincinatti.

Carl John Mengelkamp married Adelaid Fering (of Osnabruck, Germany) on 5/4/1845 at Old St. Mary's Church in Cincinatti. They had a son named Louis born in 1847. Their second son John Bernard Mengelkamp was baptized 6/13/1849 at Old St. Mary's Church. A daughter was born in 1853 and their fourth and last child, Henry Bernard Mengelkamp was baptized 11/16/1854 at St. Henry's church in St. Henry, Ohio. Shortly thereafter these children were orphaned. John and Louis were adopted by their maternal aunt Anna Marie Fering and her husband John Pohlman of Peppertown, Indiana, who were raising their own children John Herman, Joseph and Mary Ann (Sister Regina of Oldenburg Convent) Pohlman . The daughter was adopted by a family in St. Henry's and then married into the Mader (Moeder) family.

On 12/31/1844 John Barnard Sagel (born in 1815, of Lohne, Germany) and Adelheid Fossing baptized a son, Johan Gerdhard Sagel (later known as George Henry), at Old St. Mary's Church. On August 27, 1850 John Barnard Sagel married Angela Kohlmeyer at Old St. Mary's Church. They had a daughter named Katherine Margaret Sagel baptized on 3/22/1852 and a son named John Bernard Sagel II baptized on 1/13/1855 at Old St. Mary's Church.

Since these two Catholic families belonged to the same parish in Cincinnati for almost a decade, it is likely that they knew of eachother. Their lives would intersect again in 1879 in Oldenburg, Indiana. Oldenburg was a town founded in 1836 by German Catholic pioneers. Known as the Village of Spires, for its beautiful Catholic church, monastery and convent. the population grew to 500 who worshiped together at mass held in German, retaining their cultural identity. John Barnard Sagel and Adelheid Fossing migrated together to Oldenburg with his daughter, Katherine Sagel, establishing a small farm. At age 27, an unmarried Katherine, gave birth to daughter Maria Dorothea (Dora) (6/14/79- 5/23/1909). Fortunately, two months later Katherine married John Bernard Mengelkamp (the son of Carl John Mengelkamp) at the Oldenburg Holy Family Church on 8/26/1879. John and Katherine Mengelkamp rented a home in Oldenburg from the Blank family (now known as the Oldenburg Apartments), down the road from John Barnard Sagel's farm. John Mengelkamp worked at the (Hackman-Munchel) general store for twenty years, from 1879-1899.

On 10/22/1880 Adelaid Fossing Sagel died of cancer at age 63 and was buried at the Holy Family Cemetery in Oldenburg, Indiana. In the 1900 Salt Creek Township, White Oaks, Hamilton county census John Barnard Sagel is found living or visiting with his son Henry George Sagel (12/25/1844-4/29/1928) and his daughter-in-law Mary Heilman (6/12/1852-3/31/1928) and their three children Frank (b1885), Alice (born 1892) and Albert (born 1897). By this time Henry and Mary Sagel's older children had moved out and married: Maria Margarita Sagel (bt 9/24/1871) married Pier Schulte on 4/27/1889 in Hamburg, Indiana and Henry Bernard Sagel (bt 1/20/1873) married Anne Harpring on 7/26/1896. John Barnard Sagel and his son and daughter-in-law returned to farm in Hamburg, Indiana (near Oldenburg) around 1900 where John Barnard Sagel was buried on 3/9/1902. Henry and Mary Sagel are also buried in the Hamburg cemetery in 1928.

John and Katherine had seven more children in Oldenburg, Indiana: John Bernard Mengelkamp II (12/8/1881-1969), Maria Henrietta (6/21/1884-1919), Joannes Aloishas

(2/14/1887-3/11/1888), Margaretha Charlotte (1/17/89-1/13/1894), Otto Joseph (1/12/1892- 9/1980), Marie "Mayme" Adelheid Eleonara (11/17/1894-1970), and Anna Francisca "Francis" (7/21/1897-1982). The midwife who delivered Otto was Anna Borcheldt, who later became a nun at the Oldenburg convent, sister Leonida, who served two terms as Mother Superior. In 1900, the owner of the general store died and the heirs decided the general store should be run by relatives. John and Katherine had to auction their possessions and move to Hamilton, Ohio for better job opportunities.

On 1/25/1905 at the German Catholic gothic St. Stephen's Church in Hamilton, Ohio, John Bernard Mengelkamp II married Emma Fremgen, the daughter of Michael Fremgen (1836-1921) from Bavaria and Mary Stecher (1833-1922) of Pennsylvania. John and Emma has two sons, Mark (a WWII intelligence officer) and Paul. Paul married Helen Grein (parents: Mayme Ulland & Frank Grein) and moved to Reading, Ohio and raised Robert, Paul II, Jim, John, Margaret, Tom, Mary Ellen, and Doris Mengelkamp).

Also in 3/1/1905 Henrietta Mengelkamp married Frederick Bernard Krogmann (12/14/1878-1919) who was the son of Bernard Krogmann and Maria Kemper. Henrietta gave birth to Urban (bt 2/25/1906), Florentine(1907-9), Corinne(1906), Bernard (bt 9/4/1911) and Louis Otto (1913-88). Henrietta died in 1919 when her youngest was just 6 years old, so a sister of Katherine Sagel Mengelkamp's, Anna Sagel Ortman, and her daughter, Corinne Ortman, moved in to help care for the house and children. By 1922, Corinne Ortman married Fred Krogmann giving him two more daughters: Anna May Krogmann and Mary Krogmann (Lagedrost), who both still live in Hamilton today.

In 1909 Dora Mengelkamp, working as a woolen mill worker, died at age 30, of a stomach ailment.

On July 2, 1913 Mayme Mengelkamp married Ed Leugers (1889- 6/18/1971). Their children were Raymond, Adrian, Robert (still lives in Hamilton), Eugene, James and Elizabeth Leugers.

On 6/20/1917 Frances Mengelkamp married Harry Herbers (5/13/1887-1971) whose parents were Elizabeth Kronelage and John Herbers(1860-1942). Frances and Harry Herbers enjoyed 53 years of marriage and had the following children: Leroy, Paul, Julia (12/9/1919-1970) who married Walter Hoelle 2/5/1944, Dorothy who married Marice Wimmers), Lucille who married Henry Geier, Mary who married Orville Goins, Rita who married Donald Bruck and Joan Herbers who married Joseph Eckert. This family group continues to live in and near Hamilton, Ohio.

On May 8, 1918, the matriarch Katherine Sagel Mengelkamp at age 66, died of pneumonia from shoveling snow, shortly after hearing that her son Otto had been drafted. Her husband, John Bernard Mengelkamp died of heart failure on 7/17/1920 at age 71.

During World War I, discrimination against Germans reached near hysteria. To avoid tar and featherings, and even lynchings German was only spoken at home. Germans "Americanized" their names. The postwar generation suffered from a kind of "cultural amnesia." They did not learn the German language from their parents.

On 12/26/1921, Otto Mengelkamp met and married Agnes Ortiz in Denver, Colorado. He worked at the U.S. Postal Inspector's office in Denver, Colorado the rest of his life. Agnes Ortiz was a direct descendant of the first pioneers who colonized Santa Fe, New Mexico in 1694. They raised four children: Richard, Dorothy, Robert and Norma Jeanne Mengelkamp. Richard Mengelkamp is buried in the military cemetery in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Dorothy M. Ligon lives in San Francisco and has a second home in Santa Fe. Jeanne M. Jimerson lives in Salt Lake City. Robert Mengelkamp died in Reno in 95.

THE MENGELKAMP FAMILY

FOREWORD

Before the turn of the present Century the pursuit of research of family ancestors was mainly of interest to persons of prominence, but within the past 50 years it has become a popular hobby for people of all classes.

And so it is that, at this late date and with some gentle urging, I have endeavored to set forth available facts concerning the origin and history of the MENGELKAMP FAMILY. The following account, though admittedly incomplete, dates back to the early 1800's, and involves considerable research as well as personal recollections. In gathering the data over the past two years I have received material assistance from my sisters, Mrs. Harry Herbers and Mrs. Edward Leugers, the latter now deceased.

For the purpose of this account it has not been deemed necessary to check the vital statistics of record at the offices of the various County Seats. It is hoped, however, that the following account will nevertheless prove of some interest to its readers.

Otto J. Mengelkamp

OCTOBER 15, 1971.

THE GRANDPARENTS

GRANDFATHER JOHN SAGEL was born and reared in a small town some distance southeast of Berlin, Germany, about the year 1816 or 1817. Though my mother once named this town and pointed it out to me on a map, neither the name of the town nor its location can now be recalled.

As a young man Grandfather Sagel married a local girl (maiden name not known) and, accompanied by his bride, set sail for America~~n~~. (He once told me the ocean trip alone required 6 weeks, and the total time of their journey from his home in Germany to his new home in America took three months.)

Earlier migrants from Germany had established a colony or settlement on the north bank of the Ohio River, being attracted by the fertility of the soil. It was also said the river and rolling hills reminded them of their homeland along the Rhine River in Germany. That part of Ohio had an abundance of white oak trees, considered excellent for building material, and the settlers named their community WHITE OAKS, OHIO. Upon their arrival in this country, Grandfather and Grandmother Sagel joined this colony at White Oaks - clearing the land, building a home, cultivating their crops, and raising their family.

Grandfather Sagel lived to the age of 86. He died and was buried at Hamburg, Indiana about 1902 or 1903, after having spent the last years of his life with his son Henry Sagel, a farmer.

It is not definitely known if Grandfather Sagel had any brothers or sisters, though there was a married woman named Kate Sagel living at Glendale, Ohio, who is believed to have been our mother's cousin, thus leading to the belief that Grandfather may have had a brother.

GRANDMOTHER SAGEL. Grandmother Sagel died before any of us still-living grandchildren were born, and no information whatever concerning her is known other than the fact that she and Grandfather were the parents of at least four children -- named later in this report.

GRANDFATHER JOHN MENGELKAMP: Born and married in Germany, then migrated to America, settled with his bride in the German settlement of White Oaks, Ohio, where they became the parents of three children (2 sons and 1 daughter), also listed later. Both Grandfather and Grandmother Mengelkamp died before I was born, and no information concerning them is known.

It should be stated that the greatest migration of people from Germany to America occurred in the 1840-1850 decade, where as previously stated, they, many of them, proceeded to establish the community known as White Oaks (later annexed to and made a part of Cincinnati, Ohio.)

A study of available dates indicates a strong possibility that it was in this decade both sets of grandparents came to the United States and later became naturalized citizens.

OUR PARENTS

As previously stated, Grandparents Sagel had at least four children. Our mother, KATHERINE SAGEL, was born at White Oaks, Ohio, March 28, 1856, and died at Hamilton, Ohio, May 8, 1918, at the age of 62. She and father were married at Cincinnati, Ohio, about 1877 or 1878. The first three of their eight children were born at White Oaks; the other five at Oldenburg, Indiana.

So far as known, mother had one sister and two brothers. The sister, Anna, was married to a man named Ortman, and in later years lived at Oldenburg, Indiana; a brother, Henry Sagel, later moved to Hamburg, Indiana, where he operated a farm. The other brother - given name not known - had died, but his widow lived with her daughter (our cousin) Katie Sagel in Cincinnati, Ohio, after her husband's death.

Our mother had one very vivid recollection of her childhood at White Oaks, when during the Civil War a roving band of Union soldiers on horseback came looking for able-bodied men and boys who might be in hiding to avoid military service. After searching all the houses and out buildings without success they left, riding roughshod over the growing crops and taking with them everything they could use - money, food and other supplies.

GRANDPARENTS MENGELKAMP had three children - our father, JOHN A. MENGELKAMP, a brother LOUIS MENGELKAMP, and a sister, name not known. Our father was born in 1849 at White Oaks and died at Hamilton, Ohio, on July 17, 1920, at the age of 72. All three of Grandparents Mengelkamp's children were quite small when both parents died, and, in accordance with the custom of the times, the children were taken in and raised by three different families - father being raised by a ~~family~~ family named Pohlmann. The brother, LOUIS MENGELKAMP, lived with his wife at Peoria, Illinois until the time of their death. They had no children. I never knew father's sister, but while still a young man, accompanied my mother to Burkettsville, Ohio to visit a family named MADER. Years later I learned that this Mrs. Mader was a daughter of father's sister, though I never learned the sister's given name or married name.

FATHER AND MOTHER - - JOHN A. MENGELKAMP AND KATHERINE SAGEL - They were married at Cincinnati, Ohio, and had eight children. The following is a list of the eight children with dates of birth and death and approximate~~d~~ dates.

A study of available data indicates a strong possibility that it was in this decade both sets of grandparents came to the United States and later became naturalized citizens.

The other brother - given name not known - had died, but his widow lived with her daughter (our cousin) Katie Sagel in Cincinnati, Ohio, after her husband's death.

Our mother had one very vivid recollection of her childhood at White Oaks, when during the Civil War a roving band of Union soldiers on horseback came looking for able-bodied men and boys who might be in hiding to avoid military service. After searching all the houses and out buildings without success they left, riding roughshod over the growing crops and taking with them everything they could use - money, food and other supplies.

GRANDPARENTS MENCKELKAMP had three children - our father, JOHN A. MENCKELKAMP, a brother LOUIS MENCKELKAMP, and a sister, name not known. Our father was born in 1849 at White Oaks and died at Hamilton, Ohio, on July 17, 1920, at the age of 72. All three of Grandparents Menckelkamp's children were quite small when both parents died, and, in accordance with the custom of the times, the children were taken in and raised by three different families - father being raised by a family named Pohlmann. The brother, LOUIS MENCKELKAMP, lived with his wife at Peoria, Illinois, until the time of their death. They had no children. I never knew father's sister, but while still a young man, accompanied by mother to Garrettsville, Ohio to visit a family named MADER. Years later I learned that this Mrs. Mader was a daughter of father's sister, though I never learned the sister's given name or married name.

FATHER AND MOTHER - - JOHN A. MENCKELKAMP AND CATHERINE SAGEL - They were married at Cincinnati, Ohio, and had eight children. The following is a list of the eight children with dates of birth and death and approximated dates.

It is believed that the Mengelkamp family moved from White Oaks, Ohio, to Oldenburg, Indiana (about 50 miles west) about the year 1885 and lived there for the next 15 years. Grandfather Sagel accompanied the family to Oldenburg, where he lived alone on a small farm. About 1897 mother induced her father to move from the farm to town and thereafter he lived with us for the next three years. ~~until 1900~~, then went to live with Uncle Henry at Hamburg + died there in 1902.

Father had worked at the town's General Store for many years, but upon a change in ownership the new owners desired to employ their own relatives, and father became unemployed. The family thereupon held a public auction of household goods, and in January, 1900, moved to Hamilton, Ohio where father and the ~~other~~ older children obtained employment.

Some comment regarding the places named in this account -- White Oaks, Cincinnati, Oldenburg and Hamilton, will be found on separate sheets herewith.

Of the eight children above named, Dora never married, and Alvin and Charlotte were of course too young to do so.

Brother John worked on a farm during his youth, later learned the machinest trade, but for most of his life was in politics.

Sister Hattie married Fred Krogmann. Otto J. attended Holy Family School at Oldenburg 2 years, then continued through the eighth grade at St. Stephen's school Hamilton before entering Government service. Mayme married Edward Leugers, and Frances married Harry Herbers. Brother John (married Emma Fremgen) left 2 children - the others named raised larger families.

Otto married Agnes Ortiz

WHITE OAKS AND CINCINNATI, OHIO

Cincinnati, Ohio is located on the right bank of the Ohio River. Mill Creek runs through the city; to the East is the Little Miami River and to the West is the Great Miami River. During the late 1700's and early 1800's a number of colonies or settlements were established in this area. Columbia, the first settlement, was founded in 1788. Six months later another town was laid out, and in 1789 a third settlement called North Bend, was begun. The second of these settlements was called Losantville, but in 1790 the name was changed to Cincinnati and it was made the County Seat of Hamilton County. Cincinnati was incorporated as a town in 1802 and became a city 1819.

In 1811 the first steamboat on Western waters passed Cincinnati on the way down the Ohio River and opened a new era in the commercial life of the region. The Ohio River, formed by the confluence of the Monongahela and Allegheney Rivers at Pittsburgh, Penns., extends from Pittsburgh through Cincinnati to Cairo, Ill. where it empties into the Mississippi River, which in turn extends to New Orleans and the Gulf of Mexico. Up until about 50 years ago the Miami and Erie Canal also provided water transportation connections all the way north to the Great Lakes. Before the railroads came practically all commerce, both passengers and freight, between the North and South was carried by boat. Because of its strategic position Cincinnati soon became an important shipping point and was frequently referred to as "The Gateway to the South."

Steamboat building and manufacturing began to grow . and river commerce reached its peak in 1852 with 8,000 steamboat arrivals. But with the coming of railroads and the demand for faster service, river traffic assumed less importance, though continuing to be used for transport of freight of no-time value because of cheaper rates. Passenger boats also plied the river for many years. Today, though passenger travel by boat has all but stopped completely, larger and faster boats and barges carry more river freight than ever before.

The three small settlements named in the first paragraph consisted of the earliest arrivals in the Cincinnati region, but by no means the only ones. The early settlers came mainly from the Middle States, especially Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and from the Southern States of Kentucky and Virginia. By 1815 there were emigrants from all of the 17 other States of the Union and from most of the countries of Central and Western Europe.

It was, however, not until the middle of the 19th Century that Cincinnati began to have a large foreign-born population. Early immigrants came mainly from the Central and Northwestern European lands and by 1850 comprised nearly one-half the population of the city. Germans were the most numerous, followed by Irish, English, Scots and Welsh. These various nationalities tended for the most part to start small communities or settlements of their own. Thus, the German immigrants called their settlement WHITE OAKS. This and other small local settlements were later annexed to, and absorbed by, the city of Cincinnati.

Of all the foreign-born groups the Germans were the most rapidly assimilated. They built their own homes, cleared the land and began the development of agriculture and grape culture in the area, and also made significant contributions to the cultural life of the community, especially in music. By 1825 musical academies and choral societies were numerous. It was, however, the large influx of Germans in the decade between 1840 and 1850, and later, that promoted music most. A Sangerfest (music festival) held annually starting in 1849 was for many years one of the city's main attractions.

In the 1880's thousands of Italians and Russions moved to Cincinnati. By the 1890's the section of the city north of the canal was known as the "Over the Rhine Region," but since that time the German population has spread throughout most areas of the city.

WHITE OAKS, OHIO

The exact origin of this name is not known, but is generally believed to be due to the dense forests of white oak trees found growing in that area. These trees were highly prized as providing excellent building material, not only for the construction of homes but also for flooring, cabinets and furniture. The waste resulting from the conversion of these trees into lumber provided firewood for heating and cooking.

At White Oaks the two sets of grandparents settled after their arrival in America, and it was there our parents and their brothers and sisters were born, and our father and mother were married. (Of course, White Oaks was by that time only a local name for a part of Cincinnati where the marriage took place and where a record of vital statistics is kept.)

---oOo---

Most everyone had a large plot of ground to grow ~~vegetables of~~ fruits and vegetables, and to raise pigs, chickens and perhaps a dairy cow. Without refrigeration the settlers also learned how to preserve food and store it without spoilage to insure an adequate supply of food until harvesting began on the following years' crops. All the people were hard-working, self-supporting and had little time for "visiting" or gossip except after High Mass on Sundays.

There was one combination store-post office. It carried only necessary items - dress material yarn for knitting, men's work pants and shoes, and in the grocery line, sugar, salt, coffee, rice, pepper and a few other staple items; also brooms, skillets and cooking pots. But they had no luxury items, no meats or fresh meats subject to spoilage, etc.

The only other places of business besides the general store-post office were 2 beer saloons, a blacksmith shop for shoeing horses, a small notion and school supply store (which occasionally also provided overnight accommodations for the infrequent traveler who had to remain in town overnight. There was also a country doctor, who kept a flock of chickens to help out with the cost of living for himself and his wife. (Mother told us he used to charge $5.00 for delivering a baby, but in later years increased his fee to $10.00.)

It can therefore be seen that life for everyone was pretty grim, and that opportunities for employment for wages was almost nil. Father worked many years at the General Store, loading his horse-drawn vehicle with such items as the store carried and then driving into the country each day to serve the farmers' wives' needs for such things as they could not make or grow. In return for anything they bought- if they had no money - father would accept their eggs in trade.

Came the end of 1899 and a change in ownership of the General Store. The new owners declared their intention of hiring their own relatives, which left father without employment. No other work being available, our family held a public auction of household goods, then moved to Hamilton, Ohio - 50 miles east - in January, 1900. There father and the older children found employment.

The lack of educational and employment opportunities at Oldenburg seemed at one time to be spelling the doom of the town as a number of the younger generation left for other cities. But when I visited Oldenburg several years ago I found it had actually increased in population - new homes, new people, paved street, service stations, televions autos, etc.and everything was very modern. Even the general store carried fresh fruits and vegetables, silks, ribbons, picture post cards, souveniers, etc. - they even had an arrangement whereby a bride might order her wedding dress from a catalog, which order would then be air-mailed to a firm in New York and the completed dress would be delivered by air before the week had passed.

What surprised me most, however, was to see the new homes that had been built and occupied in recent years, with the population of Oldenburg increasing from 500 to 694 (1970 Census), so it is evident that Oldenburg is still very much alive.

Among the family names I recall in Oldenburg were the Ortmans, the Pineys, Hoelkers, Hackman, Borchelt, Enneking, Fisher, Suehres, Blanks, Mollawn, and possibly others. Albert Piney and Florentine Hoelker were classmates of mine during my 2 years at Holy Family School.

Though everyone in Oldenburg spoke German, and preferred that language, they were also conversant with the English language and could speak it when they desired to do so.

I remember my Grandfather Sagel well. I first met him on his farm at the edge of town, and he came to live with us in town for about 3 years from 1897 to 1900. His formal schooling was very limited, but he, too, could both read and write in German and English, and read all the newspapers and periodicals which we subscribed to. He was a self-taught man - he could do about everything and do it well - gardening, farming, taking care of livestock, preserving food, cooking, sharpening and using tools, etc. He was also adept in weaving willow baskets, cutting willows along the creek bank and weaving them into various shapes and sizes. He loved the outdoors and spent all his days outside the house, regardless of weather. He preferred to wear wooden shoes, which were easy to clean, easy to slip on and off, and never wore out. He could always find time to make things for me - such as whistles, pop guns, kites, fishing poles, etc. At one time we had a full-length photograph of him, but I do not know what became of it.

HAMILTON, OHIO

Hamilton, Ohio, the seat of Butler County, is located in southwestern Ohio, about 25 miles north of Cincinnati. Its population in 1900 (the year our family moved there from Oldenburg, Ind.) was about 30,000; the 1971 Census showed the population had increased to 64,058.

Fort Hamilton, the first of a chain of forts on the Miami and Maumee Rivers, was built in 1791, and was used against the Indians. A town named Fairfield was laid out adjoining the fort in 1794. The fort was abandoned in 1796 and about that time Fairfield was renamed Hamilton. Hamilton was incorporated as a village in 1810, and as a city in 1857. Across the river was Rossville, united with Hamilton in 1854.

Hamilton is located on the Great Miami River and in 1913 suffered a disastrous flood that cost millions of dollars in property damage and claimed hundreds of lives. A flood control project thereafter undertaken by the Government should serve to effectively prevent a similar disaster in the future.

At one time around the turn of the Century, Hamilton had waterway transportation by means of the Miami and Erie Canal, but the need for faster transportation by railroad eventually displaced the canal boat service.

Hamilton's strategic position was such that it soon became an important industrial city, with many shops and factories, such as paper mills, iron foundries, machine shops, tool shops, safe and lock companies, tin can factory, woolen mills, stove manufacturing and many others.

Hamilton was served by two railroads - the Pennsylvania and the B & O - until Railpax took over in May, 1971, when all rail passenger service was discontinued. Such was the popularity of passenger train service that in the late 19th century more than 70 passenger trains operated through Hamilton on railroads serving the city. Of these, the C.H. & D. line operated about 50 trains, and as late as 1887 boasted that one-month's passenger ticket sales amounted to 8,400.

The golden age of passenger service ended in 1945 at the termination of World War II, when gas rationing was lifted and fuel was available for automobile use. From that time on rail passenger service continued to decline in its appeal to travelers, until eventually ticket sales averaged only about 5 per day. Effective May 1971, Railpax discontinued all passenger service through Hamilton - only freight service surviving.

OLDENBURG, INDIANA

Oldenburg, Franklin County, Indiana, is a small town located about 50 miles west of Cincinnati, Ohio and 3 miles north of Batesville, Indianna, the nearest railroad point. Early census figures listed the total population of the town at about 500 -- all of them German Catholics. A written record of the founding of the town is not available, but it appears a German Order of Franciscan Monks selected the site for their purposes, purchased a plot of ground, and erected a large Monastery to house both priests and brothers. This was the first building.

Soon thereafter many of the German families who had previously settled at White Oaks, Ohio and its environs, having heard of this development, pulled up stakes, moved 50 miles westward and built their new homes within a 2 block radius adjacent to the Monastery, to form the new town of Oldenburg, a strictly German Catholic community. This, of course, necessitated further expansion of the Religious community and the Fathers quickly responded by building a separate church for the faithful; built at the same time was a rectory and a parochial school, all adjoining the Monastery.

With the new school came the need for teaching Sisters and an Order of German Nuns became interested. A large acreage across the street from the church property was purchased and they began the building of their Mother House - a large Convent housing many Sisters - one that is still being used (1971) each summer for summer Retreats for Sisters from throughout the country. Several of the Nuns comprised the teaching staff at Holy Family School. In time the Sisters acquired other buildings, such as a house for Novices, a power house, dairy barns, etc. Their livestock consisted of dairy cattle, chickens and horses - the latter used in the planting, cultivation and harvesting of their farm land, which work ~~prived~~ employment for Provided several local lay residents. The Sisters also set out their own burial ground. The power house provided electricity and power for both the Convent and the church property across the street, but the residents of the town were dependent on oil lamps for light.

The Mother Superior of the Convent was elected for a 6 year term. In recent years I met a Nun whose family name was Borchelt. She was then 86 years old, but still recalled that as a teenager she had attended my mother at the time of my birth. She had also served two 6 year~~s~~ terms as Mother Superior of the Convent. She has since passed away.

Most of the settlers built their homes on both sides of the street on all four sides of one large block, though a few residences were built outside this perimeter. Most people lived within 2 blocks of the church and school.

The unnamed streets were unpaved; there were no electric lights, no telephones, and of course, no automobiles, refrigerators, freezers, televisons radios nor entertainment of any kind.

43. Waechter -Schmidt -Hoelker House, 1864 and c. 1900, was built by Eberhard Waechter with a two-story Greek Revival porch. The Schmidts enlarged the house with a Queen Anne styled addition on the east side and cut off the lower portion of the porch to accomodate the town sidewalk. This distinctive balcony is the only one in town.

44. Dickman-Knights' Building, c. 1870, served as Phillip Dickman's casket factory. It has changed very little and now is the home of the Knights of St. John, a Catholic fraternal organization.

45. Horst Blacksmith Shop, c. 1870, is now a workshop for the Monastery. It also served as a residence.

46. Monastery Wall, 1894, along Water Street, separates the monastery yard from the secular world.

47. Old Stone Church, 1846-48, can be viewed from the courtyard of the Monastery. It was the first Holy Family Church and has been a monastery since 1866. Until the 1940's, the tower was crowned with a distinctive German onion dome or Zwiebelturm.

(North on Perlenstrasse)

48. Franciscan Monastery, 1894, built by local contractor George Holtel and Company, contained the Friars' living quarters, lecture hall, and visiting parlors. Additions were added on the south side in 1930 and 1936.

(East on Hauptstrasse)

49. Holy Family Church, 1862, is in the Gothic Revival style. Father Rudolf is buried in the crypt. The spire was redesigned and heightened around 1890. The fine original gothic altars have survived. The German stained-glass windows, depicting biblical scenes, we installed in 1919.

50. Holy Family School, 1932, was designed by Werking and Sons of Richmond, Indiana. The Jacobean Revival school occupies the site of the original 1868 school.

Oldenburg Preservation Association, Inc.

"Erbe"

The Oldenburg Preservation Association is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the continuation of the traditions, heritage, and historic fabric of the community of Oldenburg while promoting the redevelopment of significant properties in ways that both preserve their architectural and historical integrity and meet modern community needs.

HISTORIC OLDENBURG

The town was platted in 1837 by two German speculators who named the new town in honor of their home, the province of Oldenburg in Northern Germany. German Catholics coming from Cincinnati erected the first church, a log building, in 1837. Father Franz Joseph Rudolph was appointed Pastor of Oldenburg in 1844. [illegible] in turn, invited Mother Teresa Hackelmeier to establish the Convent in 1851. From this background evolved the Catholic triad of Holy Family Church, the Franciscan Monastary, and Immaculate Conception Convent and Academy. Unfortunately, the Monastery was recently closed.

The most distinctive acrhitectural aspect of Oldenburg is, of course, its many spires. Another significant aspect is the fact that 80 of the roughly 115 homes in the historic district were constructed prior to 1900. The oldest structures are constructed of stone or wood or a combination thereof. Brick structures were not built until after 1858 with bricks from the Gehring Brickyard at the south edge of town. The use of cast and wrought iron as well as the unusual work of master tinsmith Casper Gaupel provide the community with great visual richness. Many of the buildings in the community follow the Old World tradition of combining shop and residence under one roof.

The town of Oldenburg was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in March, 1983.

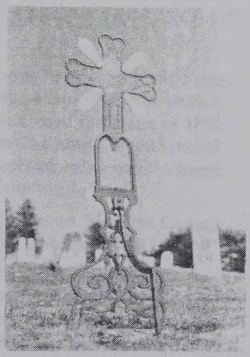
12. Holy Family Cemetery exhibits many reminders of the town's German heritage. The west section is the older with most stones in German and some iron grave markers. These are a German Catholic tradition and were manufactured locally. Note the chapel (12a) and the Calvary cross.

13. Convent Cemetery was created in 1900. All the markers are identical. Until April, 1923, the stones were inscribed in German. The Convent Mortuary Chapel (13a), 1900, was designed by Oscar Bohlen, while the Fatima Shrine (13b), 1950, was donated by the Henry Wolfrum family.



(South on Perlenstrasse)

14. Ortman Cottage, c. 1870. Note the saltbox roof and ornate porch.
15. Herman House, c. 1870, has an ornate, pressed-metal cornice. The frame addition was added c. 1900. Note the tile roof on the small summer kitchen behind the house.
16. Drees House, c. 1870, has retained most of its integrity.
17. Town Park was originally platted in 1837 as Public Square #3. The park was the site of the first Gehring Brickyard in 1858.
18. Hackman Store Barn, c. 1880, sheltered the store's huckster trucks and horses.

(West on Hauptstrasse)

19. Hackman-Munchel Store, 1851-62, was built by Anton Hackman and remains the largest private secular building in town. The facade is the masterpiece of tinsmith Caspel Gaupel. It was added around 1890 and reflects a strong Germanic character. The building now houses an antique shop. The Hackman-Munchel House, 1897, is attached to the west of the store. The present porch was added around 1910.

20. Sellmeyer-Burdick-Heppner House, c. 1860, is a double residence.

21. Sellmeyer-Burdick-Wagner Building, c. 1860, was built by Henry Sellmeyer as a shop/residence. J. F. Burdick added the decorative tin cornice with his name in German letters. Note the Mesker cast-iron store front. It continues to be a tavern.

22. Heppner House, c. 1850, has a timber frame with brick nogging. The present appearance dates to around 1900.

(East on Hauptstrasse)

24. Freihage Barn, c. 1900, was used by Joseph Freihage as a livery barn and later as a garage for his taxi service to Batesville.

25. Gaupel-Schmidt Tin Shop, c. 1870, was the workshop of the tinsmiths Gaupel and Schmidt until the 1920's. Its original ornate press-metal facade has, unfortunately been removed.

26. Dahmus Hoelker House, c. 1860 and 1900, originally was a one-story cottage built by Ben Dahmus, a wooden shoemaker. William Hoelker added the classical porch, the second story, and the pressed-metal oriel on the west side.

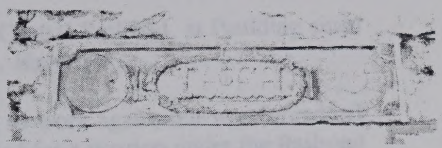
(South on Perlenstrasse)

28. Fette-Peine House, c. 1850 and 1855, was built by Francis Fette who manufactured cow and sheep bells. Frank Peine, a church decorator who specialized in murals, purchased the house in 1882 and altered it to its present appearance. The house is constructed of brick walls and a timber frame. The contrasting paint scheme emphasizes the architectural features of the house.

29. Francis Hohman Saloon, c. 1850, is still a saloon. Note the Gaupel skill in the cornice, windowhoods, and embossed "SALOON" sign added around 1890.

30. Town Hall, 1878, was built by local contractor George Holtel. It exhibits Italianate details, a bell tower, and a decorative brick cornice. The Eagle Fire Company was formed on February 22, 1870.

31. Huegel House, 1845, is the largest stone house in town. It is distinctive for its size, the blind mitered arches above the openings, and the decorated lintel. This inscribed lintel or Hausspruch bears the initials "I.H.E.H." of Joseph Huegel and his wife Elizabeth. Huegel was the proprietor of a tavern and inn which explains the moon and sun -- open day and night. This was also the town's first post office. Note the stone wall and brick sidewalk along Water Street.



(West on Wasserstrasse)

35. Paved Creek Bed, c. 1860, with the retaining wall is part of the old creek management program.

36.Stuerwald Building, c. 1860, originally was Stuerwald's general store and tavern. Note the unusual roofline and the shallow front porch. It is today a tavern and a restaurant.

37. Conrad Huerman House, c. 1840, is a timber-frame house with brick walls. Note the saltbox roof and the two front doors.

38. Gaupel House, c. 1850, originally stood directly across Water Street. It was moved around 1894 when the monestary was built. The timber-framed brick house was the home of Casper Gaupel, the tinsmith.

39. Henry Kleinmeyer House, c. 1840, also served as Kleinmeyer's shoe shop. Kleinmeyer was kept up all one night in July, 1863, repairing the boots of Morgan's Confederate Raiders.

40. Waechter's Cradle Shop, 1845, was built by wheelwright Eberhard Waechter, where he made wheat cradles and spinning wheels. It is constructed of a heavy timber frame and wattle and daub walls. Some of the joists are from the original (c. 1817) cabin of William George.

41. Water Street Stone Bridge, c. 1880, is a limestone structure with a perfect barrel vault.

42. Kuntz-Kellerman Store Building, c. 1840 and 1890, was a home, shop, and tavern. The oldest portion is of stone along Water Street. According to local legend, some of Morgan's Raiders drank beer here while their horses were being shod up the street. Kellerman Addition, c. 1895, bears an ornate cornice with "Kellerman" embossed in the pediment.

RETIRES AS AGENT OF NEW YORK CENTRAL

A.H. Rulman, who has been station agent of the New York Central Railroad, at Paulding since March 1914, recently tendered his resignation to Supt. T. J. Hayes.

Mr. Rulman suffered a heart attack in September, returning to work again, but was forced off the job in November by another serious illness. He has applied for a pension under the Railroad Retirement Act and expects the pension to apply from December 1st,1941.

"Tony", as he has been known for years by the patrons of the railroad, was born at Oldenburg, Indiana, on January 1st, 1877. He started railroading at the age of 15 on the old Lake Erie & Western ten mile branch running between St. Marys and Minster, Ohio, home of the famous Wooden Shoe brew.

The first message copied by "Tony" was a description of the Sullivan and Corbett fight-way back before the days of radio. This fight occurred in New Orleans in the year of 1892.

He worked as relief agent at Minster and from there he journeyed to Geyer City, Ohio, where he was the first operator to ever work there. His next step was Jackson, Ohio on the Ohio Southern, now known as the D.T.I. While on the old Southern he also worked at Summit Hill and Storms, Ohio.

The L.E. & W called him back and he worked as operator and yard clerk at St. Marys. He left St. Marys in 1895 and worked as operator and chief clerk at Portland, Indiana, on the same line now known as the Nickel Plate.

In 1897 he was promoted to freight agent of the L.E. & W. at Coldwater, Ohio. Here he met, and married, the present Mrs. Rulman. He left the L.E. & W. in 1900 and worked for the C.H. & D., now the B & O. as operator, blocking trains between Ivorydale and Winton Place. He also worked for this line at Hartwell, Ohio.

The L.E. & W. seemed to be his old love and he returned to this road in 1901. He again became agent at Coldwater and stayed there until 1902. Then he was promoted to Albany, Indiana, and remained there a year. Back to Coldwater and stayed there until 1905 when he left the L.E. & W. for good and hired with the Cincinnati Northern . He became joint agent of the Pennsylvania and Cincinnati Northern at West Manchester, in Preble county. In 1907 he was sent to Rockford as freight agent and was there until March, 1914.

Mr. Rulman relieved C.A. Woods as agent at Paulding, when there were six passenger trains operating through Paulding. From 1914 to December 1941 he represented the New York Central Lines here and lacked but a few months of rounding out 50 years of railroad service, which he regretted very much, as he had hoped to celebrate his 50th year of railroading on the job.

The former agent was the oldest agent in service on the Cincinnati Northern and several months ago the picture of Mr. Rulman, the oldest conductor, engineer, fireman and brakeman was taken at the Paulding station.

RETIRES AS AGENT OF NEW YORK CENTRAL CONTINUED

He raised 8 children, all in or near Paulding, Ernest, the oldest, worked with his father for nearly 28 years at the Paulding station, and is still employed there. Ralph is owner of the Defiance Plating Works at Defiance. Ed is located at Bryan and was recently promoted as maintainance superintendent for the H. & K. trucking company. Harold is a guard of the Defiance Screw Works. Mary is attending the International Business School at Fort Wayne. Elizabeth is the only one at home. Norman operates the Paulding Transfer & Coal Company and Eleanor, who is married, lives at Defiance.

No information is available as to who will replace Mr. Rulman, as agent at Paulding. The position will be offered to the oldest man in service, who is eligible. Acting E.T. Geyer, who is agent at Scott, will remain here until replaced by the successful applicant.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF OLDENBURG, IND.

In 1817, a pioneer settler, William George, of Tazewell, Virginia, filed a claim at Brookville, Ind., for a quarter section of land that later was to become the Town of Oldenburg.

In 1837, two land speculaters, Wm. Flaspholer and Wm. Ronnebaum, purchased the farmland from William George and platted the Town. The original plat consisted of 16 blocks of equal size, with provision made for parks, church and school grounds, cemetery and market place.

German immigrants, gathered in Cincinnati, purchased lots in the new Town, built a log church and started a school. The first post office opened in 1845. By 1849 they had adopted a constitution of 13 articles.

Father Franz Joseph Rudolph, newly ordained priest from Germany, arrived in Oldenburg in 1844, and began a religious and building program which still carries on as the Sisters of St. Francis Convent and Academy, the Oldenburg Monastery and the parish and church of the Holy Family.

The village became an incorporated Town in 1869, and is widely known as the "Village of Spires", an example of the Old World German heritage in America.

HEUERMANN

Explanation of term "Heuermann" which was the occupation of Herman Christian Reulmann..in the northern part of Germany, a farmer is not allowed to divide his farm. Only one of his sons (in some districts, it is the eldest, in some the youngest) is the heir of the farm, buildings, land and animals. If there is no son in the family, a daughter was the heir and she was called the heiring-daughter and her husband took the family name, because it was also the name of the farm. The other sons of the family not being the heir of the farm, had no other occupation than helping in the farm. And if they married, they lived with their families in small houses which belonged to the farm and had to pay rent by working in the farm. these people have been called Heuermann or Heurling or Heuerleute. In the time since 1800, hundreds and thousands of these people emigrated. In Germany, they had no property and nothing to lose and they took their chance in the New World.

Information was taken from church records at Messingen, Hanover, Germany by Margret von der Haar. She noted that the name Reulmann was sometimes spelled Ruelmann.

H.B. Rulmann, Sr. listed his parents as Christian and Mary Kotte' Rulmann in the Franklin Co., IN. Atlas.

FRANKLIN CO., IN. HISTORY
BERNARD J. KESSING

Every community owes its advance or retrogression to the spirit into its life and works by a few men in its midst to whom the other guidance when the way seems dark or the proper mode of action is. A leading spirit in his locality is Bernard J. Kessing, the well-known of Oldenburg, Franklin county, Indiana, and, be it said to his honor, is invariably given to the fostering of the civic interests of the community and never to the lessening of the common welfare.

Born in Oldenburg on January 18, 1871, Mr. Kessing is the son of John H. and Elizabeth (Brokamp) Kessing, being one of their twelve children: Francis, Henry, Anthony, Thressa(deceased), Joseph, Frances, Anna, Clements, Bernard, Edward, and Elizabeth. Francis is a priest of the secular order, ordained in 1875, and is at Cincinnati, and Frances entered the Convent of the Sisters of (text missing) in 1884, and is now known as Sister Francis Xaveria.

A native of Germany, John H. Kessing was born December and died February 28, 1910. He was the son of Bernard Kessing and (text missing) (Burdick) Kessing, who were German farmers and who came with their family. John Kessing was educated in the (text missing) Germany and after coming to America was a blacksmith for two years in Cincinnati whence he came to Oldenburg and established a blacksmith shop, which he maintained for about ten years. In September of 1865, he established a general supply store, which has remained in the family to the present day, now being operated by Bernard Kessing. The business has been in the family for fifty years.

On October 26, 1851, John Kessing married Elizabeth Brokamp, who was born in Germany February 23, 1833, the daughter of John Henry and Mary(Frecking) Brokamp. Henry Brokamp was a German Catholic, who brought his family to America and settled on a Franklin county farm. He and his wife were parents of three children, Elizabeth, Mary and Johanna. Elizabeth, the wife of John H. Kessing, is now living with the subject of this sketch and has the unique honor of being the oldest living resident of Oldenburg.

The gentleman to whom this article is devoted was educated in the common schools, and from his boyhood was employed in his fathher's store, learning the business. At that time, an older brother, Henry, was a partner with the father, continuing until 1893, and was succeeded by Bernard J. and Edward. In 1909, Edward withdrew from the business. In 1910 the father died. Bernard J. Kessing has conducted the business alone ever since. Mr. Kessing also is an undertaker, and is now the president of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Oldenburg, and was the president of the Oldenburg Electric Light Company until 1913.

On October 14, 1908, Mr. Kessing, married Helena Schrader, the daughter of Frederick and Hedwig(Holverscheidt)Schrader. She was born near Batesville, Indiana, became a trained nurse, graduating in 1900 from the German Deaconess hospital at Cincinnati, and followed her profession until her marriage. To this union two children have been born, Frances and Margaret. Frederick Schrader, the father-in-law of Mr. Kessing, was born in Germany on September 17, 1843, and died June 7, 1907. he took part in the German-Danish war, which was also the war with Austria 1860-66. He came to America at the age of twenty-seven and located in Batesville, where he was employed in the Boehringer and Schrader furniture factory. He became a prominent man in the community and for six years, beginning about 1897, was amember of the Indiana Legislature. At the time of his death, he was postmaster of Batesville. He and his wife are parents of the following children: Helena, Sophia, Hettie, Lula, Bertha, Olga, Frederick and Albert. Article found on pages 1392-1393.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, INDIANA HISTORY
JOSEPH F. HACKMAN

The successful business man is one who makes a point of supplying the people with clean, fresh, honest goods at reasonable prices, and with this principle steadfastly in view, Joseph F. Hackman, of Laurel, Franklin county, has built up an enviable reputation as a merchant. Numbered among his regular customers are the leading citizens within a radius of twelve miles, and it is invariably found that his patrons are his warmest friends.

Of sterling German ancestry, he was born in Franklin County, September 28, 1860, his father was one of the prominent early settlers of the town, residing there for many years. meeting his son(some text missing) He was a native of Germany (text missing) ties for which the sons of the (text missing) him a number of years ago, but (text missing) of character are perpetuated by his three sons--Joseph F., August and Henry.

Reared to manhood and educated in the school at Oldenburg, our subject was well prepared for the more arduous duties of life. In his father's store he mastered the details of business, laying the foundations of his future success. Carefully husbanding his earnings until he had about one thousand dollars, he came to Laurel in 1883, and bought out W.E. Pike, who had been associated in the grocery business with Thomas Brown. At the end of a year and a half, the ambitious young man purchased the interest of Mr. Brown, thus becoming the sole proprietor. Gradually adding to his stock as his means permitted, Mr. Hackman now has the finest and most completely equipped store in this portion of the county. His large, well lighted double store contains--in the departments devoted to groceries, dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes, hats, queensware, and everything found in a well appointed general store--a stock valued at about fifteen thousand dollars. The modern methods of advertising judiciously, presenting goods in an attractive manner, and catering to the varied tastes of the public, are largely responsible for Mr. Hackman's success, and the fact that he is always fair and just in the treatment of his customers wins them, for his friends.

Notwithstanding his extensive financial enterprises, our subject finds time to discharge his general public duties and in 1887, he accepted the office of township trustee, for the accommodation of his neighbors, serving in that capacity until 1894. Politically he is affiliated with the Democratic party.

The beautiful modern home of Mr. Hackman is presided over by his wife, formerly Miss Anna Heeb, of Connersville, Indiana. Her father, William Heeb, is a resident of that place at this time. The only child of our subject and his wife is Freddie J., whose birth occurred March 10, 1892. The Hackman family are identified with the Catholic church, but their friends are confined to no particular denomination.

Free Delivery Service Suffers From Action of Unfaithful Servant in Favoring Contractors to the Detriment of Competitors.

Washington dispatch: Charges that the purchase of supplies for the free delivery service have been made with a view to individual profit are made in the annual report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow. On this point Mr. Bristow says:

"An investigation, which is still in progress, has shown that for a number of years supplies for the free delivery service have not be[illegible] purchased with an eye single to t[illegible]blic interests. Both in the matter of quality and the cost of equipment the ruling motive has been individual gain. This applies to articles furnished under regular contra[illegible] such as street collection boxes and c[illegible]riers' satchels, as well as to those bought in the open market under exigency privilege, which has been much abused.

Service Is Corrupted.

"Favored contractors, abetted by a trusted but unfaithful official, have corrupted the public service. A and thorough reformation will dertaken along the line of equipment with the prospect sult of improved service at cost. Fraudulent contracts ha abrogated. LAND LAW CHAN[illegible]

President Selects Boar[illegible]o Suggest Necessary Amendments.

Washington dispatch: An advisory committee consisting of Commissioner General Richards of the general land office, Prof. Newell, engaged in the reclamation of arid lands, and Prof. Pinchot, chief of the forestry division of the agricultural department, has been chosen by the president for an investigation of the land laws, with a view to recommending such changes as may be considered necessary better to protect the public domain and prevent abuses. There is a widespread divergence of opinion, especially among congressmen who have made the subject a study, as to the cause of the scandals frequently cropping out, and many conflicting remedies are being proposed. To get a comprehensive grasp and be prepared to act intelligently the president has selected this committee, and its report will have an effect in shaping his consideration and disposition of such bills as may come to him from congress, if it does not have the wider scope of shaping congressional action.

Wants Republican Convention.

Washington dispatch: Chicago is to have a new competitor for the Republican national convention. New Orleans is in the field and members of the Republican national committee have been informed that the city has obtained pledges of $30,000 to defray the costs of holding the convention there. Efforts will be made to swell the fund to $50,000 before the meeting of the committee. Should New Orleans be prepared to outbid Chicago, it will have a small chance of getting the convention, but with the money offer equal, Chicago's exceptional accommodations and advantageous geographical location, together with a consideration of climate, will bar New Orleans.

Philippine Defenses.

Washington dispatch: If President Roosevelt can prevail Congress will make liberal appropriations before the session is out for the adequate defense of the Philippines. General Young, chief of staff, General Tasker Bliss and Rear Admiral E. C. Taylor pored over charts in the office of the chief of staff in the afternoon.

SENATE AND HOUSE WHILE AWAY THE TIME

Representatives Refuse to Adjourn Extraordinary Session and Upper Branch Members Loaf.

Tuesday, Dec. 1.

The Senate was in open session thirty minutes. After receiving a number of bills, resolutions and petitions and after spending some time in executive session, the Senate adjourned until Friday. A majority of the bills offered were for private pensions and most of the petitions for the expulsion of Mr. Smoot (Rep., Utah). As usual Mr. Cullom (Rep., Ill.) called up the Cuban reciprocity bill, but as no one manifested a desire to address the Senate on it, the bill went over. Senator Penrose introduced a resolution authorizing the committee on postoffices and post roads to request the Postmaster General to send to the committee all papers connected with the recent investigation of the Postoffice Department, and if necessary make further investigation. Senator Morgan introduced resolutions authorizing the committee on inter-oceanic canals to investigate the part alleged to have been tak[illegible]y the transcontinental railroads [illegible] isthmian canal matter and al[illegible] into the [illegible] canal commission. The Senate went into executive session at 12:30 and at 1:40 o'clock adjourned.

The time in the House was chiefly consumed in a tariff debate. When Mr. Payne had offered a motion to adjourn over until Friday, Mr. Williams, the minority leader, suggested that they would like about thirty minutes on a side for debate, whereupon Mr. Payne asked the consent of the House. The speaker, announcing the request, said: "The gentleman from New York, at the suggestion of the gentleman from Mississippi asks unanimous consent that there be thirty minutes talk on a side." Mr. DeArmond (Dem., Mo.) in a humorous vein criticised the majority, while Mr. Williams (Miss.) and Mr. Gaines (Tenn.) dwelt on the tariff policy of the Republicans. On the Republican side Mr. Hepburn (Iowa), Mr. Grosvenor (Ohio) and Mr. Hemenway (Ind.) replied, defending the policy of their party, the latter two responding to charges of dereliction made by the minority against the majority. Representative Robinson of Indiana introduced a bill making the Chinese expulsion law applicable to the Japanese. At 1:10 the House adjourned.

Appeal to Roosevelt.

Washington dispatch: President Roosevelt has received a telegram from the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners strongly urging him to protect the rights of the miners who had been ordered to leave the Telluride district in Colorado on penalty of imprisonment. The matter is in the hands of the authorities of Colorado and it does not appear that the federal government properly can take action.

STRUBE SURRENDERS TO MISSOURI POLICE

Murderer of Alice Henninger Says That Jealousy Induced Him to Commit Crime.

Macon, Mo., dispatch: Frederick Strube surrendered himself to Chief of Police James Woods and confessed that he murdered Alice Henninger, his sweetheart, near Topeka, Ill., the night of Nov. 14. While the police of many cities had been hunting for him and posses with bloodhounds were tracking him from Illinois to Missouri Strube was working for a Macon county farmer.

After an hour of persistent questioning Strube confessed the murder to City Attorney N. M. Lacey. The attorney then put the direct question, "Why did you commit the murder?"

"Because I loved her and she played me false," answered the prisoner.

Strube began his story sullenly and half defiantly, but as he got to his real or imaginary wrongs at the hands of the girl he loved he talked loud and vehemently, emphasizing his remarks by quick motions of one hand.

"She agreed with me," said Strube, "that neither was to go with anybody else. She pretended to like me at first, and I was very happy. Then she [illegible] her sist[illegible] wedding in Iowa, where she met a man, John Deere. At first she would tell me when Deere would call and then I began getting the cold shoulder and saw she was breaking the agreement. Sometimes she would refuse to let me call, saying she had other engagements, when she had none at all."

Coming to the tragedy, Strube said: "We were coming home from a box social at the church Sunday night. After letting her sister out we drove on. I began pressing her for the reason of her bad treatment. She laughed at me and told me she could not marry me, because her sister would not let her. Something came over me, I don't know what. I was wild with grief. I struck her on the head with a monkey wrench. We fell out and there it was finished up."

YOUTH INVADES WOMAN'S BALL

College Boy in Dresses and a Coed Are Suspended for Prank.

Ann Arbor, Mich., special: An upper classman of the University of Michigan, who in the disguise of a negress got into a fancy dress party where all the guests were supposed to be women, was suspended from the university with the coed that took him to the ball. The party was given by the Woman's league of the university just before Thanksgiving and men were not allowed to attend. The man in question was escorted by one of the prominent coeds and did not arouse suspicion till he began to dance. When Dean Jordan espied the negress she concluded the dancer was not graceful enough for a woman and forced "her" to unmask. The double suspension was the result.

STATE'S EVIDENCE GOES WRONG

Witnesses for Prosecution Give Stories Aiding Prisoner.

Cadillac, Mich., special: Seven witnesses for the state were examined in the McKnight case and the testimony of all was in favor of the prisoner. The defense has claimed all along that Mrs. McKnight procured strychnine to kill mice and the testimony tended to prove this point. It was brought out that John Murphy was a sufferer with asthma and used a medicine he himself had procured. The people's side will be finished by Saturday night.

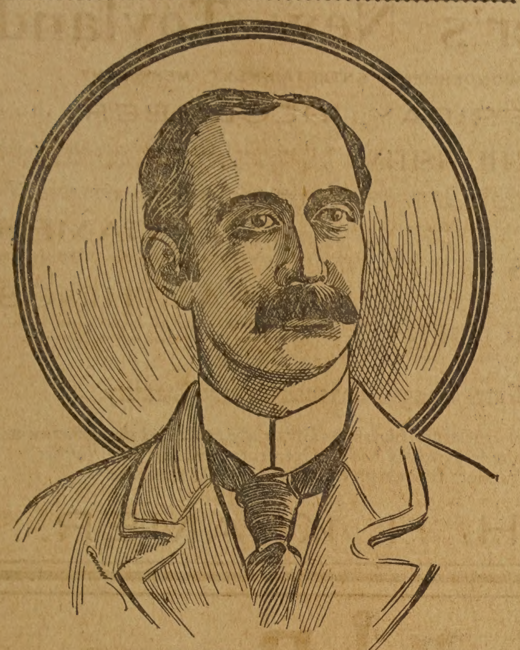
POST OFFICE OFFICIAL WHO PROBED DEPARTMENT FRAUDS



JOSEPH BRISTOW

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, whose report of his investigation of the postoffice frauds was made public in Washington recently, first gained fame by his investigation of the postal frauds in Cuba three years ago, which resulted in the prosecution of Neely and Rathbone. Mr. Bristow is from Kansas. He is publisher of the Ottawa (Kas.) Herald and formerly was editor of the Salina Republican. He has been secretary of the Republican state central committee of Kansas and was private secretary to Gov. Morrill when President McKinley appointed him fourth assistant postmaster general in 1897. He is 43 years old and was born in Kentucky.

WANTS TO MEET KING.

Mrs. Ogden Goelet Seeks Other Worlds to Conquer.

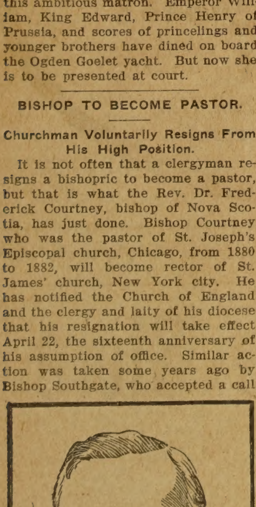
There being no more worlds for her to conquer here, Mrs. Ogden Goelet has sailed for London, to carry on her social conquests there under the auspices of the Dowager Duchess of Roxburghe and her only daughter, the new Duchess. [illegible] sel Mrs. Goelet had [illegible] ied by [illegible]

Mrs. Goelet will meet the Roxburghes in Paris and go with them to Floors castle. After a short rustication there she will go to London and lease a princely dwelling. This will mark the beginning of her social campaign. She will aspire to nothing less than the "Marlborough" set. Nor will Mrs. Goelet meet the King for the first time. Few European Kings have failed to meet or be entertained by this ambitious matron. Emperor William, King Edward, Prince Henry of Prussia, and scores of princelings and younger brothers have dined on board the Ogden Goelet yacht. But now she is to be presented at court.

BISHOP TO BECOME PASTOR.

Churchman Voluntarily Resigns From His High Position.

It is not often that a clergyman resigns a bishopric to become a pastor, but that is what the Rev. Dr. Frederick Courtney, bishop of Nova Scotia, has just done. Bishop Courtney who was the pastor of St. Joseph's Episcopal church, Chicago, from 1880 to 1882, will become rector of St. James' church, New York city. He has notified the Church of England and the clergy and laity of his diocese that his resignation will take effect April 22, the sixteenth anniversary of his assumption of office. Similar action was taken some years ago by Bishop Southgate, who accepted a call to Zion church in New York city, and there have been numerous instances of the kind in England.



BISHOP FREDERICK COURTNEY

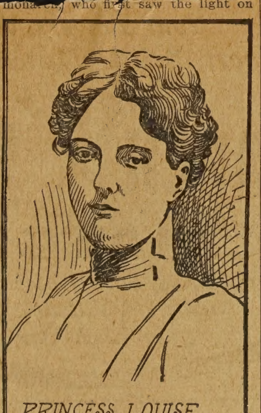
Diamond Mines of the World.

It is estimated that about 28,000 people are employed in the diamond mines throughout the world. In past centuries 60,000 people were working in some single Indian mines at one time, and perhaps that statement is not exaggerated, since with modern machinery one miner can now accomplish as much as twenty who used the primitive methods. The total value of all the diamonds in the world undoubtedly exceeds $1,000,000,000.

CHOSEN AS ALFONSO'S BRIDE.

Daughter of Late Count of Paris to Be Queen Consort of Spain.

Princess Louise, who, it is said, has been chosen by the queen-mother as the future wife of King Alfonso XIII. of Spain, is a daughter of the late count of Paris, a claimant for the French Throne. She was born at Cannes Feb. 24, 1882, making her four years older th[illegible] the y[illegible] Spanish mona[illegible] who first saw the light on the 17th of May, 1886. The princess is a charming young lady, and practically has been educated for the throne. Her mother, who is said to be extremely wealthy, can afford to give Louise a large wedding portion. The count of Paris, it will be remembered, served in the American civil war as an aid-de-camp to Gen. McClellan.



PRINCESS LOUISE

Taft's Start in Life.

Very few are aware that William H. Taft, prospective secretary of war and now governor of the Philippines, got his start in life through performing the dangerous feat of whipping an editor. His father, after a distinguished public career, had just formed a law partnership in Cincinnati, when a weekly paper attacked his private life in a scandalous way. The young man, fresh from Yale, at once called at the newspaper office and in a few minutes had polished off his man in fine style. The exploit called public attention to the victor and he was shortly appointed to public office. He has steadily advanced in prominence ever since and now is to be secretary of war, a position which his father once held.

Claims to Know the West.

While talking with Senator Patterson of Colorado the other day Senator Scott of West Virginia corrected the former in regard to some circumstances connected with early days in the West. Mr. Patterson laughingly objected to being set right by a tenderfoot, but the West Virginian said: "Why, in my eyes you are a good deal of a tenderfoot yourself. Remember that along in the '50's I drove a big ox team out of Leavenworth, across the Kansas prairies into Colorado. I camped for sixteen months in a canvas tent at what is now Central City, where Senator Teller owns a fine hotel. I knew the West and Western men before many of my present colleagues in the senate had crossed the Mississippi.

KNOWS NAUGHT OF KISSES.

Thirty-two-Year-Old Massachusetts Man Has Unique Record.

In North Scituate, Mass., Alfred Herbert Mott has lived for thirty-five years and never yet has succumbed to the seductions of the red, ripe, cranberry-colored lips of Cape Cod maidens, he says.

He believes he has received a divine mission and has decorated his lawn and house with inspiring messages, by means of which he hopes to lead the wayward to see light. As yet, however, he has not succeeded in gathering around him a congregation, for the hard-headed Cape Cod residents are not easily gulled.

There is a dim suspicion in the minds of some that the new prophet is making a virtue of necessity, for one of his texts reads:

"Whosoever findeth a wife, findeth a good thing."

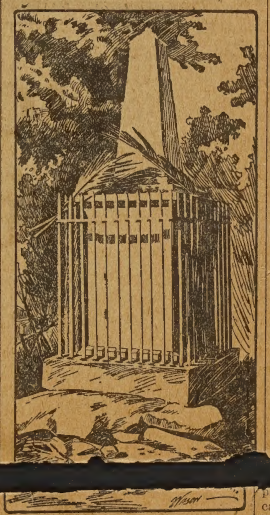
By which it would appear that opportunity is all the young prophet requires.

His father, Otis Mott, with whom he lives alone, has not adopted his ways of thinking. The old man, hale and hearty at 84, has had a varied matrimonial experience. He has outlived four wives.

THREATEN GRAVE OF DRAKE.

Proposal to Disinter Remains of Author of "The American Flag."

The little graveyard at Hunt's Point, on the Westchester shore of Long Island Sound, New York, lies directly in the line of two streets which it is proposed to cut through the old Hunt estate as a means for throwing open the property for building purposes. In this cemetery are buried many members of the Hunt and Tillou families, whose descendants have owned all the land on the point and most of that on the neck until within a few years; and there also is buried Joseph Rodman Drake, author of "The American Flag." It has been suggested that Drake's body be disinterred and laid beside that of Fitz Greene Halleck, his bosom friend and literary contemporary, at Guilford, Conn.



The people of The Bronx who live in that vicinity are much opposed to the plan for removing the poet's bones.

Railroad Ties of Leather.

The invention of a leather crosstie, designed to take the place of sleepers made of wood, is attracting attention in railroad circles.

F. W. Dunnell of West Warren Mass., is the inventor. In the manufacture of his crosstie, which weighs 125 pounds, the scrap leather from shoe shops is taken into a disintegrator, ground fine, subjected to a refining process and molded.

The tension of the molding machine can be so regulated that ties hard enough to take a spike or ties through which a spike cannot be driven can be turned out.

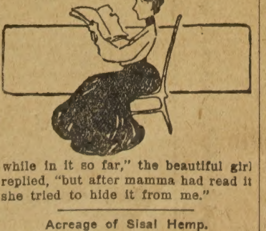
Good Market for Ferns.

The industry of picking ferns in New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and shipping them to the Boston market has grown wonderfully. The ferns command one cent a stock there, and are used in thousands by the leading florists. The demand is always ahead of the supply, and for this reason many families who have ferns on their farms and pasture lands have a market always awaiting them.

Hunting for the Interesting Part.

"What on earth do you find interesting in that stupid book?" her friend asked.

"I haven't found anything worth while in it so far," the beautiful girl replied, "but after mamma had read it she tried to hide it from me."



Acreage of Sisal Hemp.

Not more than 350 square miles of territory is under cultivation in henequin or sisal hemp, yet on this small area is produced the fiber that literally binds the wheat harvests of the world. It is used alike in Minnesota and Argentina, in Siberia and Egypt.

CONTRIBUTIONS FROM SPECIAL CORRESPONDENTS THROUGHOUT THE STATE

FOR MONUMENT AT VICKSBURG

Recommendation of Indiana Commission to Governor Durbin.

The members of the Indiana commission that went to Vicksburg to select sites for the individual markers to indicate the positions of the Indiana regiments, through its president, Harry C. Adams, has informally reported to Governor Durbin. A suitable monument, in addition to the individual markers, was recommended, and Governor Durbin will ask the next legislature for an appropriation to erect it. It is the sense of the commission that the monument shall be placed in Union avenue, the street through the battlefield which shows the line of the Union forces. Confederate avenue, which will show the position of the Confederate forces, will be constructed and left to be commemorated by the states of the Confederacy. The members of the commission are H. C. Adams, Twenty-sixth Indiana; E. L. Semans, Wabash, Eighth Indiana; A. B. Crampton, Delphi, Fortieth Indiana; M. M. Lacey, Sixty-ninth Indiana; Philip Lester, Little York, and T. M. Hardy, Pendleton of the Sixteenth Indiana.

PLANS WAR AGAINST BEETLES

State Geologist Will Begin Campaign of Extermination.

State Geologist Blatchley will begin the biggest crusade against a pest ever attempted in any state, it being against 12,000 varieties of beetles. Three years, it is thought, will be required to catch specimens of the varieties for study. After specimens of the species are caught, they will be mounted. Mr. Blatchley expects to prepare the farmers with information as to how to exterminate the bugs. The insects will be catalogued and the catalogue distributed. A chart will show in what part of the state each specie is found. What each kind feeds on will be explained. This classification is a s[illegible] quel to the State Geologist's study [illegible] the orthoptera, which took eighte[illegible] years.

Several colored laborers employ[illegible] on the Big Four railway improvemen[illegible] at Weisburg, were seriously injured [illegible] the explosion of a log which they we[illegible] burning in a fireplace of their cabin. [illegible] tore the log and fireplace in fragments and shook the cabin from its foundations. James Hayes, Robert Green and William Bailey were struck by flying debris, and the latter was rendered unconscious by a blow upon the head. It is believed that the log was charged with gunpowder by some irate farmer whose woodpile had suffered from depredations.

Followers of Dowie.

Alexander Dowie, the alleged prophet, has several earnest followers in Newcastle and in the country near there. The Newcastle families buy their groceries and similar supplies in Dowie's city of Zion, near Chicago. His converts in the country are following his teachings to the extent that they have ceased to eat pork and for a time would not have a hog on the farm. The revenues of the farm were cut down to such an extent, however, that the family has resumed feeding hogs for the market, but will not have pork on their own table.

Valuable Turkey.

Two citizens of Crown Point were rewarded on Thanksgiving day by a mere chance. Cyrus Kettring was presented with a turkey by his employer, D. A. Root, lumberman, and on dressing it found a gold nugget as large as a navy bean secreted in the crop of the fowl, which no doubt picked it up on the farm where it was raised, north of here. This discovery may lead to some prospecting in that neighborhood. Oscar Horst fared better in a financial way by finding a pearl, said to be worth $40, in a dish of oysters.

Corn Shucking Record.

Oscar Legrange, near Princeton, has made a record for corn shucking and cribbing. In less than ten hours he shucked 120 bushels in the field and cribbed it. Legrange claimed he put up 121 bushels in a day last year. His story was not believed, and he offered to prove that he could do it. The work was done under the eyes of a committee of farmers, and a record was kept as the work progressed.

To Get a Large Factory.

A committee from the Commercial Club of Mentone raised $6,000 in four hours to get the H. Jensen glove factory of Chicago, which is leaving the city on account of labor troubles. The firm promises to be in operation by December 15. In addition to the above bonus the club will pay the transportation of the factory to Mentone.

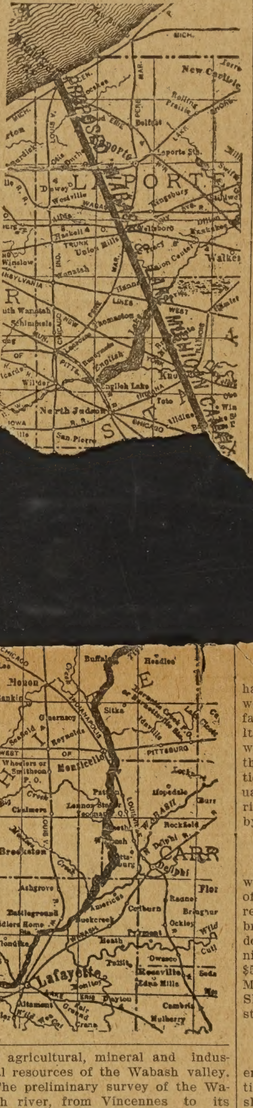
DIRECT WATER ROUTE FROM CHICAGO TO GULF

Efforts to Be Made to Have Congress Assist in Work on the Wabash Canal.

Frank O. Fitton, president, and other officers of the Wabash River Improvement association, have begun their "campaign of education" relative to the opening of a waterway from Lake Michigan to the Gulf of Mexico, and in connection with this work Mr. Fitton, who lives in New Harmony, is having prepared a wall map which will show the course of the waterway and the region that will be directly benefited. The association is having printed, too, a report which will show the agricultural, mineral and industrial resources of the Wabash valley.

WABASH CANAL ROUTE.



The preliminary survey of the Wabash river, from Vincennes to its mouth, will within thirty days be passed upon by the engineering department of the government. If a favorable report is made on it, the association expects to get an appropriation from congress to begin work on the waterway.

"With the famous block coal now being mined extensively in the Wabash valley fields," Mr. Fitton said, "from which in its raw state and without coking the best bessemer steel is made, and with a waterway leading from the great iron ore beds of Lake Superior direct to the heart of this coal field, the question of cheap transportation for the raw products and the question of cheap fuel, direct upon the banks of this same water course, and the question, again, of the cheap transportation by water from the furnaces which will be established in this coal field direct to the Gulf of Mexico, and thence to the four corners of the globe, is one that appeals to the highest business instinct of every investor.

"With the construction of the Wabash & Lake Michigan canal the great elevators of Duluth and Chicago can load their grain in barges at the elevator and from thence to the Gulf of Mexico through this great waterway, there to be transferred to ocean-going vessels and carried to the markets of the world."

NEGLECT CAUSES MAN'S DEATH

Inmate in Reformatory Is Deserted by His People.

Grief over the indifference of his people to his fate is believed to have hastened the death of John Long, a convict at the Indiana reformatory. He died of consumption. Long was 21 years old and was sent up from Evansville to serve a term for larceny. Some time ago Dr. Sharp notified Supt. Whittaker that the man could not live long and recommended that his name be brought up for parole, in order that he might die at home. The case was brought up at the next meeting of the board and the parole was granted. Long wrote an enthusiastic letter to his people, telling them of the clemency he had received, and, expecting that they would send for him, he waited patiently day after day, but no one came. He finally became disheartened, and with the passing of his hope life ebbed rapidly.

POOR FARM KEEPER PROTESTS

Objects to the Place Being Turned Into a Morgue.

John Tomlinson, aged 86, of Summitville, was taken from that town to the county infirmary at Alexandria and died in three days. He was afflicted with heart trouble. The keeper of the poor farm is protesting on having a morgue made of his place, as he alleges that this kind of procedure is growing with some township trustees, in one instance a woman dying in four hours after arrival, another in a few days, and a number of negroes from Alexandria living but a few weeks. The reason of this is, if they die in the infirmary the county, and not the township, must pay for their burial. The county commissioners will be appealed to.

The well is situated in the heart of the producing territory and is surrounded on all sides by big producers.

Sick Blood

Feed pale girls on Scott's Emulsion.

We do not need to give all the reasons why Scott's Emulsion restores the strength and flesh and color of good health to those who suffer from sick blood.

The fact that it is the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil, rich in nutrition, full of healthy stimulation is a suggestion as to why it does what it does.

Scott's Emulsion presents Cod Liver Oil at its best, fullest in strength, least in taste.

ASHBURNHAW, ONTARIO, TESTIFIES TO THE GOOD QUALITIES OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy.

Respectfully yours,

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Thedford's Black-Draught cures biliousness, dyspepsia, colds, chills and fever, bad blood, headaches, diarrhœa, constipation, colic and almost every other ailment because the stomach, bowels liver and kidneys so nearly control the health.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

OLDENBURG.

John Burdick, of Cincinnati, came here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hackman and to visit friends.

Neighboring towns were strongly represented here Monday, owing to the funerals of Ben Moellers and Mrs. Hackman.

Henry Grimme, of Metamora, made business calls here Monday.

Mrs. Mary Agnes Hackman, who died suddenly last Thursday morning, was interred in the Catholic cemetery here Monday morning, after solemn requiem mass at 10 o'clock. Deceased was the wife of A. A. Hackman and mother of four children, who are left to mourn the loss of an indulgent wife and mother. In her death the neighbors and many friends lose a kind and generous friend. Always of a pleasant disposition her sudden death is deeply deplored by everybody and the sincerest sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband, children and relatives. R. I. P.

From a distance were present at the funeral of Mrs. Hackman the following: Mrs. Mary Ruhlman, of Minster, O., Mrs. A. Duber, of St. Louis, Mo., Jos Hackman, of Connersville, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hackman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flodder and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. Crosby and family, of Rushville, Ind., Miss Anna Duwel, Miss Carrie Benzinger and Mrs Chas. Becker, of Covington, Ky., Mr and Mrs. J. Cartuvellus, Mrs. B. Duwel, Mrs. Wernke, Mrs. Brink, Miss Emelia Flodder, Miss Rosa Haverkos, Mr. H Hartman, Mr. J. Bergewisch, Mr. Frank Reiter, Mrs. Burdick and Mr. J. Burdick, of Cincinnati, and A. J. Hassmer, of Lawrenceburg.

This community was shocked Friday afternoon when it was learned that Ben Moellers, a highly respected citizen of our town, was fatally injured at the Holtel saw mill, where he was employed. At about 1:15 he was in the act of placing a rope around a large oak log, and getting on the ground to reach under the log and get the rope, the log, which was lying on a knot and just about balanced, rolled on his head, crushing his skull. It took his fellow workers about ten minutes to remove the log from the unfortunate man, as other logs had rolled against one which pinioned Mr. Moellers. After breaking a kant hook in three pieces in their frantic endeavor to move the log, a team was hitched to it and pulled aside. He was taken to his home and Dr. Vogt was called, but he was past assistance and died a little after 5 o'clock. His death was sudden and painless to him, but how shocking and painful to his loving wife and children and acquaintances! Burial took place in the Catholic cemetery here Monday, after requiem mass in the Holy Family church at 7:30. Deceased was born and reared in Oldenburg, was well known and highly respected, and had the confidence of everybody with whom he came in touch. He was a devout Christian, a loving and providing husband and father and a kind neighbor, but he has now gone to his reward. The grief-stricken wife and family have the universal sympathy of everybody. In his death the HERALD also loses its most faithful correspondent, as he had been a regular weekly contributor almost since the beginning of its publication and his familiar writing will be greatly missed by us. He was 54 years, 1 month and 1 day old. May he rest in peace.

Mr. A. A. Hackman and children desire through these columns to express their sincerest thanks to the neighbors and everybody who so kindly and nobly assisted us during our sad affliction—the death and burial of our beloved wife and mother. Their acts of kindness and assistance will never be forgotten by

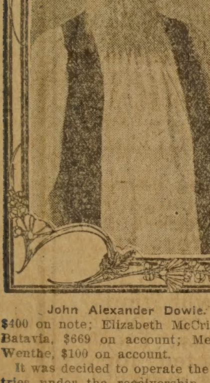
RECEIVER NAMED FOR DOWIE'S ZION CITY

Clamoring Creditors Demand Satisfaction for Judgments Secured Against "The Restorer"—Trouble Alleged to Be Due to Failure of Eastern Trip.

Control of Zion City's industries and all to which John Alexander Dowie holds title has passed to the federal courts. Alarmed by rumors of an impending crash creditors went before Judge Kohlsaat at Chicago and he appointed Fred M. Blount and Albert D. Currier to take possession of the industries in the town.

The bankruptcy proceedings were based on the allegation that Dowie was insolvent. The petitioners declared he had committed an act of bankruptcy by making a preferential payment on Nov. 2 to the E. Streeter Land company. The amount was $3,770. The creditors whose petition resulted in the appointment of receivers are: H. B. Smith Machine company, $400 on note; Elizabeth McCrimmon, Batavia, $669 on account; Meyer & Wenthe, $100 on account.



John Alexander Dowie.

It was decided to operate the industries under the receivership, but to close the bank pending an investigation.

"Zion is prosperous and fears no creditors," Dowie asserted. "There will be no difficulty in meeting any and all claims. Money is now at hand to satisfy all creditors. Everything is flourishing. At a moment's notice I can collect any funds needed."

"I [illegible] take charge of all industries," Receiver Currier said.

"It would be hard to stop our activities now," said Dowie. "This must not be done if it can be avoided. Large markets are dependent upon our outputs and many would be placed in want."

Dowie paused a moment, then continued:

"Zion has debts, as all large financial institutions have. Heavy pressure comes and delay is asked. Then excitable persons cry out that Zion is on its last legs. But we can pay a hundred cents on the dollar and there is not a claim that cannot be met at reasonable notice. This receivership is a hard blow. It stirs up suspicions in malicious minds and may lead to persecution."

NEW YORK TRIP BLAMED.

Alleged Failure of Eastern Mission Made Creditors Uneasy.

The storm which has broken upon Zion gathered in New York. When the Restoration Host failed to win converts to the Zion banners in the New York crusade the creditors of Dowie put themselves on inquiry. They secured the information that the expense of the Eastern trip was not far from $300,000. They became suspicious that much of this money was taken from the resources of the different industrial enterprises of Zion City.

One or two creditors became uneasy two weeks before the journey began. One filed a suit on Oct. 3. The amount of the claim was less than $500, and Dowie apparently gave the action no consideration. The suit was brought by John A. Raebling's Sons.

On Oct. 12, two days before the departure of the hosts, Marshall Field & Co. filed a suit for $5,000. Again no attention was paid by Dowie or his advisers. On Oct. 14, the day the trains left Zion City, a third suit, for $2,583, by B. H. Howell Sons & Co., was begun.

The business community at large, however, looked upon these suits as efforts to collect from an unwilling but a solvent debtor. Dowie, they figured, would sooner be sued than pay over money which he wished to handle for a few weeks longer. No other suits were filed then.

Had Dowie come back from New York with cash and converts there is no reason to believe that additional suits would have been filed or that he would have delayed settling these three claims.

But when he came back with lessened prestige there was activity among all creditors. They pressed their bills upon him on Nov. 1. They insisted on immediate settlement. His deacons went out and asked for time. Everywhere they were refused. Deacon Arthur Newcome made the assertion that he was convinced that the creditors acted with mutual understanding—that they had agreed to make no extensions.

Dowie did not have the cash to pay. When requests for time proved futile he drew back and waited, apparently "for something to happen." Something did happen. It took the form of suit after suit in the Lake County Circuit court. From Nov. 8 to Nov. 27 hardly a day passed without the filing of a suit. On Nov. 28 forty suits had been filed for a total of $67,945.

Not until Nov. 28, did Dowie make a public effort to calm the rising tempest. Then he announced that he would pay off the claims before court assembled on Dec. 7, and that payments had begun that day. For a week prior to that time he had been demanding that Zionites come forward to his relief with all their ready cash. They responded slowly, but money in considerable quantity came into his tills.

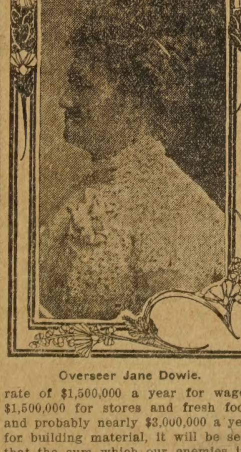
The announcement seemed at the time to have come at just the proper moment. On Nov. 28, the heaviest claim against Zion, one for $15,000 on a mortgage held by J. G. Hammond of Minneapolis, was arranged by part payment, and several small claims were paid.

Dec. 1, however, new signs of disturbance appeared. Reports came from Zion that every man had been ordered to deposit every available dollar in the Zion City bank, but that the appeal had netted only a small sum, and that at the price of the dissatisfaction of the inhabitants of Zion. Then came the assertion that workers in Zion had not been paid their salaries in cash for several weeks, being forced to be content with coupon books good at the general store.

A depositor tried to draw money from the Zion City bank, but it was refused him, the officials taking refuge behind the right of a thirty day notice of withdrawal. The atmosphere of Zion was one of unrest. Workingmen were ordered to stop labor on the new enterprises of Zion. Cars were drawn up on the sidetracks, but the goods were not unloaded—the "C. O. D." charges were not paid. Before the news of the appointment of a receiver reached the town, the sense of disaster was abroad.

Dowie's own description of the troubles of Zion is "growing pains."

"When it is remembered," he wrote for his followers to read, "that we have been spending in Zion City for the greater part of this year at the rate of $1,500,000 a year for wages, $1,500,000 for stores and fresh food, and probably nearly $3,000,000 a year for building material, it will be seen that the sum which our enemies imagined to be so difficult for us to raise is a small one in proportion to Zion's vast business.



Overseer Jane Dowie.

"We have simply temporarily suffered from our unprecedented growth, which has made the city now so large and which demands fresh capital for the extension of its great and profitable industries and for the building of houses for the people. Our pains in Zion are growing pains. The year which is closing has been one of great blessing, and it is probable that the estate of Zion, viewing it as a whole, has increased in value by probably $5,000,000. We value it at about $25,000,000 above all liabilities."

Guards' Regiment Not Popular.

Recruiting for the Guards regiment in the British army has become so unsatisfactory that there is talk of disbanding one or two battalions. Discipline is so very strict in such crack corps as the Scots Greys and the Coldstream guards that men are not so willing to join as formerly. Then, again, recent disclosures as to "ragging," or hazing as it would be called in this country, have opened the eyes of prospective recruits and accordingly they fight shy of the guards.

Foretelling the Weather.

Congressman Fred Landis of Indiana never thinks of consulting weather predictions when he wishes to know a meteorological change is imminent. "We know something better than that out in my state," he remarked as he sat drinking a cup of coffee. "Do you see the bubbles rising from the sugar in my coffee and gathering around the center of the cup instead of hugging close about the edges? Every man in Indiana knows that means a change of weather. It is surely coming."

RESULTS OF POSTAL INVESTIGATION

Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General, J. L. Bristow, Gives Details of the Fraudulent Practices Unearthed in the Postoffice Department—Memorandum of the President.

Notifying Congress of the results of the investigation into corrupt practices obtaining in the Postoffice department, President Roosevelt sent the following memorandum to the legislative body:

It appears that in December, 1902, Postmaster-General Payne and Congressman E. F. Loud, chairman of the Committee on the Post-Office and Post-Roads, held various consultations regarding the postal service, and as a result of these interviews it was determined that as soon as possible after the necessary appropriations could be made by the Congress an investigation should be made of the service, both Messrs. Payne and Loud agreeing as to the need for the investigation and the time when it should take place. Accordingly, an increase of $5,000 in the appropriation bill reported in January was made for the express purpose of carrying on the investigation in question.

The investigation made by Mr. Bristow discloses a condition of gross corruption in the office of the First Assistant Postmaster-General and in that of the Assistant Attorney-General for the Post-Office department. In the case of the superintendent of free delivery, Machen, the evidence shows that his misconduct began immediately after his appointment in September, 1893. In the case of the general superintendent of salaries and allowances, Beavers, it began soon after he was appointed to that place in 1897. In the case of Assistant Attorney-General Tyner it has gone on for a number of years, but it is impossible to say exactly when it began. The following is a list of the fourteen Post-Office employes in the service at the time this investigation was begun, who are apparently most seriously implicated in the wrongdoing, together with an account of the steps that have been taken by the Government in each case.

(The case of ex-First Assistant Postmaster-General Heath, who had left the service over three years before this investigation was begun, is set forth in the report of Mr. Bristow.)

James N. Tyner, Assistant Attorney-General for the Post-Office department; appointed special agent, Post-Office department, March 7, 1861; with intervals of a few years has been in the service ever since, and was Postmaster-General under President Grant for several months; he was removed April 22, 1903; he has since been indicted three times.

A. W. Machen, general superintendent free-delivery system; appointed clerk in post-office at Toledo, Ohio, March 1, 1887; continuously in service ever since save for three years; removed May 27, 1903; has since been indicted fourteen times.

George W. Beavers, general superintendent of salaries and allowances; appointed to clerkship in New York post-office January, 1881; continuous service ever since; resignation accepted to take effect March 31, 1903; has since been indicted eight times.

James T. Metcalf, superintendent money-order system; appointed post-office inspector February 2, 1882; has been in postal service ever since; removed June 17, 1903; has been indicted once.

Daniel V. Miller, assistant attorney, Post-Office department; appointed July 1, 1902; removed May 25, 1903; indicted once; after one mistrial was retired and acquitted.

Louis Kempner, superintendent registry system; appointed clerk in New York post-office August, 1886; removed October 21, 1903.

Charles Hedges, superintendent city free-delivery service; appointed assistant superintendent free-delivery service July 1, 1898; removed July 22, 1903.

James W. Erwin, assistant superintendent free-delivery service; appointed post-office inspector June 27, 1887; removed September 16, 1903; indicted once.

W. Scott Towers, superintendent Station C, Washington, D. C.; appointed clerk, Washington post-office November, 1890; removed October, 1903; indicted three times.

Otto F. Weis, assistant superintendent registry division, New York post-office; appointed clerk, New York post-office June, 1890; removed October 21, 1903.

T. W. McGregor, clerk, free-delivery division, in charge of supplies; appointed Post-Office department, March 11, 1891; removed June 5, 1903; indicted twice.

C. E. Upton, clerk, free-delivery division; appointed July 1, 1900; removed June 6, 1903; indicted once.

M. W. Louis, superintendent supply division; appointed Kansas City post-office April 17, 1897; removed October 21, 1903.

Charles B. Terry, clerk, supply division; appointed September 20, 1900; removed October 21, 1903.

The three chief offenders in the Government service were Tyner, Machen and Beavers. As regards Messrs. Beavers and Machen the corruption took the form of bribery and blackmail in connection with the purchase of Government supplies. In the office of the Assistant Attorney-General for the Post-Office department, under Tyner and Barrett, far greater wrong was inflicted upon the public than could be measured by a pecuniary standard, for in this office the corruption of the Government officials took the form of favoring get-rich-quick concerns and similar swindling schemes; in other words, the criminals, whom it was the sworn duty of these Government officials to prosecute, paid them for permission to fleece the public unmolested.

I heartily approve of the recommendation of Messrs. Conrad and Bonaparte that the statute of limitations be extended in the case of Government servants to a period of at least five years; for the persons who in such positions of trust engage in corrupt practices can ordinarily conceal their guilt for a longer time than is covered by the present short statute of limitations.

No crime calls for sterner reprobation than the crime of the corruptionist in public life, and of the man who seeks to corrupt him. The bribe giver and the bribe taker are equally guilty. Both alike sin against the primary law of the State's safety. All questions of difference in party policy sink into insignificance when the people of this country are brought face to face with a question like this, which lies at the root of honest and decent government. On this question, and on all others like it, we can afford to have no division among good citizens. Self-government becomes a farce if the representatives of the people corrupt others or are themselves corrupted. Freedom is not a gift which will tarry long in the hands of the dishonest or of those so foolish or so incompetent as to tolerate dishonesty in their public servants. Under our system all power comes from the people, and all punishment rests ultimately with the people. The toleration of the wrong, not the exposure of the wrong, is the real offense.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

BRISTOW TELLS OF FRAUDS.

Astounding Revelations of Long-Existing Corruption.

The report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General J. L. Bristow on the postal investigation is substantially as follows:

He first takes up the case of Michael W. Louis of Cincinnati, appointed in 1897 Acting Superintendent of the Supply Division. His peculations amounted to many thousands of dollars. He was removed in October, 1903.

The administrative methods of Tyner and Barrett are clearly illustrated in a number of cases which were passed upon by them.

Mr. Bristow shows how many fraudulent schemes were accorded protection by Barrett and allowed use of the mails. These include many small swindles in the shape of lottery inducements, land-investment schemes, etc.

Of the "turf-investment" swindles Mr. Bristow says:

E. J. Arnold & Co., of St. Louis, Mo., were conducting what is known as a "turf-investment" scheme. On November 25, 1902, the inspectors, having investigated the company, recommended that a fraud order be issued against it. In the meantime the company had employed Barrett as its attorney and paid him a fee of $5,000. And instead of issuing a fraud order Tyner gave the company a letter of commendation. Two days after Tyner wrote this letter Barrett received a check of $1,000 as an additional fee. The company failed in February, 1903—assets, $75,000; liabilities, $3,120,776.

J. J. Ryan & Co.—J. J. Ryan & Co., of St. Louis, was a kindred institution to Arnold & Co. In October, 1902, the inspectors recommended a fraud order against this company. The company was given a hearing by the Assistant-Attorney General's Office and another investigation by the inspectors was requested. In the meantime J. M. Johns, an attorney at Rockville, Ind., made a proposition to Ryan that for a fee of $5,000 he could help him, through his friend D. V. Miller, of the Assistant Attorney-General's Office. After some negotiations it was agreed that $4,500 would be paid to Johns by Ryan if he would give him a "clean bill" before the Post-Office department. This Johns agreed to do, and Miller secured a favorable ruling for Ryan & Co., which he sent to Johns. As a result of this transaction Miller and Johns were indicted.

Rifling of the safe.—On April 21, 1903, while the investigation of the Assistant Attorney-General's Office was in progress, Mrs. J. N. Tyner, in a clandestine manner, admitted Mrs. Barrett and Mr. Hamner, a safe expert, into a private room of the Assistant Attorney-General's Office, where he unlocked the safe and took out all of the contents, which Mrs. Tyner carried off. What was in the safe no one knows but the Tyners. Mrs. Tyner stated that she went to the office and secured the contents of the safe under the direction of her husband, which statement he confirmed. As a result of this episode Tyner was summarily removed from the office of Assistant Attorney-General and Christiancy resigned.

For six years under Tyner's administration certain favored frauds and lotteries were given free use of the mails. Barrett's scheme to resign and practice before the Office, and Tyner's part in that scheme, as set forth in the body of this report, was the climax of official perfidy, more evil in its results and more demoralizing to the public conscience than outright embezzlement or open theft.

Tyner and Barrett were indicted on October 5 by the grand jury for the District of Columbia for conspiracy to defraud.

The frauds in money-order forms, in which James T. Metcalf, superintendent of the money-order system, is involved, and for which he was removed from office, are next taken up.

A long list of swindles carried out by August W. Machen of Ohio is enumerated, and the charge is made that he has been guilty of forgery. The schemes by which the government was defrauded include carriers' satchels, the Groff fasteners for letter boxes, painting of street letter boxes, carriers' leather cases, the contract for street letter boxes, package boxes, the Montague indicator, a device attached to street letter boxes showing the hours of collection, and rural carriers' badges.

The report continues:

"In August, 1897, George W. Beavers was appointed chief of the salary and allowance division. Beavers' methods have been reckless and without rule or regularity. Increases of allowances for clerk hire in post-offices were made as matters of favor regardless of the necessities of the service. Promotions were frequently made without consideration of the merits of the clerk promoted. Long-time leases for post-office premises were canceled and the rent increased upon the recommendation of prominent political leaders, sometimes without regard to the rental value of the premises."

In the list of Beavers' misdeeds are included the sale of promotions, and the padding of pay rolls for clerk hire, operations which netted Beavers many thousands of dollars.

The report shows that the government has been swindled out of a vast amount of money by fraudulent leases. Twenty cases are cited, in all of which Beavers was implicated, and which have been fully proved. The revelations in this connection, and in the case of the purchasing of large amounts of "Brandt Automatic Cashiers," are astounding. Mr. Bristow says:

"Eliminating from consideration all indications of fraud and passing upon the case wholly as a question of administrative judgment, it appears to me that this transaction would have justified the summary removal from office of First Assistant Postmaster-General Heath and George W. Beavers.

"But the element of fraud can not be eliminated. Men of ordinary intelligence rarely waste the public revenues in such a manner without a personal motive. A bribe of $12,500 was paid Congressman Edmund H. Driggs to secure the order for 250 machines. A part of this money has been traced to the bank account of Beavers.

"Driggs, Beavers, and Miller have been indicted by the Federal grand jury in the city of Brooklyn, N. Y."

The report continues:

"In 1890, while John Wanamaker was Postmaster-General, an effort was made to introduce the Bundy time recorder for use in the postal service, but it failed. Later, during the administration of Postmaster-General Wilson, upon the recommendation of A. W. Machen, it was adopted. Machen estimated that the entire free-delivery service could be supplied for $45,599.50.

"In 1901 an effort was made by First Assistant Postmaster-General W. M. Johnson and his chief clerk, John M. Masten, to reduce the price of these time recorders, but the effort was afterwards abandoned.

"H. J. Truesdell, who was agent of the company at the time these clocks were first adopted, states that he paid Machen $1,000 for his services in securing their introduction into the service. Criminal action on such payment is barred by the statute of limitations.

By the purchasing of canceling machines for use in the postal service it is shown that the government has lost over $100,000, which sum was divided among the conspirators interested. Here again criminal action is barred by the statute of limitations.

Says Mr. Bristow:

"The most important contract for canceling machines was that for the Doremus. Its original promoters were W. D. Doremus, the inventor; L. T. Michener, member of the law firm of Dudley & Michener, of Washington, and H. J. Truesdell, of Binghamton, N. Y. The company was organized August 3, 1899, and capitalized for $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares of $100 each. Truesdell was on intimate personal relations with Beavers, and in 1899 an order was given for 100 machines, at $150 each. Long before all of the 100 machines had been delivered the department received numerous complaints from postmasters stating that they were worthless; and on account of the great dissatisfaction with this first 100 known as Model No. 1 the Doremus company established a factory of its own in Washington and created Model No. 2, and Beavers, without testing its efficiency, on June 30, 1900, contracted for 100 of the new machines at $225 each. Model No. 2 also proved a failure, and Model No. 3 was made, and Beavers promptly gave an order for 100 machines of that model at $225 each.

"Of the 200 machines purchased of models Nos. 1 and 2 but 39 are now in use, the remaining 161 being practically a net loss.

"Six hundred and seventy-one of these machines have been ordered by the department, at a net cost of $143,475. This is a repetition of the story of automatic cashiers and Elliott & Hatch typewriters, except that it is on a larger scale.

"In 1901 Truesdell and Green became estranged and Truesdell left the employ of the Bunday company, and also sold his interest in the Doremus canceling machine. When interviewed by the inspectors Truesdell stated that before the second order on June 30, 1900, was given for 100 machines Green told him he had transferred to Perry S. Heath, First Assistant Postmaster-General, $20,000 worth of his stock, in consideration of receiving an order for not less than 300 machines.

"Heath refused to make a written statement, but said verbally to Inspector Simmons that he never received any stock from the Doremus Canceling Machine Company or any remuneration of any kind, directly or indirctlye.

"On October 5, 1903, indictments were found against Green, Doremus and Beavers for conspiracy to defraud.

"The evidence against Heath was also submitted to the district attorney, who decided that it was not sufficient to warrant his indictment.

"The administration of Beavers was, if possible, more demoralizing upon the integrity of the service than that of Machen."

In conclusion the report says:

"For the purposes of this report, the investigation ordered by you on March 7 has been completed. In the preparation of cases for trial where indictments have been found, information may be secured which will necessitate further investigation and possibly involve persons not now implicated.

"The system of organized corruption that has been disclosed began in 1893 and continued until stopped by this investigation. The amount of money secured by the corrupt officials and their confederates is small as compared to the total loss to the Government. To illustrate:

"Barrett received but $6,000 from Arnold, yet that company defrauded the people out of over $3,000,000. Machen probably did not receive more than $26,000 from the Groff fastener. Yet the government has paid approximately $130,000 for that device, which represents a net loss, since the Department continued, by the terms of the contract for letter boxes, to pay for the original fasteners. Beavers and his associates received less than $20,000 from the automatic cashier. Yet the Department expended $74,275 for this wholly unnecessary machine. The total amount that the perpetrators of these frauds themselves received can not be definitely learned, but it will aggregate between $300,000 and $400,000, while the loss to the government, considering the unnecessary supplies that have been purchased and the inferior quality of those furnished by fraudulent contractors, can not be estimated with any degree of accuracy.

"As the gross abuses have been brought to light they have been promptly corrected by the proper departmental officers. Contracts where fraud has been discovered have been annulled.

"The results of the investigation demonstrate that all traveling agents of the Department—such as assistant superintendents of salaries and allowances, of the free-delivery service, the Railway Mail Service, and the registry system, and inspectors—should be placed under one organization.

"A number of changes should be made in the organization of the Department in order to provide a more perfect check on the operations of various divisions, and some restrictive legislation affecting the divisions of salaries and allowance, of rural free delivery, and possibly others may be necessary. What the service most needs, however, is honest, intelligent, and vigorous administration. The corruption disclosed is not due to lax laws, but to the dishonesty of those who have been charged with the responsibility of administering them."

Water Supply Important.

Many people who build homes in the country fail to realize, until it is too late, that the question of water supply is the most important problem with which they have to grapple. The fact is that an abundant quantity of water should be provided for before the location for house or stable or garden is chosen. Every additional foot which water has to be carried increases the expense and often diminishes the supply.—Country Life in America.

Farmers' Interest in Roads.

It costs the farmers of the United States nearly three times more to get their crops to market than it does the farmers of Europe on an equal tonnage of farm products. This is because the roads of Europe are three times as good as the roads of this country on an average. The enormous cost of transporting crops to market can be reduced only by improving the highways over which they are hauled. The better the roads the less the cost.—Leavenworth Times.

The Next Necessity.

Congressman McAndrews of Chicago sent a lot of seed to his constituents a few days ago and very soon afterward received a reply from one of them, which read: "After taking one package of your grass seed I've become a hay-seed. The corn you sent has been planted in the vacant lot near the bank building. It is nine inches high now and all the people refer to it as McAndrews park. Try to send us a few trees and a watermelon patch."

Eleventh Hour Repentance.

It was in a Massachusetts town, relates Senator Depew. Mr. Blank's mother-in-law had just died, and the funeral was to be the following day. Late in the afternoon one of the friends, taking a last look at the deceased, was surprised to see a $10 bill inside the casket. Shortly afterward Mr. Blank was interviewed and, when asked if he could account for the presence of the money in the casket, he replied:

"She frequently accused me of being stingy and mean, and that I never gave her anything, so for once, I want to have it said that she has money to burn."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Truly Unfortunate.

A very charming foreign actress, who has not been fortunate in her marriage, was at Washington not long ago, and meeting an old friend, made sundry inquiries concerning the welfare of their common acquaintances.

"How ees A?" asked the actress.

"A? Oh, he died about a year ago."

"And how ees B?"

"B? Why, didn't you know? He has been dead these three years."

"Has he, eendeed! And zat good C., how ees he?"

"Poor C! He died last month."

"Ah!" said the lady sadly, "eferybody dies—eferybody dies—except" (with deeper melancholy)—"mine husband!"

ABOUT FEAR

Often Comes From Lack of Right Food.

Napoleon said that the best fed soldiers were his best soldiers, for fear and nervousness come quickly when the stomach is not nourished. Nervous fear is a sure sign that the body is not supplied with the right food.

A Connecticut lady says: "For many years I had been a sufferer from indigestion and heart trouble and in almost constant fear of sudden death, the most acute suffering possible. Dieting brought on weakness, emaciation and nervous exhaustion and I was a complete wreck physically and almost a wreck mentally.

"I tried many foods, but could not avoid the terrible nausea followed by vomiting that came after eating until I tried Grape-Nuts. This food agreed with my palate and stomach from the start. This was about a year ago. Steadily and surely a change from sickness to health came until now I have no symptoms of dyspepsia and can walk 10 miles a day without being greatly fatigued. I have not taken a drop of medicine since I began the use of Grape-Nuts and people say I look many years younger than I really am.

"My poor old sick body has been made over and I feel as though my head had been too. Life is worth living now and I expect to enjoy it for many years to come if I can keep away from bad foods and have Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The Social Duties of a President's Wife.

That the position of President's wife is no sinecure, any one will be convinced, after reading Mrs. Abby G. Baker's article in December Pearson's. She is hedged about with a wall of precedents, and bound by a social code as immutable as the laws of the Medes and Persians. A tactless woman can do much to jeopardize her husband's interests in the White House, while a tactful wife may be of inestimable assistance. Mr. Baker gives an interesting account of Mrs. Roosevelt's charming hospitality, and of the close co-operation between her and the ladies of her Cabinet.

Hygiene of Perfumes.

Perfumes are not selected for their hygienic value, but such they have. Doctors tell us that a handkerchief may be made antiseptic by the use of perfume. The action of the spirit of the scent and the essential oils can destroy the germs. Lavender is supposed to soothe the nerves; that is why the bed linen is lavender scented. Jasmine induces nerve exhaustion and depression. Don't use strong scent; use delicate, clean perfumes only.

It is altogether a strong novel and is considered a great advance over his former work.

Mrs. Stevenson's Literary Ability.

The letters of Mrs. Stevenson, the mother of the novelist, have lately been published in London and have been highly praised. They seem to confirm the view which has often been expressed that Stevenson inherited much of his literary talent from his mother.

FIVE OFFICIALS TO PLEAD GUILTY

Grand Rapids Men Waive Examination Before the Police Court.

MAY ADMIT ACCEPTING BRIBES

Belief That Those Who Own Up Will Be Let Off With Fines and Used as Witnesses at the Trials of Confederates.

Grand Rapids, Mich., special: That five of Attorney John McDonald's clients decided to plead guilty in the supreme court was the sensational development in the water plant boodle scandal. The five men appeared before the police magistrate and waived examination to the higher court.

It is generally understood that those who plead guilty of accepting bribes will be punished by fines and no imprisonment, and that they will be used as witnesses by the prosecution in the cases of those of the accused city officials who insist upon having trials.

The five men who waived examination are ex-Aldermen John Donovan, Clark E. Slocum, John McLachlan, Reyner Stonehouse and Cory P. Bissell, a former member of the board of works.

Ex-Alderman Lozier, it is said, will waive examination, but Alderman Johnson of the Seventh ward will insist upon an examination in the lower court.

Salsbury Is Ill.

Ex-City Attorney Lant K. Salsbury was confined to his bed at his home Wednesday suffering from nervous prostration, and in consequence the examination in the case of Alderman Ellen of the First ward, charged with accepting a bribe of $350 in the water deal proposal, was postponed.

Inquiry by telephone at Salsbury's residence elicited the information that he thought he would be able to go to court Thursday and resume his testimony in regard to his claim that he paid Alderman Ellen a bribe of $350 to assist in putting the water contract through the council in 1900.

To Make More Arrests.

It is reported that if Salsbury does not take the witness stand warrants will be issued for the arrest of some of those implicated by Salsbury in the conspiracy part of the deal, and it was partly confirmed by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Ward, who has the cases in hand.

When asked concerning the issuance of more warrants, Mr. Ward said if the examination is not resumed one or two may be issued, and stated positively that in any event the number of warrants will be much smaller than the first installment. It is expected that other arrests will be made, one or two at a time.

Japanese Free Prisoners.

Tokio cable: The Japanese population at Mak-Po, Korea, have taken a decided stand on the side of the brokers of that city who were recently put into prison for refusing to pay the guild tax. The Japanese attacked the officials of the prison and burst open the cells of the brokers, setting them at liberty.

Smallpox at Hotel.

Boonville, Ind., special: One of the leading hotels has been quarantined on account of smallpox. There are many cases in town. The vaccination of 1,000 school pupils has been determined upon by the authorities.

Dynamite a Department Store.

Savannah, Ga., special: Safeblowers raided the department store of Foye & Eckstein, dynamited the safe and secured $1,800. The store is in the heart of the shopping district.

New York's "Diamond Rooms."

Only men and women who want to purchase an expensive set of jewels, say $10,00 worth or upward, get a glimpse of the "diamond rooms," as they are called, in the big New York jewelers' shops. Gems worth less than that usually are kept in showcases and examined in trays at the counters. But if a customer wants to make a larger purchase, a diamond necklace with pearl pendant, worth from $40,000 to $50,000, for instance, he is shown into a parlor where he can examine the jewels more at his leisure and see the salesman weigh them on the most carefully balanced scales. These parlors as a rule, are luxuriously but simply furnished, and are convenient to the safes.

It is not an unusual thing at this season of the year for a salesman in a well established store to make three or four sales a day, ranging from $12,000 to $30,000. A man selecting a scarfpin in a fashionable jeweler's the other day heard one salesman ask another:

"Much doing?"

And the reply was:

"Rather slow. Only forty-two thousand for me, and all in one sale."

Bright's Disease Cured.

Whitehall, Ill., Dec. 7.—A case has been recorded in this place recently, which upsets the theory of many physicians that Bright's Disease is incurable. It is the case of Mr. Lon Manley, whom the doctors told that he could never recover. Mr. Manley tells the story of his case and how he was cured in this way:

"I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills after the doctors had given me up. For four or five years I had Kidney, Stomach and Liver Troubles; I was a general wreck and at times I would get down with my back so bad that I could not turn myself in bed for three or four days at a time.

"I had several doctors and at last they told me I had Bright's Disease, and that I could never get well. I commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and I am now able to do all my work and am all right. I most heartily recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills and am very thankful for the cure they worked in my case. They saved my life after the doctors had given me up."

Prefer American Plows.

In Castile, Spain, agriculturists having made practical experiments, prefer American to English implements, though the latter have been most profusely offered. The agriculturists, noting that American machinery is better fitted for the uses for which it was intended, though not considered so strong as the English, give it the preference, as it requires less power to work it—a most decisive reason in this country, forced to rely on animal motive power.

A great writer once said there never lived a man or woman who had not at some time been tempted to moral suicide. Of such temptations Miss Mildred Champagne has written in "Love Stories From Real Life." She brings us face to face with problems that the average man and woman encounter and works out these problems in a manner that cannot fail to satisfy all.

"Ballads of the Busy Days," by S. E. Kiser, is a collection of one hundred poems, representing the best work of this well-known poet. Many of them are humorous, some of them have a delicate vein of pathos that makes a sure appeal to the heart, and all possess that charming human quality which has made Mr. Kiser's verses widely popular.

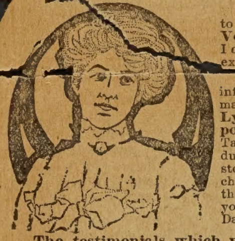
Miss Whittaker, a prominent club woman of Savannah, Ga., tells how she was entirely cured of ovarian troubles by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I heartily recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a Uterine Tonic and Regulator. I suffered for four years with irregularities and Uterine troubles. No one but those who have experienced this dreadful agony can form any idea of the physical and mental misery those endure who are thus afflicted. Your Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. I was fully restored to health and strength, and now my periods are regular and painless. What a blessing it is to be able to obtain such a remedy when so many doctors fail to help you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is better than any doctor or medicine I ever had. Very truly yours, Miss Easy Whittaker, 604 39th St., W. Savannah, Ga."

No physician in the world has had such a training or such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills as Mrs. Pinkham. In her office at Lynn, Mass., she is able to do more for the ailing women of America than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own trouble who will not take the pains to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free.

A letter from another woman showing what was accomplished in her case by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.



"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: I am so grateful to you for the help Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me that I deem it but a small return to write you an expression of my experience.

"Many years suffering with weakness, inflammation, and a broken down system, made me more anxious to die than live, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound soon restored my lost strength. Taking the medicine only two weeks produced a radical change, and two months restored me to perfect health. I am now a changed woman, and my friends wonder at the change, it is so marvellous. Sincerely yours, Miss Mattie Henry, 429 Green St., Danville, Va."

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women prove beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

The village became and incorporated town in 1869, and is widely known as the "Village Of Spires", an example of the old world German heritage in America.

The most distinctive architectural aspect to Oldenburg is, of course, its many spires. Another significant aspect is the fact that 80 of the roughly 115 homes in the historic district were constructed prior to 1900. The oldest structures are constructed of stone or wood or a combination thereof. Brick structures were not built until after 1858 with bricks from the Gehring Brickyard at the south edge of town. The use of cast and wrought iron as well as the unusual work of Master Tinsmith Casper Gaupel provided the community with great visual richness. Many of the buildings in the community follow the Old World Tradition of combining shop and residence under one roof.

The town of Oldenburg was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in March, 1983.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the overfed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Herzlich Willkommen To Oldenburg

LOG CHURCH OF 1837
According to Model made in 1873 by Eberhard Waechter

Kurze Geschichte Der Kleinstadt - Oldenburg, IN Brief History Of The Town Of Oldenburg, Indiana

In 1817, a pioneer settler, William George, of Tazewell, Virginia, filed a claim at Brookville, Indiana, for a quarter section of land that later was to become the town of Oldenburg.

In 1837, two land speculators, Wm. Flaspholer and Wm. Ronnebaum, purchased the farmland from William George and platted the town. The original plat consisted of 16 blocks of equal size, with provision made for parks, church and school grounds, cemetery and market place.

German immigrants gathered in Cincinnati, purchased lots in the new town, built a log church and started a school. The first Post Office opened in 1845. By 1849 they had adopted a constitution of 13 articles.

Father Franz Joseph Rudolf, newly ordained Priest from Germany, arrived in Oldenburg in 1844, and together with sister Teresa Hackelmeier, a Franciscan Sister from Vienna, Austria, began a religious and building program which still carries on as the Sisters of St. Francis Convent and Academy, and the Parish and Church Of the Holy Family.

As It Was!!

The village became and incorporated town in 1869, and is widely known as the "Village Of Spires", an example of the old world German heritage in America.

The most distinctive architectural aspect to Oldenburg is, of course, its many spires. Another significant aspect is the fact that 80 of the roughly 115 homes in the historic district were constructed prior to 1900. The oldest structures are constructed of stone or wood or a combination thereof. Brick structures were not built until after 1858 with bricks from the Gehring Brickyard at the south edge of town. The use of cast and wrought iron as well as the unusual work of Master Tinsmith Casper Gaupel provided the community with great visual richness. Many of the buildings in the community follow the Old World Tradition of combining shop and residence under one roof.

The town of Oldenburg was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in March, 1983.

Lieber Taufgothe!

Beim Beginne des neuen Jahres beeile ich mich auch Ihnen meinen Glückwünsche darzubringen. Ich wünsche Ihnen ein recht glückseliges Neues Jahr! Nehmen Sie diesen Wunsch freundlich an, denn obschon ich noch jung und klein bin, so fordert die Liebe mich dazu auf. Möge der liebe Gott Sie auf allen Wegen segnen und lange noch am Leben erhalten. Darum will ich Ihn täglich bitten und indem ich nochmals ein Glückseliges Neues Jahr wünschen verbleibe ich Ihr dankbares Pathen-Kind.

August.

Had to send something! Came across alot of these in a box of my Mother's thing and never really had anyone decipher, or translate 'em, ...was going to get into that this winter. However, I thot maybe you would enjoy it.

Convent Record - Oldenburg, Indiana

From the record:

Sister Johanna - Maria Brokamp
d. October 13, 1915 - Age: 75 years 9 days

Although in frail health and suffering from TB for many years, Sister kept herself untiringly busy, going daily in rain or shine to the Villa to take care of her various chores there.

Hers was a quiet and unassuming life. Just a few days before her death, due to a lingering tuberculosis, could she be persuaded to remain at the Convent.

She spent 57 years and 8 months as a member of the Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Francis, Oldenburg, Indiana.

This is No. 2 in a series of charts known as the O-KAY system of record making. No. 1 is a Progenitor Chart, No. 3, Family History Chart.

Sehr geehrter Herr Oelrich!

Auf meinen Brief vom 24.5.78 wegen Ihrer Anfrage nach Nachforschungen zu Ihrer Ahnenliste Brokamp habe ich leider bisher keine Nachricht erhalten. Es ist möglich, daß mal ein Brief verloren gegangen ist! Oder haben Sie inzwischen sich selbst um diese Forschung bemüht bei einem Besuch in Deutschland und brauchen keine weitere Hilfe in Ihrer Forschungsarbeit?

I hope You will answer me, if You need my help.

Sehr geehrter Herr Oelrich!

Ich erhielt Ihren Brief vom 10.5.78 von der Olbg.Fam.Gesellschaft zur weiteren Bearbeitung. Hierzu habe ich noch Fragen:

Wo? wurde Ihr great Grandfather gebpren? Oldenburg ist zu weit umschrieben. Er muß aus Südoldenburg stammen und hier gibt es zwei alte Höfe, von denen er herkommen könnte. Einer liegt in Düpe, Kirchspiel Steinfeld und einer ist in Dümmerlohausen, Kirchspiel Damme beheimatet.

Unter meinen Unterlagen über Auswanderer finde ich einen Sohn des Heuermanns Brokamp aus Dümmerlohausen -bei Kolon Wolking wohnhaft - der 1833 ausgewandert ist. 3 Kinder des Kolons Brokamp, Dümmerlohausen sind 1840 ausgewandert nach USA.

Sie schreiben, daß Sie in Damme noch Verwandte haben. Sind es die Brokamps dort? Ich bin lange in Damme tätig gewesen früher und kenne manche der Einwohner des großen Kirchspiels.

Sie wollen die jetzt lebenden Familienangehörigen der Brokamps haben mit dem Nachweis der Herkunft -oder dem Zusammenhang -möglichst mit Ihrem Vorfahren. Das ist immer etwas schwieriger zu finden, als wenn man mir den Vorfahren nachgeht! Ich beschäftige mich seit Jahrzehnten zwar mir Familienforschungen-und hier besonders im Raum Damme- ich muß abererklären, daß es immer Zeit und Kosten in Anspruch nimmt, diesen Fragen nachzugehen. In Dümmerlohausen wohnt jetzt noch ein Bauer Benno Brokamp. In dem gleichen Orte gibt es einen Landwirt Johannes Brokamp und in den Ortsteilen Borringhausen, Südfelde und Rottinghausen wohnen auch Angehörige der Familie Brokamp noch heute. Welche dieser Familien nun mit Ihnen am engsten zusammenhängt, ist schwer zu sagen! Hierzu muß man umfangreiche Feststellungen treffen! Die Ochtruper -evemtuell auch Brokamps?- sind mir nicht bekannt.

Geben Sie mir bitte Nachricht, was im Einzelnen ich für Sie suchen soll hierzu. Es dauert dann natürlich eine Weile, da diese Forschungen eben ihre Zeit beanspruchen!

Mit freundlichen Grüßen

Sehr geehrter Herr Oelrich!

Ihre Antwort auf meine Karte v.15.9.78 erhielt ich gestern und gebe Ihnen sofort nun Bescheid zu Ihren Fragen. Ihre Vorfahren wanderten 1835 aus:Catharina Maria Brokamp und 1 Kind ihres Bruders Johann Heinrich Brokamp bei Kötter Hölterhinrichs.1838 wanderte Anna Maria und Hermann Brokamp,die auch bei Kötter Hölterhinrichs waren,ebenfalls aus nach USA. Hölterhinrichs war ein Markkotten-kleinerer Bauer- in Borringhausen bei Damme,15 ha groß .Der letzte Besitzer des Hofes(Hülsmann) hat 19o7 den Hof verkauft und zerstückelt .Haus und Garten kaufte Bauer Strieker in Borringhausen für 75oo RM.Der Hof war eigenhörig-leibeigen-an das Domkapitel zu Osnabrück.Er wurde am 28.2.1841 abgelöst .

Bei dem Bauern(Kötter) Hölterhinrichs waren die Brokamps früher in der Heuer,d.h.sie lebten mit auf dem Hof,hatten ein kleines Haus für sich und bewirtschafteten eine geringe Fläche des Hofes mit und arbeiteten für den Hofbesitzer bei geringer Pachtzahlung.

Die Kosten für die Auffindung der Namen und Daten Ihrer Vorfahren kann man wirklich vorher nicht angeben,da man ja nicht weiß,wieviel Stunden an Sucharbeit hierfür erforderlich sind,ausser den baren Auslagen für Fahrten nach Damme oder anderswo hin.Ich nehme zu den baren Auslagen pro Stunde 7,5o DM,also etwa 3,5 Dollar.

Der Gemeindedirektor in Damme heißt übrigens Respondek, der Knappik wird die Standesamtsbücher heute führen dort.

Ich finde,es wäre für Sie von Interesse,die Vorfahren soweit diese aus den Dammer Kirchenbüchern erreichbar wäre(Beginn um 165o) herauszuholen und dieses würde mich auch reizen zu tun.

Sie müssen aber selbstsehen,was Sie machen wollen,ich habe Arbeit genug.

I also can read,but not well write in english and therefore ich write in german language this letter. Eine Kopie meines Schreibens vom 24-5-1978 lege ich an.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen

Sehr geehrter Herr Oelrich!

Ihren Brief vom 30.9.79 dankend erhalten heute. Auch der vorige Brief aus Damme mit dem Geldbetrag erreichten mich im Schwarzwald, wo ich mich derzeit aufhielt. Ich verstehe Ihre Sorgen wegen des Johann Heinrich Brokamp! Nun habe ich heute alles nochmal nachgesehen und es wäre möglich, daß dieser Brokamp nicht aus dem Kirchspiel Damme herkam, sondern aus Dinklage oder Steinfeld. Im Dinklager Raum lebten damals mehrere Heuerleute Brokamp, die ich zwar schon verfolgt habe wegen der Taufe um 1810 für eine Joh.Heinr., aber dort bin ich nicht weiter gekommen. Nun war in Düpe bei Steinfeld auch ein Bauernhof Brokamp und dort kömnen sich auch Heuerleute aufgehalten haben.

Ich will demnächst versuchen in den Kirchenbüchern von Steinfeld nach einem Johann Heinrich Brokamp zu forschen, wenn Sie es wollen. Man darf ja nichts unversucht lassen, um auf die richtige Spur und Linie in der Familienforschung zu kommen. Ich war der festen Ansicht, daß ich den richtigen J.H.B. mit Geburtsdatum vom 27.9.1811 gefunden hätte.

Steinfeld gehörte damals zum Amt Damme. -- Lohne kommt nicht in Frage und auch Dinklage bringt nichts-ich habe schon nachgesehen! Holdorf war noch nicht damals von Damme kirchlich abgetrennt, hatte aber eine Kirche und hatte auch ein eigenes Kirchenbuch. Dort gehörten die Nachbarbauerschaften von Düpe, i. u. wo der alte - oder einer von den alten -Stammhöfen der Brokamp lag, benachbart zu den Bauerschaften vom Holdorfer Kirchspiel (Kirchspiel ab 1828). Ein Bauerngeschlecht Lange - die Ehefrau des J.H.Brokamp -1843- gibt es im Dammer Raum nicht, wohl aber ein Bauernhof in Ambergen bei Goldenstedt, Landkreis Vechta.

Ob die Lange, Maria Elisabeth, dort her kommt?

Ich will Holdorf und Steinfeld nachgehen. Mir kommen wegen der Heirat 1843 jetzt auch Zweifel! Vielleicht finden Sie aber aus den

Sehr geehrter Herr Oelrich?

Ich erhielt Ihren Brief vom 26.11.78. Vielen Dank. Sie haben viel Pech gehabt in der letzten Zeit, wie Sie schrieben. Hoffentlich wird es im nächsten Jahr 1979 besser werden! Ich wünsche Ihnen dazu alles Gute.

Inzwischen habe ich mich etwas für die Familie Brokamp interessiert und war in Damme bzw. Vechta, um etwas für diese Familienlinien herauszuforschen. In der Anlage gebe ich Ihnen meine Auszüge dazu.

Sie werden daraus ersehen können, daß es in Damme nicht einfach ist, in der richtigen Linie der Brokamps zu kommen und zu bleiben, weil sich dort in früheren Jahrhudderten viele Brokamps-Familien gebildet haben, die schwer auseinander zu trennen sind.

Man kann bei der Nachsuche für die Familienforschung manche Stunde verbringen ohne etwas brauchbares zu finden!

Wenn Sie demnächst vielleicht wieder nach Damme hinkommen werden, können diese Unterlagen für Sie ein Anhalt sein, die ich herausgearbeitet habe.

Auch für die Buschfamilie habe ich die Maria Agnes, die 1804 B.H.Brokamp heiratete noch nicht entdecken können, obwohl ich lange gesucht habe!

Wenn Sie mir für meine Vorarbeiten etwa 20 Dollar geben würden, wäre ich froh! Aber Sie haben mir keinen direkten Auftrag gegeben, daß weiß ich wohl!

Ich bin auch Rentner und mache diese Forschungen aus Leidenschaft, verbrauche viel Zeit und auch Kosten dafür und etwas haben Sie in meinen Angabe doch für Ihre Familie nun mehr als bisher!

Mit Grüßen aus der alten Heimat

Verbleibe ich Ihr

Sehr geehrter Herr Knappik!

Ich muß mich entschuldigen, daß ich Ihnen in Englisch schreibe, hoffe aber, daß es Ihnen möglich ist, den Brief zu übersetzen. Ich kann Deutsch zwar lesen, aber es ist für mich schwierig, einen guten Brief in Deutsch zu schreiben, da meine Grammatik schlecht ist.

In der Anlage habe ich Kopien der Briefe vom Oldenb. Staatsarchiv sowie von Herrn Rehme, der für mich Nachforschungen über den Stammbaum meiner Familie Brokamp unternommen hat, beigefügt.

Es scheint so, daß beide Familien der Großmütter, die Assmanns und die Brokamps von Damme kommen. Mein Großvater Hermann Oelrich wurde in 4434 Ochtrup/Westf. geboren. Ich plante letztes Jahr für Sept. 1978 wieder eine Reise nach Deutschland, bedingt durch den niedrigen Wechselkurs des Dollar wurde diese Reise aber für mich zu teuer. Ich hoffe aber in der Lage zu sein, diesen Besuch im Sommer des nächsten Jahres nachzuholen.

Mein Plan war, im September meine Verwandten in Damme - Assmanns - zu besuchen, aber auch um Nachforschungen über den Stammbaum der Familie Brokamp zu machen. Mein Interesse an diesem Stammbaum ist sehr groß und ich möchte mehr wissen über die näheren Daten meines Großvaters Johann Heinrich Brokamp - Geburt -, etwas über die Lebensgeschichte (Vergangenheit) dieser Familie und über die Nachkommen dieser Familie, die vielleicht in Damme oder in der Nähe von Damme wohnen.

Herr Rehme, der Forscher aus Cloppenburg hat mir seine Hilfe für ein günstiges Honorar angeboten, aber ich zahle lieber Ihnen dieses Honorar für Ihre Bemühungen, da Sie mir bereits in den Jahren 1976 - 1977 behilflich waren.

Sofern es Ihnen möglich ist, einen Stammbaum der Familie Brokamp zu erstellen, wäre ich Ihnen sehr dankbar und werden Ihnen dann auch ein gutes Honorar für diese Arbeit bezahlen.

Geben Sie die besten Grüße an den

Sehr geehrter Herr Oelrich!

Wie wir anhand des Geburtsregisters der Ev.luth.Kirchengemeinde der Stadt Oldenburg feststellen konnten, ist ein Johann Brokamp in der Stadt Oldenburg im Jahre 1810 nicht geboren. Auch heute wohnt lt. Adreßbuch keine Familie Brokamp in der Stadt Oldenburg. Vermutlich kommt Ihr Urgroßvater aus der Gemeinde Damme im ehemaligen Land Oldenburg, da noch heute Angehörige dieses Namens dort wohnen. Damme ist überwiegend katholisch; die Kirchenbücher lagern bei der Katholischen Kirchengemeinde 2845 Damme.

Wir bitten Sie, dort anzufragen oder gelegentlich Ihres Besuches im September ds.Js. dort selbst Nachforschungen anzustellen.

In dem Aufsatz von Johannes Ostendorf: Zur Geschichte der Auswanderer aus dem alten Amt Damme (Oldb.), insbesondere nach Nordamerika, in den Jahren 1830 - 1880, veröffentlicht im Oldenburger Jahrbuch, Bd. 46/47 (1943), S. 164 ff., kommen folgende Personen mit Namen Brokamp vor:

Dear Mr. Gunther,

This is in response to your letter of August 9 to the Oldenburgische Gesellschaft für Familienkunde. The president who lives at Lerigauweg 14 in Oldenburg, Mr. Wolfgang Büsing, gave your letter to me so that I might answer you.
I am a member of the above society and I am employed at the Niefersächsisches Staatsarchiv in Oldenburg. At the same time I am an independent genealogist, specialized in record searching.

My rates are

DM 30.00 per hour of research and report
DM 15.00 per hour of driving
DM 0.50 per km gone plus record office fees, phoning, postage etc.

I had to look through all the volumes from 1822 to 1841. Most of the volumes are not indexed or furnished with a table of contents. It took me four hours.
During that period there was no will for Heinrich Arend Brokamp nor his wife.
There was a record about a loan from the farmer H. A. Röenbeck to Maria Elisabeth Brokamp, nee Athmann of Harpendorf. The sum was 400 German Imperial Talers, as a pawn she gave a pasture ground.

Through this loan you can see that she still was in possession at least of this meadow, otherwise her son would have done the loan all on his own. (He was called Johann Hinrich unlike his father)
I found a marriage contract, I think it was for him, in April 1841. She is not mentioned there (as she was dead), but it is obvious that by then he is in charge of the farm. I have made no photostatic of that contract as his parents are not even made allusions to.

The contract I have copied, is at the "Niedersächs. Staatsarchiv" in Oldenburg, files 76-23 Ab 131.
I give you some difficult words:
first page of record 48, line 5 at the end "Kötter" - small farmer, line 7 Harpendorf village at 3 km west of Steinfeld next page, line 3/4 Holthausen - village 3 km east of Steinfeld (towards my hometown Diepholz, 10 km east of Steinfeld).
third page, line 12 "Mitcomparent" - adversary in the contract line 13 "acceptirte" - he accepted/agreed

I could recommend a lady in Utah who could translate the whole of the text of the contract, as my time is too dear for lengthy translations like this one.
Her address: Ruth Froelke, A. G., 9717 Altamont Drive, Sandy, UT 84092, USA.

There is a chance that the will would be found between 1808 and 1822, it would take me 2.5 to 3 hours to verify that. It is up to you to decide whether you want me to search more. Of course you might write to "Niedersächsisches Staatsarchiv, Damm 43, 2900 Oldenburg". They charge DM 12.00 per fifteen minutes of record searching.

For this answer I am satisfied with what you sent. Please note my rates towards further research.

Sincerely yours

Falk Liebreit

Nr. 48 stamp of 1 Rth.[Reichsthaler]

It is documented that on April 19, 1831, at noon, in the grand-duke's of Oldenburg magistrate's court of Steinfeld at Dintzlage appeared of her own free will and choice before the undersigned court auditor the widow of the deceased small farmer Hinrich Arend Brokamp, Maria Elisabeth nee Altzmann of Harpendorff with her son and heir Johann Hinrich Brokamp of the same place, on the one hand; and Johann Hinrich Arend Roenbeck of Holtzhausen, son of the [?] Hinrich Arend Roenbeck,of the same place.

The petitioner, the widow Brokamp stated: that the co-petitioner Heinrich Arend Roenbeck agreed to lend her the sum of 400 Rts. [Reichsthaler] in coin and asked that the required agreement be drawn up after payment has been made.

The co-petitioner Heinrich Arend Roenbeck confirmed this and proceeded to pay to the widow Brokamp four hundred Thaler of good acceptable coin and after she counted them with the assistance of her son, Johann Hinrich Brokamp and found it [the sum] to be correct, she took possession of it and declared: She now was the debtor of the present Hinrich Arend Roenbeck for the sum of four hundred thalers in coin and promised to pay four percent interest on the principal beginning today, and to repay the principal as well as any accrued interest according to a cancellation of debt agreeable to both sides in good acceptable coin in one half of a year, in no less than 1/6th parts. As security for the debt including the accrued interest, she pledged all her belongings and lands located in the district of Vechta as a general mortgage, and figures the ranger station located thereon at her cost. Finally, she gives up the right to any possible objections, excuses, and evasions whatever they might be called.

The co-petitioner Hinrich Arend Roenbeck accepted the above declaration of debt on all points and both parties signed the document - the widow Brokamp and her son Johann Hinrich Brokamp after the widow affirmed that she would pledge as security of the above mentioned capital the meadow bought by Zeller Wilberding of Harpendorff bordering Wieferichs and Brokamps and her land as an especial mortgage and expressly authorized the run-down ranger station.

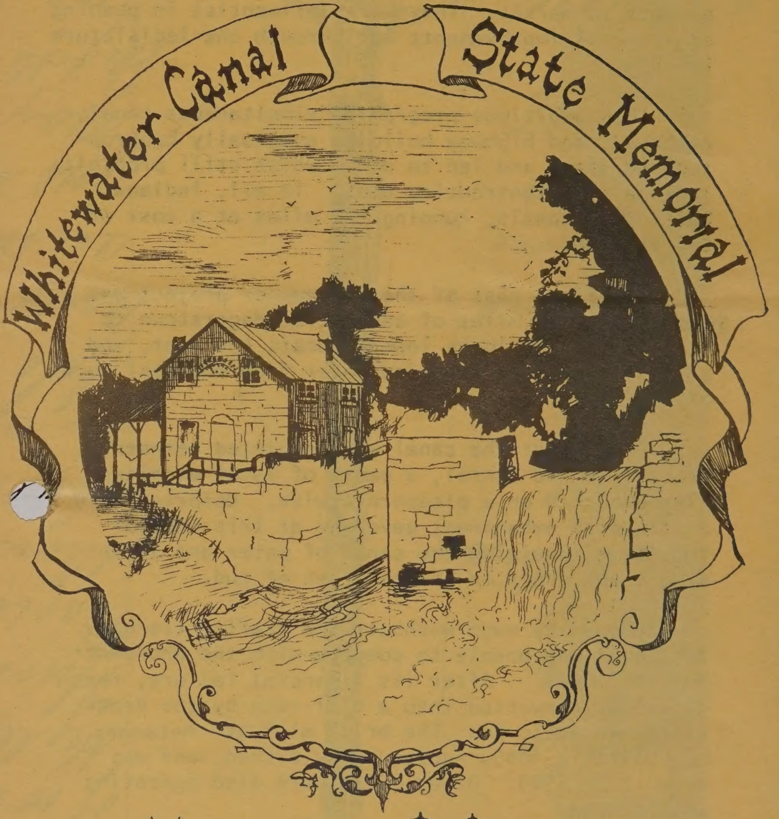
WELCOME to INDIANA'S HISTORIC



Metamora, Indiana

You are now standing in what might be called the "cradle of civilization" for Indiana. As the tide of settlement moved westward, the Whitewater River served as a major waterway into Indiana from the Ohio River.

By 1830, the valley was the most populous and prosperous area in the state, and its citizens were anxious to have better means of transporting their produce to market. They were influential in pushing an Internal Improvements Act through the legislature in 1836.

This ambitious program of simultaneous canal, railroad, and highway building eventually bankrupted the state and led to a law which still prohibits Indiana from contracting debt. In all, Indiana built four canals, running 472 miles at a cost of $10 million.

The final cost of the Whitewater project was $664,665 for 76 miles of canal from Hagerstown to Cincinnati. 56 locks lowered boats 490 feet, and seven feeder dams supplied water from the west fork of the River.

Soon after the canal was completed between Brookville and Laurel, a party of local dignitaries embarked on a pleasure cruise. Unfortunately a saturated embankment gave way at this inopportune time, draining the canal of water and stranding their craft in several feet of mud.

Dogged by such washouts and traffic tie-ups, the canal was unable to compete with the encroaching railroads. After its financial failure, the canal was converted into a mill-race by the Brookville Hydraulic Co. The brick mill at Metamora was built in 1845, subsequently burned, and was rebuilt in 1900. Other mills were also operating in the area.

In 1866 most of the canal was acquired by a railroad company, which later became part of the Penn-Central system. The old tow-path, where mules once pulled the barges, became a rail-bed and the canal fell into disrepair for over a century.

For your information and enjoyment may we offer the following suggestions of things to do and see during your visit......

Reconstructed shed aqueduct built in 1848 to carry canal water 16 feet above Duck Creek. Eighty feet long, with a pedestrian walkway, it is believed to be the only such structure in existence. In fact, it was once featured in Ripley's "Believe It or Not". On U.S. 52 near Metamora.

Canoe trips - canoeists may launch at the restored Laurel feeder dam, make several short portages and paddle through Metamora to the restored Millville Lock. Races are usually held in September...... for further information contact the Franklin County Chamber of Commerce.

"Valley Belle" Canal Boat Trip - a motorized launch trip through the Millville lock takes forty min. Operates weekends and holidays during the summer season. Weekdays for 20 or more persons by appointment. 50¢ per seat. Infants in arms free.

Rest Park - beside the canal on U.S. 52 a mile below Metamora. Grills, tables, shelter house, restrooms. Fishing and tent sites at Feeder Dam.

Camping - Whitewater State Park at Liberty, 20 miles from Metamora. Beach, boating, saddle barn.

Dear Mr. Gunther,

This is in response to your letter of August 8.

On the name I can only have a guess as there was nothing in the literature.
"Kamp" is a fenced in field, a grassy place, part of a cultivated ground, the affix "Bro-" should point towards a very wet ground in the vicinity, like boggy land, in North German "Brook" or "Bruch".
The files listing emigration permits at the "Amt" Steinfeld, parishes Steinfeld, Dinklage and Lohne, Best. 76-23 No. 32, for the period 1826 - 1871 does not list the name Brockamp.

I trust you understand enough German to get something out of the texts.

That is all in the French occupation time (beginning in 1811) and afterwards until 1822.
To check the records for the period 1808 - 1811 I would at least need another hour of research plus appr. the same time for reporting. During that time there were two notary public offices at Steinfeld, Hildebrand and R. Steverding. So I have to go through two series of contracts.

By coincidence I found an emigrant by the name of Brockamp: Karoline Brockamp, born at Harpendorf around 1813, + St. Louis 29 June 1850, was the first wife of Freiherr (Baron) Friedrich von Elmendorf of Füchtel (parish Vechta), NOTE: There are a few discrepancies between the dates given here and those which may be found in Father Lamott's "History of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati." The dates given here are accepted because they denote generally the earliest date for which parish records are available. The dates recorded by Father Lamott are given in parentheses, thus (L. 1844).

CINCINNATI AND HAMILTON COUNTY

1818 CHRIST CHURCH on Liberty and Vine Streets, outside the city limits of Cincinnati, diocese of Bardstown, Kentucky. Cincinnati was made a diocese on June 19, 1821. The congregation at Cincinnati was incorporated under the name of Christ Church Congregation but Rev. Wm. Jurgens in his History of the Diocese of Cleveland, vol. 1, indicates that the church was under the patronage of Saint Patrick. It seems the congregation incorporated under a different title than the patron of the church. In 1822 this church was moved to Sycamore Street and named "ST. PETER IN CHAINS CATHEDRAL". In 1840 a lot was bought on Eighth and Plum Streets for a new Cathedral which was dedidcated in 1845. The old church on Sycamore Street was then called "St. Francis Xavier."
Records at St. Peter in Chains date back to 1839. Records at St. Francis Xavier date back to 1845.

1834 HOLY TRINITY, closed, 1958. Records at the Chancery.

1840 ST. MARY (Thirteenth and Clay Streets).
ST. JAMES, White Oak (L.1844)—records begin with 1856.

1842 OUR LADY OF VICTORY, Delhi, originally called "St. Stephen."
New name given in 1853.

1844 ST. JOHN BAPTIST, Green Street, and probably ST. PETER on Lick Run, called "St. Bonaventure" in 1868. St. John the Baptist closed in 1969, records from 1845 to 1969 at St. Francis Seraph. Records of St. Peter on Lick Run from 1854-1869 at St. Bonaventure.

1845 ALL SAINTS, originally called "Christ Church," closed in 1936.
Records at the Chancery.
ST. FRANCIS XAVIER as distinct from St. Peter Cathedral.

1846 ST. PHILOMENA, closed in 1954. Records at the Chancery.
ST. JOSEPH, Linn Street.

1847 ST. MICHAEL.

1848 ST. PAUL, closed, 1974. Records at St. Mary, Clay Street.

1849 ST. FRANCIS DE SALES.

1850 ST. PATRICK, Third and Mill Streets, closed in 1918, records from 1851 to 1918 at the Chancery.
ST. CLEMENT.
STS. PETER AND PAUL, Reading. Originally called "CHURCH OF THE 14 HOLY MARTYRS". Parish marriage records date 1851 to 1859 include the missions at Chester, Mason, Bethany, Springdale, Glendale and Pleasant Ridge. After the church was destroyed in 1860, the new building was called "Sts. Peter and Paul."

1851 ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, Harrison.

1819 CHRIST CHURCH on Liberty and Vine Streets, outside the city limits of Cincinnati, diocese of Bardstown, Kentucky. Cincinnati was made a diocese on June 19, 1821. The Congregation of Cincinnati was incorporated under the name of Christ Church Congregation but Rev. G. F. Houck, in his History of the Diocese of Cleveland, vol. I, indicates that the church was under the patronage of Saint Patrick. It seems the congregation incorporated under a different title than the patron of the church. In 1822 the church was moved to Sycamore Street and named "ST. PETER IN CHAINS CATHEDRAL". In 1840 a lot was bought on Eighth and Plum Streets for a new Cathedral which was dedicated in 1845. The old church on Sycamore Street was then called "St. Francis Xavier."
Records at St. Peter in Chains date back to 1839. Records at St. Francis Xavier date back to 1845.

1853 ST. PATRICK, Northside, originally called "St. Aloysius" (L.1852).

The Early Years.

Our unique history dates back to the late 19th century and the three companies from which we evolved: the American Furniture Company, Batesville Cabinet Company, and Batesville Coffin Company. Each company started in 1879, making us one of the nation's oldest case good furniture manufacturers.

American Furniture Company manufactured bedroom furniture while Batesville Cabinet specialized in dining room furniture. Of course, Batesville Coffin is self-explanatory.

When these companies merged, they shared a sales force. The salesmen traveled the nation, calling upon owners of furniture stores and directors of funeral homes - often one in the same. Products were sold and shipped coast to coast, quite a rarity at the time.

1930 - 1959

The Depression was a challenge to most business, and ours was no exception. Our survival hinged on our ability to adapt and make products that were in demand during these lean economic times. In fact, RomWeber made five-pound fruitcake boxes to survive those tough years.

Our versatility came to the fore again during World War II when we made ammunition boxes and pontoons for American troops, and furniture for officers' quarters.

The 60s and beyond.

Romweber furniture went to college with the baby boomers. Schools like Purdue, Indiana University, Xavier University, Miami University of Ohio, and Notre Dame bought it for dorms and classrooms because of its durability. Forty years later, it still is in some of these schools.

No Romweber collection, however, was more popular than our Viking Oak Collection. Word has it that in the early 1930's, R. J. Romweber, grandson of our founder, took a trip to Norway and was inspired to create a line of furniture, based on

Subject: Re: Maria Elisabeth(Mary) Brokamp Hackmann Rulmann Ancestors

Hi Lucy, I went through my files and came up with the following matching surnames. First of all my Brockamps are in Damme and as far as I could go was to Johann Herman Brockamp who married Anna Maria Morman Nov 17, 1763. She was born in 1739 so he would have been born somewhere around that time. Then I had the problem of having several Johann Hermans in the right age group and never could figure which one was mine.

In Steinfeld my husband has a Maria Catharina Von Der Embse who was born Aug 16, 1785. Her parents were Henrich Arend Von Der Embse who was born Dec 28, 1757 and Anna Maria Voerman. Henrich's father was Peter Henrich Von Der Embse.

There is a Gesina Margaretha Haskamp who marriied Johan Bernard Anton Klosterman. She died Feb 5, 1814, but I was not able to find her birth.

Anna Maria Engel Deters, b ca 1750 married Johan Berend Arend Honkomp on May 12, 1772.

So there are several matching surnames, but who knows how far back they go before there is a common ancestor. I still have the Damme films on permanent loan. I guess I need to get the Steinfeld ones back again. It is all so confusing since they used the same names.

Thanks for the help.

In the 1860 Census , I believe, they are listed as Kissing. As near as I can tell, at least from Census records, Herman (or Henry)Kessing (the names are used interchanable in the census Lived in Ohio from Germany, was married (Elizabeth Schroder)in Ohio and had three kds there (Herman H. b.1845, Charles b. 1846 and Agnes b. 1851). The 4th child (Edward) was born in Indiana in 1854. They are on the 1850 Hamilton county census. So, they must have move to Indiana between 1851 and 1854. I've ordered death certificates for some of Herman/henry's kids from Ohio in May - Hopefully, that will help me. I've also ordered some Obituaries from the Cincin. library. I'm still waiting on both...
Thanks for listening and thank for your help

Lucy,

I'm getting closer to finding a connection between my family and yours. I've already found a connection with this other Indiana kessing family (Paul, Charles, Oliver, Robert and Margaret, all children of Edward Kessing and Rose Moffet.)

I believe our connection is with John Henry Kessing son of Benard. Do you have any more information at this level. You sent me tow emails, one saying John Henry was born in Olenburg, Indiana and an other one saying Germany. From what I found, Benard came over with a family of 6. I'm trying to located the source ("Emigrants from the Former Amt. Damme, Oldenburg (Now Niedersachsen), Germany, Mainly to the United States, 1830-1849. (German-American Genealogical Research Monograph, 12. McNeal, Ariz. Westland Pulbications, 1981.

My grandfather was Charles C Kessing s/o Charles Benard Kessing s/o Henry H. Kessing. I believe Henry H. Kessing maybe the s/o Benard and brother of John Henry. It is kind of a long shot, but I've ruled out almost every other Kessings found at Rootsweb/ancestry.com and genealogy.com.

Thanks for all you help.

Dear Lucy:

I have been looking over your Brokamp information you have sent me sometime ago. So far I have not found a connection to our line, but think it may be back before the information I do have.

I am in the process of getting my information on the computer (slow process) and as soon as I get it in there will print off a copy and send it to you. I can't help but think that somewhere back along the line we have common ancestors.

Have been tied up with our youngest son's wedding which has taken quite a lot of ~~a~~ my time, so genealogy has been put on the back burner for a while, am now trying to get back to it but need to get caught up on housework that I have let slide while embroidering some shirts for the wedding party.

I will definitely keep your information and address and be in touch with you again, hopefully with something that will tie in the two connections. My gr-grandfather was Johann Heinrich Brokamp and he married a Marie Behle. So far I have been unable to get back any further than that, but have found a descendant on the Behle side so am in hopes that she might be able to help me.

Thanks again for sending you the information and I will send you my output as soon as I can.

Sincerely

Leola "Lee" Ripperger

Leola (Lee) Ripperger
P.S. Not sure what you have my e-mail address as, but think it might be at mid-mo.net and if so you need to change it to leeripp@iland.net Our server changed and we all got new e-mail addresses. The old one will work until the end of the year and then will bounce.

Leola

Subject: Data

I have received your data by mail. It looks to me that it is the same as what you sent me earlier by e-mail. Unfortunately, the format is not in the standard format that I am familiar with. Although I could probably figure out what the sheets mean, I do not at this time want to enter the data into my records. Thank you for sending me the information.

I have recently received from Germany a copy of the church records from St. John the Baptist, Steinfeld. Hopefully I will be able to enter more of the family groupings based on this data.

Good luck with your research.

Cordt Borchers was a brother of Herman Borchers who moved to Batesville in his old age. His son, Fred Borchers, became a permanent resident of the community. Other members of both Herman and Cordt Borchers' families located in other states and cities.

August Hackman Memoir.

August A. Hackman was born at Oldenburg, Indiana on November ninth, 1857. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hackman. There seems to be no kinship with the other Hackman families of Batesville and vicinity. A. A. Hackman entered the mercantile business at Oldenburg and became the leading general merchant of the town.

He married Agnes Flodder on July ninth, 1879. Four of their five children survived to maturity, August Jr., Mmes Burdick (Stella), Lamping (Cleona), and Agnes Kellerman.

Mr. Hackman was a stockholder and director in the Batesville State Bank from its organization. He became president of the bank in 1902 and retained the position until his death on June fourth, 1925. He sold out his Oldenburg business to Wm. Hoelker in 1893. He built his home on North Walnut Street in 1908 and became a resident of Batesville at that time. He married Mrs. Catharine Hoelker Cors in 1907, his first wife having died some years previously. With his second marriage he and his wife helped to rear the orphaned children of her sister, Mrs. Henry Decker who had been Wm. Hoelkers partner in the hardware business in Batesville and prominent in town affairs. He moved to Lawrenceburg in 1893 and died there the following year.

After Mr. Hackman's death, Mrs. Hackman mothered a second family of nephews, the Rudolph brothers.

Of these young men, several made permanent homes in Batesville.

Mr. Hackman's children continued to reside at Oldenburg. As a leader in financial affairs August Hackman must be counted as an important citizen for many years.He bought the stock of Wm. C. Wingate, entering actively into the Batesville Bank's work at that time, 1897. His activity thus covered an approximate thirty-year period.

Brothers of A. A. Hackman were Henry and Joseph at Rushville and Connersville.

Beinke Memoir.

Mrs. Anna Mary Beinke was born at Hanover, Germany in 1825 and emigrated to America in 1851. She married Frederick Beinke in Cincinnati in 1852 and came to Batesville in 1854, where they bought land and spent the rest of their lives. Mrs. Beinke died in 1914, past eighty-nine years of age.

The family name is perpetuated on the maps and in the records of Batesville by Beinke's Addition and the many deeds to lots originally included in the Beinke farms.

Frederick and Anna Mary Beinke were the parents of ten children, five sons and two daughters surviving to adult life.

Frank Beinke was an honored member of the City Council of Batesville, his second term being prevented by his death at the close of the year after the election. He was born at Morris in 1870. His parents John and Margaret Beinke moved to Batesville when he was a small boy. Frank Beinke entered the employ of the Union Furniture Company at the age of thirteen. He worked the last eighteen years of his life as foreman of the varnishing department. He was married in 1894 to Miss Mary Meyer.

His service on the city council was from 1924 until his death in 1929.

Frederick Beinke, father of the Beinke family, was born in Branische, Hanover, Germany in 1828 and emigrated to America in 1849. He was an active member of the Landwehr Verein. He died in 1909 in the George M. Hillenbrand married Sophia Schrader, daughter of Frederick Schrader, thus uniting two damilies who are among the outstanding builders of the earlier and later city of Batesville.

John A. Hillenbrand married Miss Clara Enneking. Their family all reside in Batesville, the sons and sons-in-law taking executive positions in the offices of the Hillenbrand Industries as they graduate from college and business schools or complete special training courses.

John W. Hillenbrand married Mildred Johnson, daughter of C. L. Johnson of long association in Batesville State Bank affairs.

William and Carl Hillenbrand found brides in other states. Mary Hillenbrand married Wm. Kelly. These young couples all have established homes in Batesville and form an interesting social group.

Miss Rose Hillenbrand married Anthony Romweber of Oldenburg. They located in Batesville, Mr. Romweber entering the American Furniture Company and becoming one of the leading executives. On the separation of the parts of the Hillenbrand Industries he became associated more directly with George M. Hillenbrand in the management of the American Furniture and the Cabinet Companies. The Romwebers have five sons, John, George, Paul, Robert and William who are all members of the firm, married and settled in Batesville, except the youngest, William whose education is not yet completed. (1933)

The Geo. Hillenbrand and A. W. Romweber homes, Hillcrest adjacent to Rosemont and the Golf Links, form one of the show sections of Batesville. The houses are modern and set in shrubbery and flowers, landscape-gardening being possible on an elaborate scale in the location chosen for these homes on North Walnut Street toward the county line road.

John A. Hillenbrand's home is located on Walnut Street, further south and has a more urban setting with lawns and flower-garden.

Subject: Re: question

According to Phoebe Kuck (whoever she is) the parents of Ferdinand Schroeder were listed "unknown". Ferdinand married Mary Elizabeth Romweber (Margaret?). Sisters of Ferdinand were Elizabeth (wed M. Kessing and had 6 children) related to Commodore Kessing - Pacific Islands of Uhithi. Louise married H. Huser and had 8 children. Jennie married John Kreke had one son Father Marcus. Brothers were Henry Herman - wife Mary and son Herman. Edward - wife Agnes had 5 children (Rosia, Emma, Gustav, Edwin and Molly).
Also two half brothers Francis and George (who settled in Illinois). I really need to refresh my mind by reading records that I have. We have a good reference library that I plan to delve into. Hopefully, will have more info for you.

Subject: question

Mary, You said Ferdinand Schroeder was your gt. grandfather. Are you also descended from Margaret or Mary Elizabeth Romweber or did he have children by another wife? The reason I am asking is because I can send you the ancestors of Mary Catherine Frecking Brokamp Romweber, who was M. Elizabeth's mother. I see Margaret was listed as Elizabeth on the censuses. So often in German families, they seem to use the middle name. Let me know and I can send you the ancestors. I am almost certain that the Romwebers, who make the famous Romweber furniture are descendants of Anthony Andrew Romweber & Mary C. but any letters I have sent to descendants have remained unanswered.
They are a well-to do family(maybe they thought I was after their money

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

Father gave your letter of 6/25 to me to answer. I am sorry I found no Brokamps. The file also suggested Prokamps but I doubt that will help as I found none in the 1840's.

I have made copies of the Prokamp deaths I found & am enclosing them. They are very difficult to read, but when you are doing geneology & have some idea of what the name is supposed to be, it makes it a bit easier.

I have also enclosed a couple of copies of baptismal records for you to study and some Kessing & Stackman deaths. I found no Rulman's in the death records.

If these are any help, I'm glad for you. If you have more questions let me know.
